Outlook for Fruit.

The latest bulletin indicates that the eastern market is firm. A great deal of Wasco county fruit is being shipped daily, and the prospects are that heavy shipments will continue. Following is the bulletin:

The eastern markets still remain firm, and the outlook grows more favorable for the shipper. From many large cities come advices that our fruit is wanted. Bartlett pears-A great many Bartlett pears are being shipped from Oregon, and first-class pears are bringing good prices. No shipments sent through the union have arrived at destination yet. The ruling price paid by Portland commission men has been 35 cents per box. Mark Levy Company had sold in Minneapolis on the 21st pears for $1.75 per box, this price netting 75 cents per box; a good profit for the speculator, but not so good for the grower. Pears today are quoted from $1.75 to $2.25 in all markets, and less shipments each day from California.

Plums, prunes-Prices on Egg plums, 80 to 95 cents; Hungarian, $1.25 to $1.40; Silver pranes, 90 cents to $1. No Oregon Italians have yet been sold, but prices will rule from $1 to $1.25 for good fruit. These prices are holding strong, and will not change much, netting the until the directors ordered the doors unshipper 11/2 to 21/2 cents.
