The Weekly Chronicle. directors.

THE DALLES, - - - - OREGON OFFICIAL PAPER OF WASCO COUNTY.

Entered at the Postoffice at The Dalles, Oregon as second-class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. BY MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, IN ADVANCE. $1 50 75 50 One year Bix months Three months Advertising rates reasonable, and made known on application.

Address all communications to "THE CRRON-ICLE," The Dalles, Oregon.

The Daily and Weekly Chronicle may be found on sale at I. C. Nickelsen's store. Telephone No. 1.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Wednesday's Daily. The weather report for tomorrow is fair and stationary. Three cars of sheep left the stock yards for Troutdale this morning. Something new in bicycle caps just received at A. M. Williams & Co's.

A car of pears, with other varieties, is being loaded today for shipment to Chicago.

Work will be commenced next week on Mr. S. Wilkerson's new house on Washington street, near Fifth.

You can save enough to pay your summer ice bill by buying your winter stock Harrington, 9 crates Hungarian prunes; of blankets at A. M. Williams & Co.'s Frank Taylor, 78 crates plums, 11 boxes special blanket sale. Saturday next is the last day of sale.

The second train load of tea from the steamer Altmore passed through The Dalles this morning. Sixteen cars were Monday. on the train. It goes east over the Great Northern.

This is the last week of vacation and next Monday another year of study begins. The scholars generally will look paint. forward to the opening day with pleasure, for, atter all, too much vacation gets a little tiresome, and they long for the Portland. pleasant companionship and asoociations of school life.

The pile driver has finished the first row of piling for the steamer warehouse and is now well started on the second row. The work will go forward more rapidly now, as the hardest part has been gone over. Some idea of the magnitude of the building can be obtained from the number of piling and the length of the rows.

minute. Mr. E. B. Dufur, that prince of gentlemen, returned yesterday from fishing on 15-Mile. He brought in the results of superior fishing skill, and out of the if we were to be treated to a regulation generosity of his heart, remembered the Willamette valley rain storm. editor of THE CHRONICLE with a fine mess. We hope he may continue to go fishing and dispose of a portion of his who is visiting at A. S. Powers', at Mccatch in the same way.

buck on one of the trails the other night. Harmon Temple, No. 4, will give their She is said to be a fine shot with a last picnic of the season at Academy park on Friday next. All children are rifle .-- Guard. cordially invited to come and enjoy the day with the young people. The parents also will be very welcome. Every in the diamond swindle yesterday, will be one is requested to bring baskets well tried tomorrow before Justice Davis. The filled. The picnicers will meet at the defense is represented by E. B. Dufur, park at 10 a. m. and return home at 4 Esq., and the state by G. W. Phelps. p. m.

. m. The little boy of Mr. and Mrs. Oakes, Between the Salvation Army, the hose who live at Mitchell, died last Saturday, terest in our schools and view the ex- easily be accounted for by his condition. cellent work which has been done under He can thank his stars he fell into honthe supervision of the present board of est hands, for he stood a splendid chance of meeting some light-fingered indi-

In a town not many miles from The vidual who would ease him ot any Dalles, and on a date not very remote trouble in seeking a good investment for from the present, the lady members of a his money.

small literary club invited some gentle- Rev. J. R. Rice, "the cow-boy men friends in one evening to enjoy the preacher," and his wife, who have been "feast of reason and flow of soul" there in The Dalles for the last few days, to be obtained. During the evening a preaching on the streets, left last night gentleman asked one of his fair enter- for Pendleton, where they will engage in tainers if 'she enjoyed reading Shake the same work. Mrs. Rice is a remarkspeare, "Oh yes," she quickly replied, able woman and elicits unusual atten-"I like Shakespeare very much, but tion from people of all classes of intelli-Dickens and them other poets I do not gence. The evangelists found The like at all." The poetical conversation Dalles a hard field to work upon, though was not continued, the afore-mentioned there is an abundance of material that young man sat during the remainder of could be radically improved without the evening in profound meditation harm to anyone. We are afraid Pendleupon the modern education of the mod- ton will be found equally callous.

