The Regulator took on another load of wheat at Rockland last night.

Wood Bros. are putting in a cold storage cellar under their butcher shop.

The recorder's court offered nothing in the way of excitement this morning.

It is expected the Union Whist Club will shortly resume their regular meetings.

The weather forecast is Saturday showers, Sunday fair and cooler with frost.

The rain yesterday was a welcome visitor and will do a great deal of good provided it is followed by subsequent showers.

The next term of court is expected to be one of the longest in duration of any which have been held in recent years. The jurymen will have quite a bill at the end of their services.

Justice Davis held a session last night to hear a charge of assault and battery preferred by M. A. Allen against Al. Cone. The defendant pleaded guilty and received a fine of $20 in default of which he was placed in the custody of the sheriff.

August Aamold, the well-known violinist, will give a concert at St. Mary's Academy, November 8th. Herr Aamold will be assisted by Miss Etta Beamer, a vocalist of celebrity. Tickets are now on sale at the principal stores and at the CHRONICLE office.

The athletic class will hold a meeting tomorrow to consider the advisability of forming an athletic club. Prof. Chrystal will give a talk telling some of the benefits to be derived from the club and the best way of organizing an athletic and gymnasium, and it is to be hoped the present effort to form one will be successful.

This morning about 3 o'clock the inhabitants of the city were awakened by the loud tones of the fire bell. The people who rushed out in the damp air found that the danger of a conflagration was not very great. A lamp in the salting shop north of Ruch's grocery store had overturned and created a light blaze. The fire was extinguished without the aid of the city department and those who had been aroused from lumber went home to resume their sleep.

Monday's Daily.

The thermometer this morning registered 26 degrees, which is the coldest so far this season.

Henry Frock has declared his intention with the county clerk of becoming an American citizen.

The delinquent tax sale, which was advertised to take place at the courthouse today, has been postponed for one week.

Five patents were filed for record today. They were issued to F. A. Young, G. A. Young, G. S. Chandler, C. F. Young and H. C. Rooper.

Sheriff Driver went to Portland today to be present at the examination of Barker and Scott, who are charged with stealing the sheep belonging to Mr. Houser.

A deed was filed for record today from the Dalles Land and Improvement Company to Mrs. A. C. Stubling conveying two lots in Thompson's addition for a consideration of $450.

The Woodmen lodge of this city will give a social a week from next Tuesday, which will be an interesting social event. This lodge enjoys a good reputation for hospitality.

Dr. Swain, who has been a resident in The Dalles for several months left yesterday with the Shores Medical Company having accepted the position of chief physician with that company.

The crosswalk between Crossen's grocery store and Cooper & Mann's butcher shop is being repaired. This good weather should be taken advantage of and this line of improvement continued.

Tonight occurs the Tom Thumb wedding and clam chowder, at the Methodist church. The program is a very attractive one and all who go will greatly enjoy the coming entertainment, besides helping on a good cause.

Deputy Sheriff Kelly has just completed balancing the books of the sheriff's office for October. The receipts during the month were $3396.54. The amount received during September was $3258.20. The money was from the payment of delinquent taxes.

The Wasco county fruit exhibit, including the special one made from Hood River, is attracting marked attention and much favorable comment from visitors to the exposition. Klickitat county, too, comes in for a large share of praise and we can well feel satisfied by the showing our neighbors and ourselves have made and glad we live in such a fertile country full of such present resources and future possibilities.

On the passenger train last night a man was caught in the act of stealing from one of the passengers and placed in the baggage car to be brought to The Dalles, to be turned over to Night-watchman Connelly. Just as the train reached the depot, however, the thief made a break for liberty and was lost in the darkness before any pursuit could be made. At last accounts he hasn't been heard from, so he has probably made good his escape.

