The address of welcome by the worthy guardian was a most painstaking paper, breathing the spirit of fraternal union and neighborly kindness, and containing a logical appeal to the friends to provide for the wants of their loved ones in advance of death.

The address by Dr. Doane was both argumentative and statistical, and was in line with the concluding portion of the worthy guardian's address.

"The Storm," by Mrs. Briggs, was very realistic production, being accompanied in mimicry by the pattering rain, the whistling winds, the thunder's roll and the lightning's flash of a fearful storm, which resulted in uprooting a strong oak tree, which was thrown on the floor during the total darkness of the storm's fury. This was an original production of Oregon, being written by Mr. C. W. Watt, of Albany, an enthusiastic Woodman. It will bear repetition before any audience.

The other numbers were all worthy of note, but space forbids further individual mention. The musical selections, as well, were very meritorious. During intermission, a number of names were secured for membership in the order. knowledge, and all the rest of his family. The hall decorations were superb. A Poor Place for Tramps.

TAKE STEPS in time, if you are a suf-ferer from that scourge of humanity known as consumption, and you can be cured. There is the evidence of hundreds of livstages, consumption is a curable disease. Not every case, but a large percentage of case, and we believe, fully 98 per cent. are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Dis-covery, even after the disease has pro-gressed so far as to induce repeated bleed-ings from the lungs, severe lingering cough with copious expectoration (including tu-bercular matter), great loss of flesh and ex-treme emaciation and weakness. Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Med-ial Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease? You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every dread and intal disease f You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every instance, been so pronounced by the best and most experienced home physicians, who have no interest whatever in mis-representing them, and who were often strongly prejudiced and advised against a trial of "Golden Medical Discovery," but who have been forced to confess that the surpasses in contribut power over this but who have been forced to contest that it surpasses, in curative power over this fatal malady, all other medicines with which they are acquainted. Nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy "emulsions" and mixtures, had been tried in nearly all these cases and had either utterly failed to bene-fit, or had only seemed to benefit a little for schort time. Rytnet of mail whicher a short time. Extract of mait, whiskey, and various preparations of the hypo-phosphites had also been faithfully tried in vain.

in vain. The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladics, have been skillfully reproduced in a book of 160 pages which will be mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps. You can then write to those who stamps. You can then write to those who have been cured and profit by their experience.
