

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON OFFICIAL PAPER OF WASCO COUNTY.

Entered at the Postoffice at The Dalles, Oregon as second-class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. BY MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID IN ADVANCE.

One year $1.50 Six months .75 Three months .50

The Daily and Weekly Chronicle may be found on sale at I. C. Nickelsen's store. Telephone No. 1.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Wednesday's Daily.

Mr. Pague prophesies the weather for tomorrow to be fair followed by rain or snow.

The divorce suit of Glenn vs Glenn was referred to D. H. Roberts to take testimony and report.

A gentle rain has been falling all afternoon and its merry patter will be a welcome sound.

A bond for a deed from W. G. Clelland to S. L. Young, was filed with the county clerk, also a warranty deed from J. S. Taylor to G. W. Runyan.

Frank Summers who has been confined to his bed for over a month is considerably better and yesterday was able to sit up the greater part of the day.

A new rudder for the Regulator has just been finished in Mr. Glenn's shop and will be placed on board the boat this evening.

The Knights of the Maccabees will hold their regular meeting next Saturday evening instead of Friday as formerly.

The Regulator took away her customary load of 500 sacks of wheat this morning. Another large shipment will be made tomorrow as drays have been busy taking wheat from Moody's warehouse to the boat dock.

The case of the State vs. F. W. L. Skibbe and Alex. Hugenine came to a conclusion last evening by Justice Davis discharging the defendants.

The teachers' examination began this afternoon in the county court room. Six young ladies are present as applicants and this afternoon are working their brains answering the test questions.

Yesterday afternoon the case of Williams & Co. vs. A. A. Urquhart and Anna Urquhart came to a speedy conclusion. When the evidence of the plaintiff was in the attorney for the defendant, Mrs. Urquhart, moved for a non-suit.

The grand jury made two reports this afternoon just as we went to press. One was "not true bill" in the case of R. A. Power, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon.

The good work done on the present ownership books by J. M. Huntington and Co., is shown in the increased amount of taxable property this year over last.

Late yesterday afternoon the grand jury returned a true bill against H. F. Jackson, charging him with keeping a bawdy house at the Cascade Locks.

White Salmon has furnished some excitement in the arrest of J. P. Egan, P.

T. Bradford and Mr. Ziegler for cutting the fence of C. D. Moore. The three defendants passed through The Dalles this morning on their way to Goldendale to be arraigned.

Mr. Thomas A. Ward left on the Regulator this morning for San Diego, California where he will remain till next April. Mr. Ward has not been in the best of health for some time and his physician has ordered a change of climate.

Klickitat county is keeping well up with the march of progress. The latest venture is tobacco culture. Thomas Jenkins, a well known farmer of the Klickitat valley, brought to The Dalles some tobacco which was grown on his place and had it made into cigars by the factory in this place.

There are now six inmates of the county jail, but the number will be materially reduced within a few days.

Mr. George A. Liebe of The Dalles has been chosen on the United States jury. U. S. Court meets in Portland Nov. 26th.

There will be religious services held in the Kingsley schoolhouse, Friday evening, Nov. 22nd, at 7:30. Rev. R. C. Moter, presiding elder of The Dalles district, will preach the sermon.

Dr. J. Rothermel, who yesterday was indicted by the grand jury for embezzlement, secured bondsmen last night and was released from jail.

The rain has been slow in coming, but it has been all the more welcome. The showers of yesterday and today have soaked the ground for quite a distance and the promise for more rain is good.

The members of the Young People's Society of the Christian church are busy planning for the Merchant's Carnival which will be held on the 22 and 23d of this month.

The will of William Coutts lately a resident of Cascade Locks, was probated in Portland yesterday. The estate is valued at $1500.

Work on the Rattlesnake road has commenced and the commissioners, through their chairman, S. B. Adams, have issued a call to all those who have promised labor to report at the head of the grade.

The revival services at the Methodist church are attracting much attention. Meetings conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Wood, assisted by Miss Laura Pippitt, are held every evening and the results are proving very satisfactory.

