CRESPO DENIES IT

Repudiates an Interview in the London Times.

VENEZUELANAS ARE STILL EXCITED

The Questions Asked by the New York World—Russian Newspapers Show Satisfaction at the Turn of Affairs.

CARACAS, Dec. 25.—President Crespo repudiates the interview in the London Times in which he is made to say that the Uruan incident is distinct from the boundary question. The editor of Prejono, Leon Poute, has been put in prison for having produced the interview here. The government will refuse to pay England indemnity for the Uruan affair, claiming that the sovereignty of the territory is involved in the incident.

The government has declined any extension of time for the settlement of the Anglo-Venezuelan bank concession.

The militia have been called on for service by an executive decree. This enrages every male citizen.

Christmas is seeing the grandest public manifestation in the history of the country for the purpose of expressing the gratitude of Venezuela to the United States. The city of Caracas is decorated with American and Venezuelan colors. Thousands of people paraded through the streets. The clergy, men and women and children participated, and during the processing the church bells were rung. At night there will be general illuminations. The American residents will meet to arrange for expressions of acknowledgement and to return Venezuelan courtesies.

The society for the Defense of the Nation's Territory has appealed to the world in a manifesto against English injustice.

An important cabinet meeting has just been held.

The government has cabled to the South American republics, asking them to sustain Venezuela against England.

The merchants have decided to boycott English goods.

SENATORS REPLY.

Questions Asked by the New York World Answered.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—A special to the World from Washington says:

To Senator Gray, of Delaware, who is the most devoted friend and champion of the president in the senate, the World submitted in writing several questions, among them the following:

"Did the senate indorse the president's statement as to the Monroe doctrine, and accept his conclusions when it granted his request for a commission?"

Senator Gray replied:

"I cannot answer except by saying that I presume it intended to."

"Do you think that England is bound to accept a boundary in South America which we dictate?"

"As I understand the position of this government in regard to the appointment of a commission, it is that the facts may be ascertained for the information of the government, by which I mean the executive and congress, in regard to the dispute between Venezuela and British Guiana. This information, as I understand it, is for the information of the government, and the American people, and it could not have been expected that its conclusions were binding on either of the disputants."

On the republican side Senator Teller replied:

"If you mean does the senate indorse the president's enunciation of the Monroe doctrine. I can say that in passing the commission bill we sought only to give him power to ascertain the facts with regard to the boundary line between British Guiana and Venezuela."

"It is not the purpose of this country to dictate a boundary line to Great Britain. After the proposed commission has found the facts in the case we shall hope that Great Britain will conclude to submit the case for arbitration if the facts show that she is pushing her frontier unfairly. If she does not, and the findings show she is violating the Monroe doctrine, we shall maintain that doctrine."

"Of course, we have never claimed to be a disinterested arbitrator or judge."

Strathnevis is Safe.

PORT TOWNSEND, Dec. 25.—The disabled Oriental steamship Strathnevis arrived in port late tonight, in tow of the collier Mineola, which found her anchored near Destruction island, below Cape Flattery. The Australian steamer

Miowera had taken the Strathnevis in tow and held her for five days, when, owing to severe storms, she was forced to cast off and abandon her. The recent western storms and heavy seas drove the steamer toward shore, and she barely saved herself from going ashore on the Washington coast by dropping anchor. She came into port uninjured.

MAY BE REVOKED.

Charter of the Nicaraguan Canal Reported in Danger.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—A special from Washington says:

A South American diplomat now in Washington has received a personal letter from a member of the Nicaraguan cabinet stating there is danger that the charter of the Nicaragua canal will be revoked by Nicaragua. A representative of a London syndicate is now in Managua in conference with the officers of the government and he has the recent adverse report by the American commission as an argument in favor of a concession to a British company. He has promised that if the existing charter is revoked a British syndicate will take up the work and push it through without depending upon the state support.

The Nicaraguan government the minister states, is provoked at the delay in the work of the American company and at the recent report of the commission

RUSSIAN COMMENT.

Impossibility of an Anglo-Saxon Union Gives Satisfaction.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—A special to the Herald from St. Petersburg, says:

The Herald says in reference to the Anglo-American dispute that the protest of the bankers is of importance, more so than the political applauding of the governors.

The Novosti strikes a new note:

"Russian sentiment in the Anglo-American dispute," it declares, "is one of satisfaction over this proof of the impossibility of an Anglo-Saxon union. Such a union," adds the paper, "would be a threat to the independence of other nations."

