The Astorian re-prints THE CHRONIche's comments concerning Secretary tors and to the city of Portland. Peo-Kincaid, and adds:

Astoria has been the beneficiary of a taste of this desire, so apparent in Mr. Kincaid, to get hold of everything in sight, and probably the action to which we have reference was more picayunish or very many of them, could illy afford and contemptible than any charge men- to loose their deposits; but since the tioned by The Chronicle. A state com-mission to represent Oregon at the Mexican exposition was appointed by Governor Lord some months ago. These gentlemen, selected by the gover-nor to represent our state, and to devise ways and means to contribute to her honor and further fame abroad, were chosen by the chief executive with special reference to their fitness for the position, and all felt flattered by the A few weeks after the apelection. pointments were made each of the commissioners received his credentials, signed by the governor and containing the seal of the state, accompanied by a letter from Mr. Kincaid, in which that individual made a demand for $2 for affixing the scal. gets that the railroad commission is endeavoring to administer its office as economically as possible; that it is doing just what the law says to do, viz., collecting all it can from the state treasury, and doing as little real service as possible; just what our distinguished secretary is doing. The real fact remains that the secretary has his nose very deep in the crib, and when the railroad commission, which is made to draw a salary and nothing more, tries to get its nose into the manger, he growls and kicks. PUNISH ALL THIEVES.

Some of the fruit raisers near town have been, and are being, greatly annoyed by the incursions of grown hoodlums and badly-governed small boys upon their melon fields. There is not a farmer in the country who would not gladly give a manly boy, or a needy man, all the melons he wants, and the loss of such melons as are taken is inconsiderable; but when a whole field of melons is ruined by the use of a knife in the hands of a boy or man inspired to mischief by satan himself, the loss is a A gentleman residing at The Dalles the democrats, however. It was not grievous one and the wrong one that should be severely punished.

The only proper course is to land every pilferer behind the bars, regardless of the social standing of his family, at the Sioux Falls penitenciary. This and cause him to suffer the lawful result of his offense. Fruit-stealing is winked at too much; to such an extent that many boys are filled with the idea that is the right of every manly boy to take anything and everything in the way of fruit that can be reached. ed, so lar as courts are concerned; but the effect upon the compated in the hanging, is likely to be evil, both now and during the remainder of their lives.

There was a time on the Pacific coast when law was impotent, and the direct punishment of murder, or even lesser crimes, by lynching, became necessary; but that time has long since passed. Courts are often slow in the administration of justice, and sometimes fail endilatoriousness and failure is far less evil than the violation of law and order, as in the case at Ellensburg.

I had a baby that had Eczema in its worst form. I had one of the best physicians in the city attending her, but she continued to get worse all the time under his treatment. He finally admitted that he was at his wits' end. I then got CUTICULA REMEDIES, and in a fee days noticed great charge in her con-dition. She continued to improve after that, and to day is entirely cured, has nice head of hair, and is lively and hearty. I can fully recommend them as being the best medicines for the cure of this discase. I spent con-siderable money for drugs and doctor's bills, which was meless in this case, for I think if your remedies don't cure, nothing will.
