THE BANNOCK BRAVES

Trouble With the Indians Unavoidable.

THE DURRANT TRIAL POSTPONED

Weather Report for Eastern Oregon—Damaging Evidence against H. H. Holmes.

Many Able-Bodied Bannocks En Route for Jackson's Hole.

POCATELLO, Idaho, July 23.—At the Bannock Indian agency, 13 miles north of here, those in authority do not believe the trouble in Jackson Hole country can possible reach a final settlement now without more bloodshed. Almost every able-bodied Bannock has decamped for the scene of the trouble.

From the most trusted police it is learned that many Indians who are apparently returning to their homes have said they were taking their squaws and papooses home to the reservation, and then they would return to "see the white men of the Jackson Hole country."

Populists of Ohio Will Put Him in Nomination.

CHICAGO, July 23.—A special from Springfield, O., says:

Jacob S. Coxe, the commonwealth reformer, will be the populist nominee for governor. So said Chairman Creager, of the state executive committee. "Mr. Coxe is the only man named for the nomination," said he. "Populists with one accord seem to want him for their standard-bearer. Coxe will be nominated by acclamation."

Durrant's Trial Promises to Be a Long One.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—Theodore Durrant was in court this morning for a short time. His trial for the murder of Blanche Lamont had been practically adjourned until Thursday to permit the district attorney to procure affidavits in answer to the defendant's affidavits that he could not get a fair trial in San Francisco. Durrant was brought into court today through regard to the jurors, who had been summoned for this morning. The case will be resumed Thursday morning.

Damaging Evidence.

CHICAGO, July 23.—During the police examination of H. H. Holmes' house today a portion of a woman's wrapper, torn and stained, was found. The nature of the stains could not be determined and an analysis will be made. Hidden under the rubbish was a barrel and in it, buried among broken crockery and old tinware, was the dress. The house was surrounded all day by a crowd.

Secured Three Diamonds.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—An attempt was made to loot a showcase of diamonds in the display window of the Columbian loan office last night by means of a wire inserted in a hole cut through a partition. The thieves secured three diamonds, worth $200, before they were frightened away.

A Cowboy's Pluck.

DENVER, July 24.—Samuel Watson, a cowboy employed by J. O. Dostal, near Arroyo, was thrown from his horse 10 miles from here, breaking his leg. He dragged himself across the prairie nine miles, and was found after two days within a mile of the ranch terribly exhausted. He will probably recover.

Bids Wanted.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—An advertisement has been issued from the navy department calling for proposals for building six light-draft composite gunboats for the navy. The bids will be opened on October 1.

Death Sentence Commuted.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The president has commuted the death sentence imposed on Thomas J. Taylor, to be hanged Friday for the murder of his wife. It is asserted that Taylor was driven to the deed by his wife's unfaithfulness.

Killed His Wife.

St. Louis, July 24.—George Reed, a painter, shot and killed his wife at 8 this morning, as the result of jealous rage. He said his wife, who seemed to prefer the society of other men to his, stayed out all night.

Amnesty Granted.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 24.—An imperial edict has been issued granting amnesty to all Armenian political prisoners, and many of the latter are already released.

Gold Still Going Out.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Nesslage, Colgate & Co. will ship $100,000 gold to Europe tomorrow by the steamer Fuerst Bismarck.

WEATHER BUREAU.

Weather Crop Bulletin No 17 of the Oregon State Weather Service for Eastern Oregon.

Weather—On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, the temperature ranged about the normal, while on the remaining days the temperature was cooler. A fresh southerly wind prevailed, and the weather remained clear. The weather compared favorably with that of the previous week, when dry, warm winds were discouraging. There was an absence of precipitation.

Crops—Weather conditions have been favorable to all crops in Wasco and Sherman counties, while in other sections the weather remaining dry (though not so dry as the previous week), could not be said to be favorable, though it was an improvement.

Reports from Wasco and Sherman counties continue favorable regarding all crops; wheat, oats, barley and potatoes are doing especially well. Owing to the low prices for last year's crop, the acreage of the present grain crop was materially reduced. The quality of grain in Wasco and Sherman counties will be A. 1, and the yield per acre will approach near to the average.

Harvest has commenced in earnest throughout the Columbia valley. Haying has commenced in Umatilla and Morrow counties and in the Walla Walla valley. South and east of the Blue mountains and including the counties of Umatilla and Morrow, the yield of all kinds of grain will fall far short of the average, and the quality will be inferior. This section has suffered greatly from the drouth. In some sections of the above-described territory the spring sown grain will scarcely pay the cost of harvesting it, and a field of grain which promises anything near an average yield is rare. There are some good fields of barley in Union county. There is a good prospect for fruit in all sections, and the potato crop has withstood the dry weather surprisingly well. Fruit is making a rapid growth, and the early varieties of apples are ripe. Blackberries are ripe and plentiful in the market. Hood River peaches are also ripe. In Klamath and Harney counties the fruit will be of good quality, though not plentiful, owing to the work of the early frosts. Haying continues, and alfalfa is still being cut. The drouth has materially lessened the yield of hay, and but for the fact that the season of 1894 produced more than was required for consumption, consequently leaving much of last year's crop on hand, farmers would be at a loss for feed for their stock, which, unfortunately, is the case in many sections.