Referring to the message the Novosti says that in reality the Washington cabinet is striving for the complete exclusion of the European powers from the American continent.

"WILLIE BOY" TALKS.

The German Emperor's Personal Views Are Altered.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—A special from Berlin says:

Emperor William has expressed the opinion that the Anglo-American conflict will end in an understanding between the two powers. The czar will do nothing to encourage President Cleveland in his present policy, as the United States would then become too troublesome in the far East.

A St. Petersburg dispatch, however, says the foreign office expects that England will sustain a serious moral defeat if President Cleveland should persist in his present policy.

Broke Out Afresh.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 25.—The street railway trouble broke out afresh today on the Girard-avenue line. The division superintendent in sending out cars this morning gave the preference to the new men, and the old men finally started a revolt. Obstructions were piled on the tracks and a squad of mounted police were called for. The scene of the trouble was surrounded by a howling mob of 10,000, who, however, did not molest the cars. Serious trouble was averted by the company agreeing to put the old men to work. The second and third street branch was also practically tied up through the efforts of the ex-strikers, who found their places being filled by new men.

The Cuban Revolt.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—Senator Estrada Palma was at the Cuban junta headquarters last night for the first time since his trip to Washington, where he opened the headquarters of the new legislation for Cuba. In discussing the insurgent cause, he said:

"We have forced Spain to send over 120,000 troops and increase her navy as well as her debt, and yet our columns are steadily advancing. Spain is trying to negotiate another war loan of 150,000,000 pesetas, and all to crush what she asks the world to believe is a handful of bandits. Spain has sent to Cuba since February 24 nearly as many troops as England did in the entire revolution of the American colonies."

A Fire Flied.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 25.—The brick stable at the handsome country residence of John L. Walsh, president of the Union Traction Company, in Germantown, was burned this morning. It is believed to be the work of an incendiary. The loss is $20,000.

News From Antelope.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

The men arrested for the robbery of the safe in Bolton & Co.'s store were all turned loose, there being no evidence found against them. Other parties are suspected, but proof is lacking. The ladies M. E. aid society lost about $70 that they had laying in the safe, by the robbery. This money had been loaned at ten per cent, well secured; but unfortunately, as it proves, was called in.

Peter Kircheiner, who left here with his brother ten days ago for a trip to Portland, returned Thursday with his bride. Mr. and Mrs. Kircheiner have gone to housekeeping in their own home, the fine residence purchased of W. D. Jones. Mr. Kircheiner has resided in Antelope for a number of years, and is one of the foremost young men in town, being proprietor of the large blacksmith shop and wholesale implement store. He is also a great favorite in society, having been Master Workman in the A. O. U. W. lodge the past year. Mrs. Kircheiner, nee Mrs. Glen, was also known in Antelope and highly esteemed. They have a host of friends, all of whom wish them happiness, prosperity and long life.

Miss Rosa Vredt died at her mother's home in Antelope Saturday at 4 p. m. of a gripple. She was 14 years old, just budding into womanhood, and was greatly loved by her schoolmates and many friends for her kind and gentle disposition. She had a pleasing voice, and was noted for her ability in song, being leader in the school choir. It is sad for one just entering upon the full enjoyment of life, with bright prospects, to be called away, and her death has cast a gloom over the entire neighborhood. She leaves a widowed mother and several brothers and sisters, besides a twin sister, to mourn her loss. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

A Pacific Attitude.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—A special from London says the English government has hitherto refrained from adding a single ship to the Atlantic squadron. It is understood there is no probability of taking such a step for the present. Furthermore, Sir Julian Pauncefote, at Washington, has not communicated with the foreign office for some time past. This may be taken as an indication of the essentially passive and pacific attitude of Lord Salisbury's cabinet.

The popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the high esteem in which it is held leads us to believe it to be an article of great worth and merit. We have the pleasure of giving the experience of three prominent citizens of Redondo Beach, Cal., in the use of the remedy. Mr. A. V. Trudell says: "I have always received prompt relief when I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." Mr. James Orchard says: "I am satisfied that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured my cold." Mr. J. M. Hatcher says: "For three years I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family and its results have always been satisfactory." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.

Doing Good, Hard Work.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—The ways and means committee was in session today, all members in town being present. Chairman Dingley laid before the committee two bills prepared by the majority, one relating to a bond issue, the other to increases in the tariff schedules, and explained the effect of the changes proposed and their purpose. The measures are as outlined in the Associated Press dispatches from Washington during the past few days.