Passenger business has been quiet both by boat and rail for the last few days. During the days when the exposition was in full blast the travel was very heavy and most of those who had business in Portland took advantage of the exposition rates and the fine weather.

The athletic club will finish its lessons this week. The members have enjoyed the course under Prof. Christol and have made marked improvement.

Despite the very inclement weather which prevailed at the Locks yesterday, the laboring force kept at work. The men are congregated at the upper and lower ends of the canal at which places most of the work is being done.

upper end the work is being done in sand, but in the lower bulkhead there is considerable solid rock which must be blasted out.

Harry, the Chinaman who is in the county jail, awaiting trial for the murder committed last summer, took a notion he didn't want to eat and for five days tasted no food.

A business man of The Dalles, who lately returned from Tacoma, said the "City of Destiny" shows the result of overbooming in a lamentable degree. Blocks of elegant buildings are standing tenantless and "for rent" and "for sale" signs are too frequently seen.

Rev. S. G. Irvine, the pioneer of 1851, who died in Albany, Or., Oct. 31st, was for forty years the pastor of the United Presbyterian church at Albany.

There were no offenders in the police court today.

There will be no admission charged at the Armory this evening.

The grand jury is busy this afternoon examining into the Chinese murder case.

The Home Dramatic Club will hold a practice this evening. The first two acts will be rehearsed.

The teachers' examination closes this afternoon. As the number of applicants is small, it will not take long for the papers to be examined.

The grand jury returned two "not true bills" this afternoon. One was in the case of L. Mahaffy, charged with issuing a fictitious check and the other in the case of a man named Northrup charged with larceny.

The box sheet for the minstrels Saturday night is now open and tickets are selling rapidly. A good seat is preferable to a bad one and those who buy first get the pick.

The case of J. L. Story vs. Joseph Southwell was on trial this morning in the circuit court. The case went to the jury at a little before noon and after dinner a verdict was brought in favoring the plaintiff in the amount of $80.

Colonel Thompson has approved the application sent from Pendleton asking leave for a militia company to be formed there and the application has been forwarded to the State Military board at Salem.

D. H. Roberts, referee in the divorce suit of Florence Glenn vs. J. D. Glenn has filed his report and Judge Bradshaw granted a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

Late yesterday evening the grand jury returned indictments against Lee Moorehouse, charging him with larceny of a mare; Blunford Douglas, larceny by bail; Lee Moorehouse and Myron Taft, charged with burglary, the alleged offense being stealing grain from a granary near the Deschutes.

The address by Dr. Gue, which will be given in the armory tonight, is one which no one can afford to miss.

OUR SPECIAL SALE. Saturday, November 16. FOR THE BOYS.

Here's your opportunity. Come, bring your mothers with you, and take your choice of our Suits.

Cassimeres, Cheviots, Worsteds, Knee Pants or Long Pants, 25 per cent. discount from marked price.

SEE OUR CORNER WINDOW.

For Men, Women and Children, RUBBERS FREE.

To call attention to our Shoe Department—to the fact that here are the latest designs, the new lasts, perfect workmanship and good values,

We will give one pair of Rubbers free with each pair of Shoes sold, this day only.

SEE OUR SHOW WINDOWS.

PEASE & MAYS.

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

church for several years and is now presiding elder for the Portland district. He is an eloquent speaker and deeply interested in the principles which the G. A. R. and Woman's Relief Corps stand.

The directors of The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Company held a regular meeting last evening. All the members of the board were present except Mr. Mays, who is out of the city.

Workmen go down to the Cascades tomorrow to make some alterations in the portage incline at the lower end of the locks. The bulkhead is now sufficiently cleared out so that the dredge can go to work.

The parade of public school scholars was witnessed by a large crowd this afternoon. There were 600 students in line but as they marched along the sidewalk it seemed as though the number was an under-estimate.

The members of the Home Dramatic Club are busily engaged practicing for the comedy "A Night Off," which will be produced in the near future.

The following regarding the Dr. Shores Medical company will be of interest to their many friends in The Dalles. It is taken from the Oregon City notes in yesterday's Oregonian.