McClure's for August.

The first of Anthony Hope's new series of Zenda stories, in McClure's Magazine for August, reciting a heroic love passage between the beautiful Princess Osra and brave Stephen the Smith, is most charming. "The girl was young and the dream was sweet," and the story is in full accord with these attractive conditions. The new Jungle story by Kipling is also notable. Only one or two of the previous Jungle stories approach it in strength and ingenuity. It tells how Mowgli, under the shrewd direction of Kaa, the rock python, lured the Red Dogs of the Dekkan, whom the Jungle feared above all other creatures, to a destruction so complete that not one was left to tell the tale. In the same number are a story by Stately J. Weyman, wherein good, hearty justice finally overtakes an oppressive tax-gatherer; and a California story by Bret Harte. Miss Tarbell supplies a very interesting account of Bishop John H. Vincent and his work in founding and developing the Chautauqua Assembly, and also of the wonderful growth and usefulness of that institution. Numerous portraits and other pictures accompany the paper. The life of the circus performer, as it shows itself behind the scenes, is the subject of an illustrated article by Cleveland Moffett. Moltke's manner of carrying on war is described by the English war correspondent, Archibald Forbes, from the writer's own observation of Moltke through the Franco-Prussian war, and from conversations which he himself held with Moltke on the subject. In illustration of the article there are historic battle scenes and some interesting portraits. The romantic history of the robbing of the Northampton (Mass.) Bank of upwards of a million dollars in money and securities, and of the long pursuit and ultimate conviction of the robbers, is related from the records of the Pinkerton detective bureau.

Expedition to Aid Cubans.

NEW YORK, July 24.—It is an open secret that preparations are being made to send an expedition to Cuba at the earliest opportunity. General Rafael de Quesada will assume command. A suitable vessel has been selected and purchased.

Gold is Still Being Exported—Bold Work of Mexican Outlaws—A Cow Boy's Pluck.

ROBBED A FAHO BANK.

Bold Work of a Mexican Outlaw and His Companion.

Raton, N. M., July 24.—Martinez, the escaped Trinidad murderer, and a companion held up a saloon here last night, compelling eight men to stand still while they swept $500 off the bar table into a sack. They backed out, keeping the gamblers covered with revolvers and escaped to a part of the country where Martinez has many friends and the officers are afraid to follow them.

Sentenced to Twenty Years.

TRENTON, N. J., July 24.—John S. Collins, the negro who shot and killed student Frederick Ohl at Princeton last June, and was convicted of murder in the second degree, was today sentenced to 20 years of hard labor in the state prison. He was required to plead to an indictment for atrocious assault upon Garrett Cochran, another student, who he shot at the same time. His counsel entered a plea non vult contendere. Upon this plea Collins was sentenced to 10 years more, but the court decided to allow the sentence to run concurrently.

Five Men Under Arrest.

WAUSEONATORIO, July 24.—Five men are under arrest on suspicion of being connected with the hold-up on the Lake Shore at Reese's station last night. Two tramps who were on the train jumped off when the shooting began, ran back to Archibald and notified the Lake Shore people, and in less than three hours a special train carrying the sheriff and a posse, with detectives, arrived at the scene of the robbery and began to scour the country.

May Have Gone to Japan.

DENVER, July 24.—It is believed that Frederick L. Smith, the missing manager of the John W. Knox Jewelry Company, and son-in-law of Mr. Knox, has gone to Japan. Benedict & Phelps, attorneys for Knox, say Smith ran the company into debt $40,000, but just how does not appear.

They also say he raised $25,000 before his departure, putting up the company's diamonds as collateral.

Still Looking for Brady.

WOODLAND, Cal., July 24.—Officers are still scouring the country in pursuit of Train-Robber Brady. The hunt was maintained all night about ranches but no trace of Brady or his companion could be found. Detectives are now searching the neighborhood of Madison, Davidville and Gray's Bend. They think they are hot on the bandit's trail.

A Blaze in San Francisco Does Much Damage.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Fire this morning on Commercial street started in a coffee-roaster owned by Fillmam & Bendel, and consumed the building and a stock of coffee and spices, a stock of liquors adjoining, a cigar factory and a tailor shop. The loss is $50,000, fully insured.

Went up with a Rush.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Wheat went up with a wild rush today, closing almost 5 cents higher than yesterday, at 71 1/4. The principal cause for the sensational advance was the slight movement in wheat, which, with higher foreign markets, scared the shorts into a wild scramble for cover.

Miss Whitney's Engagement.

NEW YORK, July 25.—A dispatch from Newport, R. I., to the Evening World, reports the engagement of Miss Pauline Whitney, daughter of ex-Secretary Whitney, to Mr. Almerac Paget, of St. Paul, Minn., a member of an English family, and brother of Colonel Arthur Paget.

