

THE SULTAN DELAYS

Turkey Gives the Powers No Satisfaction.

SITUATION IS THREATENING

Joint Course of Action Involving a Naval Display Decided On—Fresh Disturbances in Armenia.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 12.—(Copyrighted 1895 by the Associated Press.)—Each day shows the situation here more threatening.

Surprise is expressed even by diplomats in this city, who expected almost anything from the ports, at the action of the sultan in sanctioning the official note issued yesterday expressing Abdul Hamid's thanks for the energetic measures taken by the imperial authorities for suppressing the disturbances in Asia Minor.

It was stated this afternoon in European official circles here that as the result of an additional exchange of views between the powers a joint course of action, involving the display of naval and possibly military force, has already been decided upon.

Advices received today announce fresh disturbances at Marash, Bitlis and Sivas, with their attendant massacres. It is also announced that the battalion of Turkish troops in the garrison at Zeitoun, which recently distinguished itself by surrounding and shooting down Armenian insurgents, was later besieged in their barracks by the Armenians, to whom the soldiers eventually capitulated with their arms and ammunition.

Considerable anxiety is felt in American circles here on account of the absence of news from districts where American missionaries are stationed. Ambassador Terrill has telegraphed Commissioner Darnham, at Harput, asking him if the American mission is safe.

According to advices today from Hadjin, several villages in that vicinity have been attacked by rioters, who massacred the inhabitants and plundered the property. It is feared that the disturbances will spread to Hadjin.

AN UNUSUAL TRAMP.

Wheeling a Wheelbarrow Around the World on a Wager.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Dick Whittington, in black for his cat, but accompanied by a bull terrier and trundling a wheelbarrow, reached Chicago last night. Whittington, whose real name is William H. Bourne, left San Francisco April 5 to wheel a wheelbarrow around the world, within three years on a wager, he says, of $10,000.

Sodaville Postoffice Burglarized. ALBANY, Or., Nov. 12.—A special from Lebanon says: News has just been brought to this city by Stagedriver Flory that the postoffice at Sodaville was robbed last night about 3 o'clock.

was kept up from 1 o'clock until about 3 or 4, but thought it was Mr. Fisher and did not raise any alarm.

DUNRAVEN'S CHARGES. His Accusations Against the New York Yacht Club.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The Examiner this morning publishes a special cablegram from London covering over a page, in which is given the full text of Lord Dunraven's charges of fraud against the New York Yacht Club in connection with the recent Defender-Valkyrie races.

Affairs in Formosa. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 12.—A special from Vladivostok says that the chief of the Black Flags in Formosa has fled to Kitai.

The Japanese troops are concentrated at Tainsai. The natives, however, are so hostile that probably troops will have to be sent to the island.

RUSSIAN OPINION. Powers Must Establish a Protectorate Over Turkey.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—A special to the Herald from St. Petersburg says: Lord Salisbury's speech at the Guildhall has produced an electrical effect here.

"In order to avoid war the powers must establish a protectorate over Turkey. The Mohammedans, Kurds, Syrians and Cretans are rising in various parts of the empire and Turkey is hurriedly calling out her reserves."

The Novoe Vremya in a long article on the situation speaks of the power of the Turkish Army being great by reason of its fanaticism and its being organized by German officers.

It says Russia must be equal to the occasion, one of the necessities being the concentration of 60,000 troops at Erzeroum to begin with.

Important Decision. WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Chief Justice Fuller handed down the court's opinion on the motion of the Bell Telephone Co. to dismiss the suit of the United States against that company and Emil Berliner, involving the invention of the speaking machine.

The decision was based on the ground that the act creating the circuit court of appeals, in providing that these courts should have final jurisdiction in patent cases, had deprived the supreme court of jurisdiction. The motion to dismiss was denied. The decision was lengthy, concluding as follows: "We cannot impute to congress the intention of narrowing the appellate jurisdiction of this court in a suit brought by the United States, as a sovereign, in respect to an alleged miscarriage in the exercise of one of its functions, as such, deeply concerning the public interests and not falling within the jurisdiction of the act."

FIRES OUT AT LAST. Repairs Will Soon Be Begun on the Bozeman Tunnel.