M. A. Bull arrived in town at noon with the forefinger of his left hand shot off. In company with Carl Hoyd he started yesterday to hunt in Sherman county. This morning at 7 o'clock they were after geese and Mr. Bull put his left hand over the muzzle of his gun to wipe away some dust upon it, when the trigger snapped and the shot tore away the end of his finger. Dr. Logan amputated it near the second joint and Mr. Bull is considering himself lucky the accident was no worse.

Messrs. R. E. Saltmarsh and W. H. Moody, who have been on an extended European tour, arrived home this morning. They left The Dalles August 15th and visited England and its chief places of interest and then went for a tour of the continent, taking in Paris, Berlin and the interesting places to be seen in France and Germany. They came home in fine health and spirits, having enjoyed their foreign experiences immensely. They brought back many souvenirs of the trip which some of their friends were lucky enough to receive.

The engagement was announced in yesterday's Oregonian of Miss Madge Summerville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Summerville, to Robert Mays, jr., the youngest son of our pioneer citizen, Hon. Robert Mays. The engagement, although not before made public, has been known for sometime to the young gentleman's many friends in The Dalles and he has been the recipient of frequent and hearty congratulations. Miss Summerville is one of Portland's charming young ladies, a daughter of most estimable parents, while Mr. Mays is looked upon with great favor in the community where he was born and grew to manhood. He comes from a family known for their sterling worth and has in him the essential qualities for success. His hearty disposition makes everybody his friends wherever he goes and they will all join with THE CHRONICLE in congratulating him. The date of the wedding is not yet announced.

Tuesday's Daily.

The Regulator carried a large load of wheat to the Cascades this morning. There is but a little left now on the dock at Rockland.

The poultry show is over, and the array of chickens has left town. The exhibition was much enjoyed by those who visited it.

C. F. Stephens has just received a fine line of men's and boys' suits; also a large consignment of overcoats of splendid quality and latest styles.

The repairing outfit of the Western Union Telegraph Company is working in The Dalles putting in better condition some of the property belonging to the company.

The west bound passenger was two hours late this morning, the delay being caused by the train waiting for the Spokane connections. The local from Portland was nearly an hour behind time.

Among the cases argued and submitted yesterday before the supreme court was one from Wasco county entitled John Barger, appellant, vs. O. D. Taylor. The contention was over a motion by the respondent to dismiss the appeal.

Mrs. Frank Vogt met with an accident Saturday by which she suffered a fracture of the right arm just above the wrist. Dr. Hollister was called to attend the lady's injuries and she is now resting comfortably.

Constable E. S. Olinger came up from Hood River last night, bringing with him Indian Frank, who was sent to the county jail for ten days by Justice Soebe of Hood River, charged with carrying concealed weapons.

A special train carrying Receiver McNeil and Superintendent O'Brien, arrived in The Dalles last night from Portland. After spending the night in The Dalles they left this morning for Huntington, where they go on a tour of inspection.

The body of Phipps Looney, who died at Mitchell, was brought to the undertaking office of William Mitchell this morning. Mr. Looney was aged 22 years and has a brother living at Sedalia, Mo. His parents live in Kentucky. The cause of the young man's death was typhoid fever.

The meeting of ministers of the Methodist church for The Dalles district will begin this evening in the Methodist church and continue over tomorrow. The sermon this evening will be preached by Rev. Mr. Dennison. The Dalles district embraces a large number of churches among them being Goldendale and Heppner. The association meeting is expected to be a very interesting one.

When you are thinking of where you will go for entertainment during the week don't forget the recital given by August Aamold at St. Mary's Academy next Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Herr Aamold has appeared in the large cities of Europe and America with great success and is strongly endorsed by the press of both countries. He will be assisted by Miss Etta Beamer, a soloist of note.

A party of gentlemen from the Cascade Locks came up on the Regulator last evening bound for Squally Hook where they will hunt geese. Mrs. E. M. Aldrich, master mechanic at the Locks; C. G. Hickok, a merchant; and Messrs. E. M. Barrett, and Eric Nelson, government employees compose the party and they go well supplied with food to keep them from getting hungry in case the goose crop is short. They are registered as the "four Dr. McAvers of the coast."

