The DALLES WEEKLY CHRONICLE Saturday, August 24, 1890

Well Dressed Men are wearing FEDORAS

We are showing the very latest Blocks and Shades.

PEASE & MAYS.

Second and Federal Bts.

THE DALLES, OR.

OLD HICKORY

The Hewitt and Rust Company.

Best Premium award at the World's Fair.

Hodge Headers and Extras. Osbornes Buckeye Mowers & Extras.

MAYS & CROWE.

The Daily and Weekly Chronicle of The DALLES.

Local Events.

Wednesday's Party.

The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Malta, of the house of Malta and Ballin, was the object of a large gathering yesterday afternoon. The bride, Miss Gertrude Malta, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Malta, of this city. The wedding took place in the Roman Catholic church in this city. The bride was a beautiful girl of a pleasing disposition. The bride was dressed in a beautiful wedding dress, and the bridal party was formed of a full complement of bridesmaids and attendants. The wedding was followed by a formal reception at the home of the bride and groom. A large number of guests were present at the reception, and the company was kept up till late in the evening. The bride and groom were left in the care of the bride's parents, and the wedding was a happy and prosperous event in the life of the bride and groom.

Orders of the Day.

The city council met in session on Thursday, with a full complement of members. The council discussed several important matters, including the construction of a new bridge over the Columbia River, the improvement of the city's water supply, and the establishment of a new park in the city. The council also approved the appointment of a new city clerk, and the election of a new city marshal. The council adjourned after the conclusion of its business.

Business Events.

The local business community is in lively activity, with a large number of transactions being conducted. The banks are busy with a large number of deposits and withdrawals, and the merchants are busy with a large number of sales and purchases. The local newspapers are full of news and information on local events and issues.

Weather Report.

The weather in the region is pleasant, with clear skies and mild temperatures. The temperature is in the low 70s, with a high of 80 degrees expected. The humidity is low, and the wind is blowing from the north. The outlook for the next few days is favorable, with no rain expected.

Sports Events.

The local sports community is active, with a large number of events and games being held. The local baseball team is in the middle of a tough season, with a record of 7-9. The football team is also in action, with a record of 2-3. The local tennis club is holding a tournament, with a large number of participants.

Miscellaneous.

The local community is busy with a large number of events and activities. The local library is open for business, with a large number of books and materials available for checkout. The local museum is open for business, with a large number of exhibits and displays on display.

The Daily and Weekly Chronicle of The DALLES, OR.