When persons are weak and languid from sickness or overwork, feel debilitated and depressed, it is an indication that the blood is out of order, and they need help to throw off the miserable feeling. The best remedy for this purpose is Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It restores lost strength, gives vigor to circulation, promotes good appetite and a flow of cheerful spirits. Snipes-Kinersley Drug Co.

LINCOLN AND PHELPS

Why They Were Chosen Commissioners.

BOTH ARE POPULAR IN ENGLAND

WHO THE THIRD MEMBER MAY BE

Either Justice Brown or Brewer May Be Named—Old Bluebook Containing Schomburgk's Original Report Found.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—In connection with the appointment of Messrs. Phelps and Lincoln by the president to places on the Venezuelan high commission, the World's Washington correspondent is informed that Mr. Lincoln was Secretary Olney's own selection, and that Chief Justice Fuller also strongly recommended him on the ground that a report signed by two former ministers to England, both of whom have been warmly praised by the British press for many years, will have much weight in Great Britain. It is urged, the correspondent states, that public opinion in England cannot ascribe to such men as Phelps and Lincoln any prejudice against England, where they are both very popular. The third member of the commission, he says, is likely to be one of the associate justices of the United States supreme court, probably Justice Brewer or Justice Brown.

The correspondent concludes as follows:

"English jurists have the highest respect for the learning and impartiality of our supreme court, and the fact that one of its members should temporarily leave the bench to undertake this delicate task would be certain, the president thinks, to add dignity to the commission. But a cabinet officer says that Mr. Cleveland has not positively determined this question of the third commissioner. He realizes that to deprive the supreme court of one of its jurists in the middle of the session would seriously retard the cases that are now pending before it. If he decides that litigation between citizens may well be delayed until the more momentous question between the nations is settled, he will select either Justice Brown or Brewer. The appointment of either of the justices, together with that of Mr. Lincoln, would give the majority of the committee to the republicans. This fact would, it is stated, relieve the president from any suspicion that he was working for the aggrandizement of his own party in creating an international issue. The announcement of the commission is now expected to be made next Monday."

CALLED ON OLNEY.

The British Ambassador Makes Him a Social Visit.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Among Secretary Olney's callers today was Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, accompanied by Mr. Sanderson, the British consul-general at New York, brother of Sir Thomas Sanderson, who drew the "Sanderson line" in the British Guiana boundary dispute, and who address the two notes to Dr. Pulido and Dr. Urbaneta, of Venezuela, which are claimed by Venezuelans to have emanated from Lord Salisbury.

It is stated officially the call was of a social nature.

A strong impression prevails that as a result of the visit today, Secretary Olney has officially notified the British representative of the enactments of a law for the creation of a Venezuelan boundary commission.

Not Much Danger of it.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—A dispatch to the Herald from Berlin says:

It is rumored in diplomatic circles that a number of United States ambassadors, who disapprove of President Cleveland's policy on the Venezuelan question, intend to resign if it is persisted in.

Information received from Vienna states that no proposals have been made to Emperor Francis Joseph that he should arbitrate between England and Venezuela.

WALES' TELEGRAM.

How It Was Received in This Country According to a Correspondent.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—The New York correspondent of the Times says: "The Prince of Wales well understood the American feeling when he authorized Sir Francis Knollys to send a joint note to the World in his own and the Duke of York's name. There is not, from an American point of view, a word too much or a word to little' It is a message which both parties, into which this country is not divided, can accept, and one which is equally gratifying to both. The people of the United States have cherished a real regard for the Prince of Wales ever since his visit to this country, of which many pleasant memories still survive, and they receive with pleasure his assurances of friendship. They will be likely to interpret them as expressing also the sentiments of the queen, who has ever been a venerated figure to Americans, and who is not less so now than for two generations past.

"They see nothing irregular or unconventional in the sending of such communications as these now published. The effect of them, has perhaps been more direct and beneficial than if they had come through the foreign office or parliament. Their simplicity and sincerity is effectual. Nobody here sees any reason why two princes destined, each is his time, to be a sovereign, should not declare his good will to a sovereign people. If it be unusual, the circumstances, are unusual, and as their highnesses have used their prerogative to dispense with any courtly etiquette, that only makes their kindly words more welcome to the people to whom they are addressed."

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medical properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croup cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.