Last night about 9 o'clock the sky ern woman. The fruit raisers were busy yesterday over the mountain back of Chenoweth loading a fruit car for shipment to Chi- creek was of a lurid hue, and many cago. The car is routed over the O. R. thought it a strange phenomena, but investigation this morning disclosed the & N., Union Pacific and C. & N. W., and will be rushed through as fast freight. It fact that the people of Mosier were enwas attached to the midnight passenger. joying a bon fire. Some slashing had been done in the timber and a favorable The following shippers were represented opportunity was being awaited to burn in the consignment: A H Jewett, White Salmon, 100 crates prunes; Seufert Bros the brush. The effect of the red sky in 71 crates prunes; W H Taylor, 84 crates one place, with the greater part of the prunes; R Cooper, 13 crates Columbia heavens inky black, was quite unusual, plums; A S Bennett, 438 crates Italian and in days of superstition would have prunes: Jos Stadleman, 118 crates been taken as some ominous potent. prunes, 19 crates Bartlett pears; Emil Mr. T. A. Hudson has returned from Schanno, 29 crates Italian prunes, M D Sherman county, where he traveled over a large portion of the wheat growing section. The farmers are in the midst of threshing and everybody is busy. pears; W H Taylor, 131 crates plums; The fall-sown grain, it is estimated, will thresh twenty-five bushels to the Senter Payton at the Baldwin next acre. The volunteer and spring-sown wheat are not in as good condition as that grown on summer fallow. The gen-The weather bureau sends out a prediction of light showers for tomorrow. eral sentiment seems to be that next season will see very little volunteer The residence of Col. Sunnot, on Third grain and those who have been accusstreet, is receiving a new dressing of tomed to sowing in the spring will. scatter the seeds in the fall.

A car of fruit went east from Mosier Night Watchman Frank Connelly, aslast night. Three cars were shipped from capture last night of one of the diamond A large number of hoge, bought by swindlers, who worked the bogus dia-John Parrot, were shipped on the Regumond on W. T. Wiseman. The officers were looking for the fellow and traced One hundred and eleven boxes of peaches and fifty crates of cantaloupes came suspicious that the officers were were shipped to Portland this morning. looking for him, for when he saw them The hose boys held an additional praccoming he started for the Wasco waretice yesterday afternoon. The time till house at a rapid rate. He was caught the tournament is getting very short and and taken to the city jail to await his progressing very rapidly and the piling the boys are using every available examination today. These fellows are very clever in their way, but the chances are pretty good that yesterday's game The elements were on a jangle last will be the last they will work for some night, and a sprinkle of rain and heavy time to come. wind resulted. It looked for a while as

Mr. J. A. Douthit of Prineville arrived in The Dalles last night. Mr. Douthit is a newspaper man of experience and ability and comes to the city with a view of locating. He has been present work is being done. Kinzie Bridge, killed a fine five-point negotiating for some time to purchase the Times-Mountaineer, and it is now believed the sale will result. Should the purchase be made, the Mountaineer will change its politics and be issued as a settled one way or the other in a day or two, and if Mr. Douthit assumes the Balfe Johnson came up today fro paper, he will do so on the first of the

For the Boys

WE have brought to The Dalles the largest line of Boys' Clothing ever shown here, and the prices are so low that every boy can have a new suit.

Think of It.

OUR line of Knee Suits commences at $1.00, and runs along in regular order, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $2.75, and so on up to $6.00. Have all kinds:-

Double Seated and Double Kneed Combination Suits,

D'ble Breasted or Single Breasted,

Round Cut or Square Cut,

Satinets, Cassimeres, Tweeds, Cheviots, Worsteds,

Navy Blues, Blacks, Checks and Stripes, to suit all and in endless variety.

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

pile them? the counters are al-ready piled 7 miles high." Of course he slightly exaggerated, but, there was a good deal of truth in it. Our Suits with Long Pants for Boys 11 to 13 years old. At $3.50, $3.75, $4.00, $4.50, will tickle the fancy of any boy. Just bring the boys in and we will do the rest. Then our Suits with Long Pants for Boys 14 to 18 years old, Commence at $4.00 and from that run up to $10.

