TO THE EDITOR.—Everyone is busy preparing for the coming harvest, which promises to be larger than was at first expected. The acreage in grain is not more than half what it was last year, but the yield will be moderately good. Of course volunteer is a failure, and late spring grain will not be worth much; but your correspondent knows of several places in Sherman county that will go twenty to twenty-five bushels to the acre easily. Mrs. S. S. Hayes, wife of our county clerk, accompanied by her two children and her niece, Mrs. Wyatt, started last Thursday for their old home in Linn county, where they will sojourn this month. The clerk himself, with H. A. Moore and J. B. Hosford are this week camped on the classic banks of Badger creek dealing out death and destruction to the finny tribe. Let us hope their piscatorial efforts will meet with success. Milton Damon and Henry Hennagin, with their respective families, returned last week from Hood River, where they had been spending a couple of weeks picking berries and recuperating generally for the harvest season. Mr. Martin, representing the Eastern Oregon Land Co., has been stopping in the county during the past week looking after the company's interests here. He left for The Dalles last Saturday. Judge Bellinger's decision condemning generally the appointment of receivers in farm mortgage foreclosure cases is meeting with unqualified approval from the farmers in this county. Viewed from the farmers' standpoint, the decision is a beneficial one, if it results in diminishing the number of farm loans in the future. Doubtless the money lender looks upon it as a rank injustice, but that does not trouble the borrower a particle. The latter seems to enjoy hugely any judicial decision, whether equitable or otherwise, which tends to hamper the former in recovering his dues. Such is the ingratitude of poverty. The people of Grant school district are preparing to build a large school-house, but there seems to be a difference of opinion among the legal voters as to where it ought to be located, whether in the town of Grant or further east near Rufus. Rev. Morehead, who has so acceptably filled the Methodist pulpit here for the last couple of years, expects to be transferred to another sphere of duty by the next conference which will meet at Spokane in a couple of weeks. His departure will be regretted by his friends, whose name is legion. VAGA. Praise for the Land Office. The following from the Antelope Herald speaks in high terms of the efficient land office officials: It is now just about one year since the new register and receiver took charge of the United States land office at The Dalles, and, in justice to those officials, let it be said that the duties of their respective offices have never been more carefully or ably attended to than they have been during the past 12 months. We have heard not a single complaint of their actions anywhere throughout the land district so far, and we are satisfied, the same record will be maintained during the next three years. Hon. J. F. Moore, the register, and Col. W. H. Biggs, the receiver, make ideal land officers, and this item will voice the sentiments of all the settlers throughout The Dalles land district. Not since "The Anglomaniacs" has there been so clever a society satire as Henry Fuller's "Pilgrim Sons," which is published in the August Cosmopolitan. The problems involved in woman's use of a bicycle are so startling and so numerous, under the rapid evolution of this art, that one welcomes a careful discussion of the subject by so trained a mind and so clever a writer as Mrs. Reginald de Koven. The Cosmopolitan illustrates Mrs. de Koven's article with a series of poses by professional models. A new sport, more thrilling than any known to Nimrod, more dangerous than was ever experienced by even a Buffalo Bill, is exploited in the same issue in an article on "Photographing Big Game in the Rocky Mountains," before shooting. The idea that ten cents for The Cosmopolitan means inferiority from a literary point of view is dispelled by the appearance in this number of such writers as Sir Lewis Morris, Sir Edwin Arnold, Edgar Fawcett, Tabb, W. Clark Russell, Lang, Sarcey, Zangwill, Agnes, Reppiler, etc. Nor can we entertain the idea of inferiority in illustration with such names as Hamilton Gibson, Denman, VanSchrick, Lix, Sandham, etc., figuring as the chief artists of a single month's issue.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

The big blast which occurred east of here last Saturday recalls some former happenings of the same kind. The biggest discharge of explosives, which ever occurred on this road was near Shell Rock, when the whole side of the mountain went into the river. L. E. Crowe of Mays & Crowe; was at that time in the employ of the company and arranged the battery that caused the explosion. He also touched it off. Many people came from Portland to witness the scene which was awful in its effect. The signal was given by a whistle from the steamer R. R. Thompson, upon which were the high officials of the company. The blast on the line of road this side of tunnel No. 3—opposite Lyle—was another large one. Twenty-one tons of powder, it is estimated, were put in the drifts but it did not explode. The discharge was not as successful as contemplated, though a great amount of rock was torn in two. The blasts were always attended with danger and many men were killed during the construction of the road.