Two Girls Drowned.

FORT COLLINS, Colo., July 24.—Kate O'Laughlin and Fannie Shafere, each about 14 years old, waded into the water while fishing at Berry's lake today, and sinking in a drop hole, were both drowned. They belonged to prominent families in this town.

Theater Burned.

BONN, July 24.—The Reichsrahen theater burned last night. The audience escaped, only one person being burned.

"Uncle Tom" in a Tent.

The people of The Dalles had an opportunity last night of witnessing what was, without a doubt, the most amazing performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" ever given in this fair city. The stupendous aggregation, duly heralded and advertised, arrived yesterday morning and proceeded to unravel their thirty acres of canvas, more or less, and provide quarters for the ferocious animals of Siberian nationality. The report had gone the rounds that spectators in other places had pronounced the show exceedingly "crummy"—if such an expression could be used—but who ever started such a rumor erred on the side of mildness. Albeit the regulation number of people walked to the ticket office and deposited their entrance money with a look on their faces of mingled anticipation and regret.

The interior of the tent had something the appearance and effect of a circus, but the soft colors of the decorations and the dim religious light which the flickering gas jets afforded, coupled with the solemn faces of people who were just beginning to realize for what their money had been spent, gave to the combination the look of an unsuccessful campmeeting. The painting of the scenery belonged to a period before the renaissance and the scene upon the drop curtain was an enigma to the audience. Some thought it a picture of the Cascade Locks, with a sailing vessel in the background, while to others it seemed the "Gates Ajar," or the entrance into the Columbia river. But the scenery was a paragon of merit compared to the acting. A reporter of THE CHRONICLE, in company with several friends, attended the performance and secured a resting place on a small portion of a plank just outside the reserved seats. But it was not for long, as the peanut boy and program peddler came that way and wished that place as a rest for his feet while he auctioned off his wares to a patient people.

The first act opened with a dining-room scene in which Eliza crossed the river on the ice. Several dogs of reputed ferocity, each one having a man attached to its collar, walked across the stage in pursuit of Eliza, who, had she known the character of her pursuers, would have felt perfectly secure.

Then came an intensely exciting scene in which Lawyer Marks showed a wonderful capacity for storing away liquors and drank a bottle empty without breathing. The audience was tumultuous in their applause at this gigantic feat and many men were heard to remark that they wished they had Marks' tank. This capacity was really astounding. After Marks was through drinking he began an explanation of who he was and how he came to be there. Then it was time to drink again, which pleased the audience immensely, because Marks with his mouth full of the small end of a bottle was a much better actor than when free to talk. There are some other characters in the play, but as so many of his acquaintances had left, THE CHRONICLE reporter was getting lonely and so he too arose and like the Arab, silently stole away. The remainder of the show might have been good, and if it was, we apologize to the management for these few remarks; but it would take a Joseph Jefferson, or Edwin Booth or the leading man of the Home Dramatic club during the rest of the evening to redeem the show from what it was the first act and a half.

We are glad to praise when we can, so it may truthfully be said the music was good. The band on the street played well, and had there been nothing but the band the audience would have been better pleased.

GREAT EXCITEMENT PREVAILS

A Murderer Attracts Suspicion to Himself—Twenty Whites Reported Killed—Other News.

POCATELLO, Idaho, July 25.—Reports from Market Lake say that the Rexburg paper of today reports that nine white people were killed by the Bannocks near Jackson's Hole, but there is no way to confirm the report, and it is not believed. A courier is expected at Market Lake hourly from the vicinity of Jackson's Hole with the latest news. There has been nothing received at Market Lake for three days of an authentic nature.

Forty-four cars of United States cavalry left Cheyenne tonight for Market Lake with provisions, tents, etc. They will reach Pocatello tomorrow. It is certain that all of the passes are closely guarded in and out of Jackson's Hole, which accounts for the meager news. The troops will be immediately piloted to Wind river, and it is likely trouble will be made after their arrival. It is feared that the Indians will take advantage of the few numbers of settlers and commit wholesale murders before the soldiers can interfere.

Four hundred Lemhi Indians are reported to have joined the Bannocks on Fall river, and are preparing to make an onslaught upon the whites. It is probable that Governor McConnell will be called upon to aid in suppressing violence. Several tourists are in Pocatello awaiting results before making their departure for Yellowstone Park. Indian Agent Tator is at Fort Hall agency awaiting the arrival of the cavalry from Cheyenne.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed an exhibit at the World's Fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparilla sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the World's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

How a Murderer Attracted Suspicion to Himself.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 25.—Jesus Ibera, the slayer of Pedro Mendoza, is under arrest for the deed, which was committed last Saturday. The homicide from the day of the event, went daily to the place of the tragedy, gave a glance of horror at the ground, and then would go his way sadly and thoughtfully. His attraction for the spot finally diverted suspicion to him and caused his arrest.