WHY, one of our salesmen said.

when we were opening up the, last case, "Where are you going to Handsome Goods. The Best Values Possible.

We have made special efforts to suit the boys.

PEASE & MAYS.

The Chinamen Bound Over.

Justice Davis' court was crowded yeson watching the proceedings in the China murder cases. It was thought that only one of them would be tried. prosecution decided differently and both detendants were examined yesterday. Lee Git's trial was held in the afternoon. The testimony was similar to that given at the coroner's inquest. Dr. Doane testified as to the nature of the was pointed out by the dying man as his slayer. Mr. Lochhead, Sheriff Driver and City Marshal Blakeney repeated their testimony, previously given. The state was represented by Deputy Pros. appeared for the defense. The prosecution did not put in all their testimony, while the defense was content to merely reserved its evidence till the circuit marked by anything out of the usual work. questioning, save now and then a bout between the opposing lawyers as to the admissability of evidence, When the the instice bound lister called the meeting to order. The chairman stated the object of the gathterday afternoon with spectators intent ering, and laid the matter before those who were present for discussion. Mr. Mac Allister stated that if the fair was to be held, it would be necessary to and the other used as a witness, but the raise a sum of money which would insure its success. The amount was variously estimated from $800 to $1000. Should this sum be pledged, the success of the district fair would be guaranteed. An informal discussion by several business men developed the fact that there wound and the fact that the defendant was little doubt but what the amount could be raised.

A motion was made and carried that a committee be appointed to canvass the town and see what amount could be raised. The committee was composed Atty Phelps and Henry E. McGinn of M. A. Moody, A. S. Mac Allister, H. Portland, while Huntington and Wilson J. Maier, J. S. Fish, L. E. Crowe, J. P. McInerny, Owen Williams, J. O. Mack. Several others will be added to the list. The committee was instructed to report meeting adjourned to be called again when the committee shall have done its

> After the meeting adjourned the committee met and discussed ways and means for securing pledges. The subscription book for the Fourth of July celebration was gone over and estimates the atmosphere in all directions

Next Monday evening, at the Baldwin, pear in "Falsely Accused," a drama of cross-examine the state's witnesses, and at the earliest opportunity, and the much merit. The Paytons come to The Dalles after a successful tour throughout court trial. The proceedings were undemocratic paper. The matter will be the Northwest. They need no recom-

Balfe Johnson came up today from Astoria, to which place he has been promonth. The democrats of The Dalles moted in the Western Union service. state had rested in Lee Git's examinawill bear a share in raising the purchase He will remain in town but a short time tion, the defense waived their testimony made upon that basis. The work for and then leave for his new field of ser-agreed to join, and the organizer exsisted by Thomas Haslam, made a clever pects to make it thirty by the next meeting. In spite of the rain last night, which must have been much heavier in the mountains, the smoke still hangs over him to the brewery. He evidently be- the mountains and fills the valleys. All the surrounding hills are hid from view looks like a big fog bank. The work on the new warehouse is looks now like a young forest. The worst part of the work is now over and there will not be the necessity for doing so much cribbing work as formerly. The piles are driven in over ten feet until they strike bed rock and can go no further. Mr. Sands, who is in charge of this part of the undertaking, is an experienced man in the business and is showing his knowledge in the way the team and the cow-boy evangelist, Second sidewalks were crowded with people walking up and down, till the scene looked like a promenade concert. The people were out to be entertained and listened to the exhortations of the Salvationists and evangelists with the same zeal as they watched the bose contests.

The hose companies and those who attend the Vancouver tournament, have made arrangements for going on the Regulator. The boat company have made an extremely low rate. Only $2 will be charged for a round trip ticket to Vancouver. The nose, team and cart will be transported free. Whenever it is a question of helping The Dalles, the boat company can be counted on to do its share and more.