LIVINGSTON, Mont., Nov. 13.—The fire in the Bozeman tunnel, which has been raging furiously for nine weeks, has at last burned itself out, and the tunnel is about clear of smoke and deadly gases. As soon as the tunnel cools sufficiently the task of cleaning it out will be commenced. Thousands of tons of rock have fallen on the track. This obstruction will be removed, and temporary timbers will be put in. It is expected that this work will take two months or more, but when it is completed trains will be run through the mountain again.

THE CZARINA'S HEALTH. Alarming Reports Are Authoritatively Stated to Be False.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—A special to the Herald from St. Petersburg says the sensational rumors lately circulated in reference to the health of the czarina, and the reports that an operation will be required are absolutely without foundation, and there is the best of authority for contradicting them.

The Herald also publishes the following from Tsarkoe Selo: Owing to the number of false reports concerning the czarina's health, it can be stated authoritatively that it is normal. It may be stated, as further confirming this, that the czar left here this morning for Kronstadt in perfect spirits.

HATCH NOW MINISTER

Thurston's Successor in San Francisco.

SITUATION AT THE ISLANDS

Matters Concerning the Government Said to be Unchanged—Results of the Cholera Scare.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—The Occidental & Oriental steamship Coptic, Captain Lindsay, arrived here last night from the Orient and Hawaii. Among her passengers from the latter place was A. T. Hatch, late minister of foreign affairs of the island republic, and recently appointed Hawaiian minister to the United States, to succeed Minister Thurston. The Coptic was a recent caller at the ports which the quarantine officers call infected, and it will be late in the morning before she will dock.

Mr. Hatch did not have much to report. All of the political exiles of Hawaii, with few exceptions, have been pardoned and are returning to the country, each steamer bringing several. Ex-Queen Liliuokalani has been ill, but her sickness was not regarded as being serious.

The cholera has disappeared, but its lesson remains. The drainage of Honolulu has been made almost perfect. Creeks have been walled up to stop overflowing and swamps have been cleaned up. Business was badly depressed by the cholera, but with the removal of quarantine embargoes it was improving.

Another passenger of importance was Major-General D. T. Subotich, of the Russian army, lately stationed at Vladivostok. He talks of commerce and industrial development, attaching the greatest importance to the trans-Siberian railway. He says Russia plans the establishment of great fish canneries on the Asiatic coast. Their operation means competition with United States fishing-interests. The general was accompanied by his wife.

MUST ACT QUICKLY. Soon There Will be no Armenia to Save.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—The Associated Press today received the following from Dr. M. M. Manga, the Syrian leader of the Society of Ethical Culture, in this city, and one of the most eminent Armenians in the United States.

"Very recently massacres of Armenians, reported from Trebizond, Erzeroum, Moosh and Diarbekir, fully confirm the words spoken by the Turkish commissioner-general to the World's Columbian Exposition, Hakki Bey. 'If we (Turks) cannot have the country, we shall see that you (Armenians) don't get it.' There is very little doubt that the Turks believe their days are numbered, and are, therefore, determined to exterminate the Armenians, root and branch, before they themselves have been finally and forever driven out of the civilized world. If Europe is to act at all, it must act at once, for soon it will be too late to undertake the salvation of Armenia, as there will be no Armenia left to save."

The Sick and the Dead. NIAGARA, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Mary Benfield, widow of William Benfield, died at St. Catherine's, Ont., the other day.

She and her husband were warm friends of the Emperor Maximilian and Empress Carlotta of Mexico. They played prominent parts in the closing scenes of the emperor's life when the country was taken by Juarez, and they had to flee for their lives in disguise. Mrs. Benfield always maintained that if the emperor had followed her husband's instructions he might have escaped with the empress. She left many relics of court life in Mexico, including portraits of Maximilian and Carlotta. Mrs. Benfield's body has been taken to Kentucky for burial.

Personal Encounter Over Politics. FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 13.—Governor Brown and W. H. Newhall, a clerk in the auditor's office, quarreled in the statehouse yesterday, and passed the lie, and would have come to blows had bystanders not interfered.

Newhall had accused the governor of voting the republican ticket and acting the part of a traitor. The executive responded with an emphatic denial, and one of the men struck at the other, when friends separated them.

It was claimed that Governor Brown attempted to draw his revolver, but he denies that he was armed.