The probate court was in session yesterday, but found very little to occupy its attention. There were two final orders made, one appointing Theresa Prinz guardian of Alfred Henry Feldman, a minor of 12 years, and his property, valued at $2,000. The other one was an order releasing W. T. Wiseman from the guardianship of the property of Lars Larsen, an insane person. It appearing to the court that the guardianship had been wisely performed, and there remaining no funds calling for further attention, the guardian was released and the bondsmen exonerated. The sum of $263.70 was allowed as fees for the guardian.

The quarterly installation of officers in the Independent Workers Lodge, I. O. G. T. took place last evening in Fraternity hall. A large attendance of members were present and a rousing meeting held. The lodge is in a prosperous condition and receives new members at almost every meeting. Besides doing a great deal of good the order has prominent social features which are very attractive to the members. Following are the officers who were installed last evening: C. T. Glenn Allen; V. T., May Elton; Chap., Emma Fisher; Fin. Sec., C. H. Brown; Treas., George Dufur; Rec.-Sec., Pauline Drews; Asst.-Sec. Orion McNeil; marshal, Rowland Wiley; guard, Miss Lizzie Erk.; sentinel, Mrs. E. J. Robinson.

Justice Davis was occupied today listening to arguments in the case of Finnemark vs. Cooper. Story & Gates represented the plaintiff and Huntington & Wilson appeared for the defense. The contention was the sum of $27, which the plaintiff claimed was due from the defendant in payment for labor. The defendant denied ever having employed the plaintiff, but that the latter had thought of buying a share in the defendant's business, and in order to get an insight into it had done more or less labor thereto. Several witnesses were examined last night, and this morning the attorneys argued. Justice Davis took the matter under advisement, and at 2 o'clock brought in a verdict for the defendant and taxed the costs to the plaintiff.

Major James C. Post of the U. S. Corps of Engineers arrived in the city last night in company with Major McNeil and Superintendent O'Brien of the O. R. & N. In conversation with a prominent citizen of The Dalles Major Post talked freely regarding the locks and made some interesting statements. It will be necessary Major Post said to have an additional appropriation for building the walls of the locks higher before they will be navigable at all times in the year. Major Post said the plans of the locks were made originally for a twenty foot stage, not expecting that boats could reach the foot of the canal at a higher one, but the performance of the steamer Dalles City showed that the locks could be reached at a much higher stage. It is estimated that over $200,000 will be necessary to raise the walls to the required height. This increased work will not in the least interfere with the present work in progress and can be carried on while the canal is in active operation.

The Tom Thumb wedding and supper at the Methodist church was attended by a large audience. The church was handsomely decorated in roses and chrysanthemums, a large wedding bell of chrysanthemums hanging over the place where the bridal party stood. Promptly at the appointed hour the participants filed into the church and took their positions under the flowery bell. The impersonating minister was Walter Parrott, while the mock groom was James Huntington and the bride Lulu Nicholas. The bridesmaids were Annie Reynolds, Trudy Rowland and Myrtle Rorden, while Otto Schmidt, Clarence Fargher and Neddie Briggs acted as groomsmen. The bride and bridesmaids were beautifully attired in becoming dresses with long trains, while the groom and groomsmen looked swell in neat fitting full dress suits. At the close of the ceremony the bridal party and friends repaired to the basement of the church, where a clam chowder supper cooked deliciously was served. The receipts of the evening were very satisfactory.

The new city directory of The Dalles, which has been in process of publishing for some time, has just been issued and the first copies delivered yesterday. The book contains 216 pages devoted to The Dalles and Wasco county, and nearly a hundred pages comprising a business directory of Portland. Wasco county is treated thoroughly, there being written up and a list of inhabitants of The Dalles, Cascade Locks, Hood River, Antelope, Bake Oven, Boyd, Celilo, Dufur, Endersby, Kingsley, Mosier, Mt. Hood, Nansene, Ridgeway, Sherar's Bridge, Sinemasho, Tucker, Tygh Valley, Victor, Wamic and Wapinitia. The miscellaneous information gives lists of the city officers, the council, police and fire departments, board of education and schools, county officers, churches and secret societies. A list of taxpayers is a valuable adjunct to the book. The directory is published by the Portland Directory Co., C. R. Collier and T. W. Baxter, publishers, and will undoubtedly prove of value to the citizens of The Dalles.