The 'doctors disagreed and there were two kinds of trouble today in the "Dr. Shores Medicine Company," an itinerant medico-theatrical organization that has been holding forth at Shively's theater for the past week.

The following regarding the Dr. Shores Medical company will be of interest to their many friends in The Dalles. It is taken from the Oregon City notes in yesterday's Oregonian.

The following regarding the Dr. Shores Medical company will be of interest to their many friends in The Dalles. It is taken from the Oregon City notes in yesterday's Oregonian.

against Manager Fretwell for practicing medicine without a license. Fretwell was arrested in the court room, pleaded not guilty and had his trial set for next Thursday morning.

The member of the troupe who was incarcerated says he hails from The Dalles, and was employed by Fretwell to "sit on the stage, look wise and say nothing," for which onerous service he was to receive $25 a week.

Further comment is unnecessary.

Tomorrow will occur the presentation of flags to the public schools by the Womans Relief Corps of Oregon.

Following is the program of the exercises: Song—"Our Flag and Union Forever" Solo and Quartet Rec—"The American Flag" Walter Reavis Song—"Patriotic Glee" Four small girls Rec—"History of the Flag" Four Boys Song—"Red, White and Blue" Twenty-five Primary Pupils Rec—"Devotion to the Flag" Six Boys Flag Drill "Twenty-four Boys Presentation of Flags, Mrs. W. S. Myers Costume Dialogue—"Liberty Seeking a Home" Eleven Girls Chorus—"Star Spangled Banner" Grover Young Rec—"The School House and the Flag" Rec—"Getting Acquainted" Lena Sexton Sash Drill Seven Girls Song—"America" School and Audience

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

In addition to the cases noticed elsewhere the circuit court docket shows the following transactions: In the case of H. F. Jackson, a demurrer to the indictment was filed, but over ruled.

The indictment of A'vin Sigman was set aside and the matter sent to the grand jury for re-consideration.

The indictment against Walter Carlisle, who appealed from the justice court, was upon motion of District Attorney Jayne dismissed.

In the case of Story vs. Southwell, appealed from the justice court, the motion of the plaintiff to dismiss defendant's appeal was over ruled.

Below is published the prices current in The Dalles markets, Nov. 15. The figures quoted are the retail selling price with the exception of wheat, which figure is the price paid producers:

Wheat—41 cents per bushel. Barley—60 cents per bushel. Oats—75 cents per bushel. Bran—$11 per ton. Shorts—$12.50 per ton. Rolled barley—$14 per ton. Hay, timothy—$15 per ton. Hay, wheat—$12 per ton. Butter, packed—45 cents per roll. Butter, fresh—50 to 60 cents per roll. Eggs—25 to 27 1/2 cents per dozen, inclined to be scarce. Potatoes—65 cents per 100 lbs. Apples—50 to 60 cents per box.

If?

If you want to preserve apples, don't cause a break in the skin. The germs of decay thrive rapidly there. So the germs of consumption find good soil for work when the lining of the throat and lungs is bruised, made raw, or injured by colds and coughs. Scott's Emulsion, with hypophosphites, will heal inflamed mucus membranes. The time to take it is before serious damage has been done. A 50-cent bottle is enough for an ordinary cold.

50 CENTS and $1.00 Scott & Bows, Chemists, New York.

"Old Hickory" Wagon

LEADS THEM ALL. LEADS THEM ALL. LEADS THEM ALL. LEADS THEM ALL.

Forty-five "Old Hickory" Wagons have been sold by us in the past four months. This we think is an expression of the opinion of the people who use wagons that the "Old Hickory" is what we claim it to be—THE BEST MADE WAGON ON EARTH.

Forty-five "Old Hickory" Wagons have been sold by us in the past four months. This we think is an expression of the opinion of the people who use wagons that the "Old Hickory" is what we claim it to be—THE BEST MADE WAGON ON EARTH.

MAYS & CROWE, Second and Federal Sts., THE DALLES, OR.