PRETTY GIRL CARRIED OFF. inveigled Frem Her Home by Two Procuresses.

The Rendleton Tribune reports the case of a pretty girl being persuaded by procuresses to accompany them in Umatilla county. The case should serve as a warning in Wasco county. The same "agency" may soon have workers in this vicinity:

The adopted 18-year-old daughter of Mrs. Bonnifov, who, though a quarter blood Indian, is said to be much prettier than many full-blood white girls rated as beauties, and who resides upon the reservation, was inveigled from her home early Saturday morning by two female procuresses. These women spent two days upon the reservation going from family to family, and displaying cheap and gaudy jewelry and colored ribbons, which they took from a black grip, in order to test the susceptibility of Shad weighing seven and eight pounds the young women. It was not long before the white settlers and the more intelligent of the Indians became suspicious and made Agent Harper aware of their fears. He acted promptly upon vation, too late, however, to prevent the

Her worst fears were immediately aroused, and after maiden, she was informed of the direction taken and also of whose wagon had been engaged to carry the party away. Frenzied, the poor woman saddled a horse and started off alone in pursuit. She traveled all day and until the night was half spent, but upon reaching the mountains, and hearing sufficient to convince her that she was not gaining upon the fugitives, Mrs. Bennifou gave up the chase in despair. However, she turned her horse's head homeward without thinking of rest, and early yesterday morning was looking for the sheriff. He was given a full description of the two procuresses and their victim and immediately the wires were buzzing the news will be done to rescue the unfortunate girl, but it is feared that she is now beyond reach. Had the flight been reported early on Saturday there would have been more hope.

Mr. Hume's Speech

Hon. Wilson T. Hume's speech last evening was a good one for the regular nominees and the platform and principles of the Republican party. The attitude of Harvey Scott in the Oregonian to several points. Everything possible and its bolter candidate for congress, Judge Northup, was shown up in a truer light than by any other speaker who has thus far addressed a Dalles audience. The platform of the Republican party in 1892, and again in 1894 (by the way formulated by Harvey Scott himself) pledged the party to a bimetallic standard, recognizing silver and gold of great exhibitions will be with us at equally, and maintaining both metals on an equality. This was similar to the Minneapolis platform.

The matter of the state of Martha Purser, deceased, has occupied the attention of the county court most of the day

Awarded Highest Honors-World's Fair, Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair. ·DR:

The situation is rather a peculiar one. It seems that in 1882, on the death of Mrs. Purser, the homestead was sold for $3,-000. At the time Mrs. Purser, not needing the money, divided it among the five heirs, giving each $600, for which each executed a note agreeing to pay $48 per year to Mrs. Purser until her death, at which time the notes would be cancelled. The matter came up today in the form of an objection to the sale of the real estate, one of the beirs claiming to have paid all his portion and that the others had not, thus seeking to have the unpaid sums declared a portion of the es-