Water Commissioners' Meeting.

At the last regular meeting of the water commissioners, held in their office, there were present President T. A. Ward, Commissioners Robt. Mays, H. C. Neilson, J. B. Crossen, Joseph T. As this completed the business before the commission the meeting adjourned.

A Delightful Party.

One of the most delightful parties ever given in The Dalles was enjoyed by twenty-four ladies at the home of Mrs. J. B. Crossen last Saturday afternoon. The beautiful decorations were entirely of gorgeous autumn foliage and chrysanthemums, and each guest on arriving was supplied with a bunch of the same ragged beauties. The score cards, on which were handsomely painted yellow and pink chrysanthemums, brought forth much admiration, while the luncheon was of the delightful kind for which the hostess has long been noted. Mrs. Houghton won the head prize, while Mrs. Crossen, Jr., after a great struggle, captured the consolation prize. The following ladies enjoyed to the fullest extent the afternoon spent in whist and listening to sweet music: Mrs. Schenck, Mrs. Sinnott, Mrs. Lord, Mrs. Glenn, Mrs. Thornbury, Mrs. Benj Snipes, Mrs. Eshelman, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Crowe, Mrs. Kinerly, Mrs. Sheldon, Mrs. Marden, Mrs. Blakeley, Mrs. M E French, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Hostetler, Mrs. Crandall, Mrs. Houghton, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Faulkner, Mrs. W H Wilson, Mrs. H S Wilson, Mrs. Hobson, Mrs. Crossen, Jr., and Mrs. John Dexter of Vallejo, Cal.

Mr. Truman Butler, the popular purser of the Regulator, accompanied by his bride—nee Miss Leamer, of Le Compton, Kansas, arrived in The Dalles Saturday evening. The happy couple are established in their handsome residence on Fourth street and are receiving the congratulations of a host of friends. Mr. Butler is one of this city's most promising young men and has held a position of great trust in the D. P. & A. N. Co. for over four years. His friends, young and old, are glad to welcome him and his young bride and extend all manner of good wishes for the journey of life. Mr. Butler's appearance upon the street today has been the occasion of much handshaking. He will resume his position on the Regulator next week. THE CHRONICLE force heartily joins in the expressions of good wishes which the happy pair are receiving and hopes for them a long life fraught with pleasant things and unmarred by trouble.

A Merchant's Carnival.

On Friday and Saturday nights, Nov. 22d and 23d, the Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church will conduct a merchant's carnival in the armory hall of this city, which promises to be one of the most attractive entertainments of the season. The most pleasing feature of the occasion will be the appearance of fifty or sixty young ladies, each representing a business house of The Dalles and adorned with some article of merchandise carried by the firm whom they are to represent.

In addition to their part of the exercises, an interesting musical and literary program is being prepared, in which the best talent of the city will participate. Another attraction to make the carnival all that could be desired will be the elocutionary recital by Mr. George Ernest Stewart, now a resident of this city, formerly one of Portland's popular elocutionists. Mr. Stewart's ability as a reciter has already been manifested in this city, and he is known to be exceedingly clever in this line; his part of the program is sure to please. Extensive preparations are being made for this event and everyone may well look forward to the occasion with all assurance of an instructive and interesting entertainment.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that for the purpose of making an examination of all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the schools of this county, the county school superintendent thereof will hold a public examination at his office in The Dalles, beginning at 1 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, Nov. 13, 1895.

Dated this 2nd day of Nov., 1895.
TROY SHELLEY,
County School Superintendent.