A sheriffs sale was held this morning on the courthouse steps. Sheriff Driver sold to Charles Stubling, the old Bonzey property on Front street, which for several years has been vacant. The price paid was $475. The sale was by virtue of a foreclosure decree granted in the case of Sroupe and McCrum vs R. G. Closter, administrator of the estate of A. K. Bon zey, disceased. The judgment was for $495.75; interest, $61.80; attorney fees, $50; costs, $27.10.

Rev. J. R. Rice, "the cowboy preacher," and his wife, attracted considerable attention on the street last night with their religious exercises. The gentleman is a good singer and the groterqueness of his garb and his long hair probably aid him in securing an audience quickly. Mrs. Rice is a clever talker and held the close attention of a large crowd of hearers last eventing. She speaks fluently and arrays her arguments and statistics in an impressive Eight hundred of the number are lambs. manner.

So many patrons of our public schools have expressed a desire to see the build. citing when stock is being loaded, and a the directors have made arrangements the proceedings. for the opening of the buildings tomor-after being sick but a few hours. He street was alive last night. The was aged one year. Mrs. Oakes was Miss Jessie Wallace before her marriage, and her friends here will deeply sympathize in the present affliction.

Miss Nettie Anderson of The Dalles,

The case of the State vs. Walter

Brooks, who is accused of participating

S R Husbands, 50 crates plums.

lator to Portland this morning.

Toursday's Daily

Monday night Senter Payton opens a week's engagement at the Baldwin opera house. The people of The Dalles have had an opportunity of witnessing this noted actor, and will be glad of another chance to laugh at his witticisms. Seats can be secured at the usual place. County Assessor W. H. Wakefield is now at work making up the city assessmert. He has completed all the work in the county, except a small portion near Celilo. Mr. Wakefield is working diligently and making every endeavor to obtain a complete and fair assessment roll.

A telegram has just been received by Mrs. C. W. Dietzel announcing the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Breese, at Carlyle, Illinois. Her death occurred vesterday. Mrs. Breese was the widow of the late Sidney L. Breese, at one time chief justice of the Illinois supreme court. She was aged 89 years.

The Regulator had a heavy load of freight last night and a good list of passengers. The usual dull season in midsummer did not come this year to the boat company, and the two steamers have done a satisfactory business from the start. Shipments of freight will be even heavier from now on, as the merchants are receiving their fall supplies.

The stock yards are fall of sheep today. Aleck Fargher is making one of though it were a snow bank. The the largest shipments to Chicago that trains are running on time. has gone from The Dalles in many a day. Over 7000 will go in two trains. These will be placed in three deck cars. The scene around a stockyard is very exings in their renovated condition, that large number of spectators are watching cago.

City Marshal Blakeney arrested a man row morning from 9 to 12 and in the in a drunken condition last night, and of people are still out of town, the lodge promised assistance. Friday's Daily

The prices for next Monday night will be 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats can be reserved at Blakeley and Houghton's. Eight cars of fruit passed through town this morning en route East. Two of the cars were from Hood River and six from Portland.

A deed was filed today from W. P. Watson and Prescilla Watson to John Wheeler, conveying ten acres of land near Hood River. Consideration $1.

Mr. D. E. Thomas, the post-master at Dufur, died at 10 o'clock this forenoon. The funeral will take place at Dufur Sunday, Sept. 1st, under the auspices of the I. O. O. F.

At the meeting of the Epworth League, held in Spokane just before the conference begun, Mr. W. A. Kirby of this city was chosen corresponding secretary for the ensuing year.

One unfortunate greeted the recorder this morning and admitted that he had been indulging too much in strong liquors. Four dollars was the verdict, in default of which he went to jail.

The fruit car which was expected to go last night did not get away. It is being loaded today and in all probability will leave tonight. Up to noon 575 boxes of pears and other fruits had been loaded. The wind last night caused a great deal of bother along the railroad track. The sand was piled in many places and will be abundantly gratified. the railroad men had to dig their way as again today. The remainder of the Farshipped on a special train today. This will make the second load, as a train made. Everybody should take an in- the bank $1150. The difference can Twenty-one persons have already by repeated flashes of lightning.

vice. Mr. Johnson will be placed in charge of the office, having two operators under him, so the promotion is a considerable one.

