Antelope Items.

To THE EDITOR:—Wm. Newton, an old and respected citizen of Antelope, died at his home Saturday, from dropsy of the heart and was buried this morning at Bake Oven. Mr. Bolton and family, Mr. Hinkle and family and Mr. Kelsay's family of Buck Hollow went fishing and camping on Pine Hollow. They report a good time and a catch of about 300 fine trout. E. M. Shutt has been spending the week in Portland, a delegate to the grand lodge, A. O. U. W. Paul Kreft of The Dalles has just completed the painting of the large residence of Mr. Brogan and is now painting and papering the residence of Thos. Harper. Thos. Harper was badly hurt by a kick from a vicious horse he was shoeing, but he is able to be around again. Chester, son of W. Bolton, is quite sick with brain fever. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery. Rev. Hinton held services Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night at the schoolhouse. Mr. Hinton contemplates organizing a Baptist mission at Antelope and building a church. Antelope has the unenviable reputation of being the largest village in Oregon without a church building of any kind. The carpenters are at work building a 40-foot addition to the Antelope feed barn owned by W. D. Jones. The ground is being broken for the new Antelope public hall and opera house, being built by Chas. Durham, the sawmill man. It will be 30x90 feet, two stories. The lower floor is to be fitted up for a dance hall and the upper floor for a lodge room and opera, with a fine stage. Arthur Stewart, the well known contractor and builder of Antelope, has the contract for its construction, which insures a fine building. Mrs. Doc. Kimsey and Mrs. Grant Aslby spent Sunday in town. Miss Laura Kelsay is spending a few days in town, the guest of Mrs. Wallace. Ed. Murphy has arrived home from the valley, making the trip on horseback. We were informed that Mr. J. Hollingshead contemplates forming a partnership in the mercantile business with Mr. Oaks, the Mitchell merchant. Hay harvest is nearly over in this vicinity. C. V. Lane, who has been very sick for some time, is improving with fair prospects for recovery. Mrs. Rodgers has so far recovered as to move out to her own home. Alex. Kirchheimer has received his appointment as fire insurance agent and will fill a long felt want in this vicinity. Mrs. Stockers' residence had a close call by fire one day last week, but prompt action saved the house with but small loss. W. D. Jones and Arthur Stewart made a business trip to the Trout and Willow creek sawmills last week. Frank Irvine and Sam Patterson went hunting one day on Juniper Ridge and returned with thirty-one fine grouse. Going to the mountains to camp, hunt and fish is the order of the day this hot weather. HORNETTS. July 22, 1895.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

A Write Up of the Press Association by a Chronicle Representative--All Have a Good Time.

NEWPORT, Or.

To THE EDITOR:—The Press Association left Portland on Saturday at 8:30, a. m., via east side to Albany. At this point the delegation was reinforced by the members of Southern Oregon, leaving Albany at 1:15, and after a most delightful trip, the excursionists arrived at Yaquina City at 5:30, and were met by the Second regiment band and a large delegation of citizens. From Yaquina City to Newport, across the bay, the distance is 3 1/2 miles. The tug boat Volanta, connects with trains and at 5 o'clock p. m. we arrived at our destination—Newport. The Dalles delegation have quarters at the Ocean House.

The clambake on the beach last Sunday was a great success, not less than two thousand people being present. J. W. Malcolm of the Hotel Portland having charge of the same. Sunday morning and afternoon the steamship Eralon took excursionists out over the bar, and it is said that a more generous lot of "Faber shovers" never met before, they insisted in giving up all they had, even their breakfast.

The ninth annual convention of the Oregon Press Association adjourned this p. m., after a very pleasant and enjoyable session. The meeting was called to order Saturday evening by President Jno. R. Beegle, of the St. Helens Mist, who stated the only matter that would come before the meeting that evening would be an address by Senator John H. Mitchell. The senator was introduced and delivered an interesting address to the citizens of Newport and the visiting scribes. At the conclusion of the address, the Corvallis Quartette Club favored the audience with a selection, after which the meeting adjourned until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Monday—Meeting called to order by President Beegle, who introduced Rev. Thompson of Corvallis and the convention was opened with prayer. The Corvallis Quartette again favored the association with a selection.

The names of a number of applicants were then read and elected members of the association. The president then announced the following standing committees:

Resolutions—Miss Rose Michell, Geo. L. Peaslee, J. S. Stewart.

Grievances—Miss M. Probstel, G. F. Halsey, W. H. Leeds.

Finance—Geo. B. Small, Robt. Johnson, M. E. Bain.

Legislation—J. B. Eddy, B. F. Alley, J. F. Amis, A. W. Patterson, Chas. Nickell.

