PERSONAL MENTION.

Saturday.

Mr. S. M. Dial of Antelope is in the city.

Mr. Grant Mays of Antelope is in the city.

Mr. J. W. Haight from Cow Canyon is in town.

Mr. Leslie Butler left on the train last night for Seattle.

Mrs. Nancy Blakeney went to McClure's Landing this morning.

Mr. J. Freiman, a former merchant of The Dalles, now of Portland, went home this morning after a brief visit in The Dalles.

Miss Cora Aldrich of Cascade Locks came up on the noon train for the purpose of singing at the entertainment to-night.

Messrs. O. B. and M. F. Moody, prominent sheep men of Crook county, were in town yesterday and left this morning for Rogersville, Tenn.

Monday.

Mr. Troy Shelley went to Hood River this morning.

Mrs. Warner left for White Salmon this morning.

Miss Aldrich returned to the Locks this morning.

Mr. J. G. Day returned to the Locks this morning.

Mr. Ed. Williams went to Portland this morning.

Mr. John Templeier of Mosier was in the city today.

Mr. W. R. Winans went to Hood River this morning.

Mr. H. A. Wickham, agent for "Fin-Ball" Co., is in the city.

Dr. Leavens was a passenger on the Regulator this morning for the Locks.

Mr. Al. Webster is moving into J. B. Crossen's house, on Third street, between Court and Union streets, lately occupied by J. A. McArthur.

Mr. Frank Byng, foreman of a logging outfit at Johns' mill, is in the city today. He reports 9 inches of fresh snow yesterday morning and still snowing when he left. Though only 18 miles from the city, Johns' mill is 3,000 or 4,000 feet above sea level, and the presence of snow need not be surprising far into the summer.

Tuesday.

Mr. John Crate went to Collins this morning.

Mr. M. A. Moody went to Hood River this morning on the Regulator, returning on the local.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Herrin leave for La Grande tonight, where they have been called on account of the serious illness of Mrs. E. Dickey, a sister of Mr. Herrin, who is afflicted with pneumonia.

Mr. W. A. Johnson returned last evening from a brief sojourn to Heppner, his old home. He finds things moving along in that section in much the manner that might be expected, but has become so accustomed to the push and enterprise of our own city and vicinity he feels better satisfied to return. As regards the political situation, he says there is a unanimity of sentiment to return Ellis to congress.

A Good Comedy.

Probably the best team in the line of Irish comedy on the stage today, is Murray and Mack, whose excellent and exceedingly clever work in their successful comedy, "Finnigan's Ball," has done much to enhance their reputation. Their comedy is bright, brilliant and dashing, their dancing is a revelation of grotesque fun, while their specialties are unique and startling. "Finnigan's Ball" is a finely written and highly entertaining comedy. The plot is not intricate, but the fun comes fast, and the dialogue causes the audience to seethe and bubble with laughter. The supporting company is excellent, and includes the eccentric comedian Geo. H. Emerick, whose portrayal of the troubles of the widow Lalagher, is a feature of the performance. The Loring sisters are refined artists, and truly marvelous dancers. Gracie Cummings, the cute and curly soubrette, Edith Newton, Winifred Stewart, Rita Dixon, Lonnie Deane, Clayton E. White, Bert Leslie, Chas. Lamb and Vincent Mienelli. The costume and stage accessories are elegant and costly, and entirely new equipment of scenery has been provided this season by Manager Merritt. Their date at The Dalles is Monday, April 6th.

Cleveland Bay Stallion—Duke of Wenlock, No. 67.

This thoroughbred stallion will make a stand on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the owner's residence, one mile north of Kingsley. Duke of Wenlock is a dark bay; weighs 1500 lbs.; stands 16 1/2 hands; combining the strength of the draft horse with the action of the racer, and for style, action, power and disposition cannot be surpassed.

Terms—To insure, $10; season, $8. Will not be accountable for accidents. This is the chance of a lifetime to obtain saleable horses.

MRS. A. L. STUBLING & SON.

How to Cure Rheumatism. ARAGO, COOS CO., OREGON, Nov. 10, 1893.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm; one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. Bullard. 50 cents and $1.00 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

In the fall of 1893 a son of Mr. T. A. McFarland, a prominent merchant of Live Oak, Sutter county, Calif., was taken with a very heavy cold. The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have croup he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug store.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

THE NAME OF THE NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN THE New York Weekly Tribune

Of November 4th, 1896. Public interest will steadily increase, and the question how the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election are satisfied with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country.

The NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE, the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations. Also general news in attractive form. Foreign correspondence covering the news of the world; an agricultural department second to none in the country; market reports which are recognized authority; fascinating short stories, complete in each number; the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of women's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large changes are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the women and young people of the household. A special contract enables us to offer this splendid journal and the "Semi-Weekly Chronicle" for