The examination of Thomas Denton. Jr., was concluded yesterday before Justice Davis. After some testimony introduced by the defense, the justice concluded to bind the defendant over to the grand jury. The matter of bonds was discussed and finally were placed at $500. Mr. Denton filed the necessary bail bond with C. W. Denton, T. M. Denton and J. L. Thompson as sureties.

The justice court has done an unusual amount of business the last few days. There have been onite a number of cases before it and all of them important. Two Chinamen were examined on a murder charge, one man charged with arson and today two men accused of mill. Besides this the case of Mr. Taffe came up, but has not yet been tried to completion.

There will be a convention of the Christian Endeavor societies in this city, Sept. 19th and 20th. It is also proposed that a concert beneficiary to the Ladies Aid Society, will be given about that time, Miss Aldrich, who will attend the convention, having kindly promised to assist, as well as others who are expected to be in attendance. If, as they believe, the very great success which attended the concert of May 24th will be attained, the ladies of the Aid Society

Word from the country says the storm last night was of unusual severity in outlying districts. A gentleman from The stock yards are a scene of activity 15-Mile says he never saw it rain harder than it did for a few minutes during the gher sheep are being loaded, and will be height of the storm, and some of the gulleys were filled with water. Back of Chenoweth creek the rain came down in went yesterday carrying sheep to Chi- torrents, while the wind blew a small-

'sized hurricane. No particular damage Owing to the absence of the medical is reported from any locality to the advisor and the fact that a large number grain or fruit. The river this morning was colored very muddy, showing that afternoon from 1 to.4. Suitable persons in searching his clothes found $995 in of Forresters was not organized as ex- there were washouts along its banks, will be at the academy park building greenbacks and a few dollars in silver. pected last night. The next meeting and in some places probably cloudbursts and at the Court and Union street build- The man, who is well known in town, will be held a week from tonight, at occurred. The electrical display was ings to show visitors the improvements came in from the country and drew from which time the court will be instituted. very marked, the heavens being lighted over to the grand jury without bail. The examination of Lee Ching, who is accused of being an accomplice, was much the same, and he was also bound over to the grand jury. The attorneys for the defense made an effort to have Lee Ching released on bail, which the presention released The interview of the palles needs. prosecution resisted. The justice said he would take the matter under advisement and render a decision at 10 o'clock. This morning Justice Davis decided that he would not admit to bail Lee Ching, the Chinaman accused of being an accomplice in the recent murder. Both Chinamen will now be confined in iail till the grand jury meets, but will be kept separate, so that no communica-tion between them can be held.

We Will Have a Fair.

A meeting of business men was held swindling have been going through the last night in the council chambers to discuss the question of the coming fair.

today was mapped out, the city being divided into districts, and different gentlemen assigned to various portions. Much enthusiasm was shown throughout the meeting, and the sentiment was

Word was received yesterday that O. D. Taylor had arrived in Saginaw, and been placed under $16,000 bonds. At the time of the writing he had not secured them. The preliminary trial will occur today. The defendant has secured the services of a prominent Michigan attorney. The outcome of this matter will be watched with a great deal of interest by everyone who has seen the beginning of North Dalles and the various stages through which it has passed. The opinions of people as to how the case will result are somewhat varied.

Davenport Bros. Lumber Company of A large number of representative citizens Hood River have 400 cords of good dry occupied the benches when Mr. Mac Al- fir wood for sale at Haine's Spur. 281w

HICKORY

Strength, Durability, Honest Construction.

The Heaviest and Best Ironed Wagon on earth. First Pramium awarded at the World's Fair.

Hodge Headers and Extras.

Osborne nº Buckeye Mowers nº Extras.

- WE CARRY A FULL LINE OF -

MAYS & CROWE,

Second and Federal Sts.,

THE DALLES, OR.