Mr. Bensell, of Newport was then introduced and welcomed the members of the press to Newport and Lincoln county, assuring them that the homes of the citizens were open to the association; that the hinges of the city jail were broken and that the police were instructed to keep mum when in the presence of any member of the association.

President Beegle then delivered his annual address. He reviewed the work of the association for the past year and offered many valuable suggestions to the craft. He felt confident that the press of Oregon was in a better condition than at our last annual meeting.

On motion convention adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

Afternoon session—Meeting called to order by President Beegle. On motion convention proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing year with the following result:

President—C. C. Doughty, Dallas.

First vice president—A. W. Patterson, Hegama.

Second vice president—A. M. Fisher, Portland.

Treasurer—Chas. Nickell, Jacksonville.

Secretary—Albert Tozier, Portland.

Sergeant-at-Arms—J. R. Beegle, St. Helens.

President Doughty announced the following committees:

Grievances—G. B. Small, B. F. Alley, Geo. F. Halsey.

Finance—Geo. L. Peaslee, S. L. Moorhead, E. P. Thorp.

State of Fraternity—A. R. Tattle, E. Hofer, Robt. Johnson.

National Committeeman—C. C. Doughty.

NOTES.

During the session a telegram was received by the association announcing the fact that the supreme court of this state had confirmed the sale of the Oregon Pacific road; this was received with a plausive by the convention. A telegram was also received announcing the sudden death of Judge Strahan, which cast a gloom over the convention. The president appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions. Senator John H. Mitchell and daughter, Mrs. Handy, spent Sunday at the Ocean House. Congressman Ellis and family are guests at the Monterey. The inimitable and only C. S. Jackson of the East Oregonian entertained the guests at Ocean House with some of his choice and original stories. The indefatigable Albert Tozier, secretary of the association, is "out of sight" in his bathing suit, it is all wool and a yard wide. Ira L. Campbell, one of the successful newspaper men of Oregon and ex-president of the association, is here; but is not "in it" with Charley Nickell and his ice cream suit. H. R. Kincaid, secretary of state, in company with his son, Webster, spent Sunday on the beach. Gov. Lord took in the clambake last Sunday. "B."

At the Christian Church Last Night.

A fair sized audience greeted Rev. H. E. Monser last night at the Christian church. Mr. Monser is an eloquent speaker and from the start held the closest attention of the audience by the force of his discourse. The lecturer began by referring to the happy day he had just spent on the Columbia journey from Portland to The Dalles and that BUDS, Society buds, young women just entering the doors of society or womanhood, require the wisest care. To be beautiful and charming they must have perfect health, with all it implies—a clear skin, rosy cheeks, bright eyes and good spirits. At this period the young woman is especially sensitive, and many nervous troubles, which continue through life, have their origin at this time. If there be pain, headache, backache, and nervous disturbances, or the general health not good, the judicious use of medicine should be employed. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best restorative tonic and nerve at this time. The best bodily condition results from its use. It's a remedy specially indicated for those delicate weakesses and derangements that afflict women at one period or another. You'll find that the woman who has faithfully used the "Prescription" is the picture of health, she looks well and feels well.

In catarrhal inflammation, in chronic displacements common to women, where there are symptoms of backache, dizziness or fainting, bearing down sensations, disordered stomach, moodiness, fatigue, etc., the trouble is surely dispelled and the sufferer brought back to health and good spirits.

"WOMAN'S ILLS." Mrs. W. E. BATES, of Detroit, Trumbull Co., Ohio, writes:

"A few years ago I took Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which has been a great benefit to me. I am in excellent health now. I hope that every woman who is troubled with 'women's ills' will try the 'Prescription' and be benefited as I have been."

the associations would always remain present in memory.

The subject was "How Can the Christian Endeavor Society Help the Church?" and with this question the speaker discussed, how can it hurt the church and the effect which the church can have on the society. Mr. Monser gave a short resume of this wonderful movement and in speaking of its critics, described an old fashioned prayer meeting in a manner that caused the audience to smile. He showed how the Sunday school committee had gone and brought into the school thousands of scholars and that many more are studying the Bible today than before the days of the Christian Endeavor Society. Work for the church, is the motto of the younger organization. The society he divided into three parts: The eyes, or the lookout committee; the soul, or the prayer meeting committee; the heart, or the social committee. Without all of these the society would be a poor thing of little use. The society can help the church by welcoming strangers and making them feel at home; by taking up the work of the church in Sunday school and other lines and first and last always keeping the pledge of the society. The church can help by wise council and advice. The pastor should be the leader. The church can hurt the society by a spirit of coldness.

The address was full of instructive thoughts which, well supplied with illustrations, were striking. Mr. Monser is a fluent speaker and spoke entertainingly for over an hour and a half. Mr. Monser will lecture again Friday evening on "Novel Reading" and will doubtless be greeted by a good audience.