A SALEM BANK FAILS. Williams & England Banking Company Closes Its Doors.

SALEM, Nov. 14.—The Williams & England Banking Company closed its doors this morning, with the following notice posted: "Having reason to expect unusual demands from depositors, and in order to treat all creditors fairly and equally, this bank is closed for the present. It is my opinion that all depositors will be paid in full."

H. P. McNary, Cashier. The bank was the depository of the city treasurer, and also of the state Insurance Company, the Young Men's Investment Company, and it is said that Wells, Fargo & Co. had some money in it. No definite statement is now obtainable, but the belief is that all claims will be liquidated.

Editors' Notes. EDITOR CHRONICLE.—Perhaps a few lines from this place would be of interest.

We are glad to hear that Prof. John McCormic is going to teach singing school at our schoolhouse and at the 8-Mile schoolhouse. Our neighbor Thos. Leabo is attending court this week.

Mr. H. H. Johnson of Wazic passed through this neighborhood Saturday on his way home from The Dalles, where he has been engaged in building a house for R. H. Darnielle. We are informed that Mr. E. M. Harriman will soon move his poultry yards to The Dalles. We are sorry to lose Mr. Harriman, for he is a good neighbor, but what is our loss will be The Dalles' gain.

The weather is just lovely, but the farmers are wanting rain so they can go to plowing. The 8-Mile school is progressing nicely under the able management of Mr. Curen. The community unites with the CHRONICLE in wanting the new road to Sherman county.

We were not well pleased with what Major Post had to say about the locks and hope to be assured of their early completion. We are for an open river to the sea, and may the good work be hastened. ONLY A FARMER. Endersby, Or., Nov. 12, 1895.

SHERMAN'S MEMOIRS

The Second Volume Also Interesting.

HIS PART IN HAYES' CABINET

History of the Famous Blaine-Conkling Controversy Given—The Results of This Quarrel.

DETROIT, Nov. 14.—The attention of General R. A. Alger was called to the reference to him in the second volume of Senator Sherman's memoirs, the proof sheets of which have been sent to various newspapers throughout the country. General Alger said:

"I am very much surprised that Senator Sherman, laboring under the disappointment of not receiving a nomination should connect my name with it. If he knows anything about the matter, he knows his charges against me are without foundation. There never was a time when his combined vote, and mine would have nominated him in 1888. My request to my friends was that in case my nomination was not possible, they should cast their votes for General Harrison, believing that a soldier should be nominated. I asked them as a second choice to support Senator Sherman. If any money was used, which I do not believe, to purchase votes from the South, it was against my positive instructions, and no bill of the kind has ever been presented to me or paid by me."

The quotations from Senator Sherman's second volume to which General Alger excepts are those in which Mr. Sherman, in referring to the contest for the presidential nomination of 1888, writes: "I believe, and had, I think, conclusive proof that friends of General Alger substantially purchased the votes of many delegates from the Southern states who had been instructed in their conventions to vote for me."

Senator Sherman, in this volume, dwells upon the history of his party in the Hayes cabinet and gives a pretty complete history of the famous controversy between Blaine and Conkling which was a momentous event in the political history of the next few years. It resulted, he says, in the nomination and election to the office of vice-president of Chester A. Arthur, and so resulted in putting into the office of president the very man whom a few years before—in 1878—Senator Sherman, as a member of the Hayes cabinet, had removed from the office of collector of the port of New York for "good cause." In speaking of the contest for the nomination of 1888, Mr. Sherman says he was convinced that Blaine was not a candidate and that he was confident that he was to be nominated. He adds: "On Monday, June 25, I did not anticipate a change on the first ballot from the last one on Saturday. I did expect from my dispatches that the nomination would be made that day in my favor, but as the result proved, an arrangement had been made on Saturday that practically secured the nomination of Harrison. From the best information I could gather, I have no hesitation in expressing the opinion that I was defeated for the nomination by New York."

"I believed then, as now, that one of the delegates from New York practically controlled the whole delegation, and that a corrupt bargain was made on Sunday which transferred the great body of the vote of New York to General Harrison and led to his nomination. It is to the credit of General Harrison to say that if the reputed bargain was made, it was made without his consent at that time, nor did he carry it into execution.
