LOCAL BRIEFITIES.

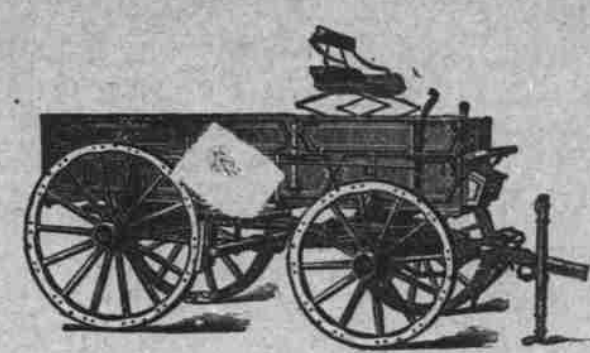

Saturday's Daily. At the bowling contest last night the single men won the first night's contest by 35 points. Home dramatists are rehearsing their coming play, "Pasquidation," at the Baldwin opera house. Mrs. Slew, who came down from Spokane yesterday, left this morning to join her husband at Prunville. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Bohr of Portland returned home this morning from a visit to Mr. D. C. Ireland at Moro. Mrs. B. D. Johnson came up from Astoria yesterday to spend Decoration Day in the city, when she will leave for a visit with her parents in Columbus. The Regulator left this morning with flags flying at half mast, in honor of the dead heroes, whose comrades will today strew flowers over their graves all over the land. A fierce wind is blowing up the river today, which makes the river seem higher than it is. It has raised about a foot in the past twenty-four hours, as nearly as can be ascertained. The jury in the Snipes case brought in a verdict at 11:30 this morning as follows: We, the jury, find defendant guilty of simple assault, and recommend him to the mercy of the court. Monday's Daily. Reserved tickets for Milton and Dollie Nobles are now on sale at Snipes & Kinnersly's drug store. Some one towed up a raft of timbers last evening, but during the night it broke loose and drifted down the river again. The event of the season. The advent of Bond Brothers' World's Best Shows here Thursday, June 4th. Eastern papers pronounce the Bond Brothers' Shows the best ever organized. The big shows will be at The Dalles on Thursday, June 4th. The total average daily attendance of The Dalles public schools for the last quarter (5 weeks) ending May 22, '96, was 569; for the similar period May '95 the total was 499, a gain of 70 in favor of the present year. As indicative of the permanent nature of the growth it should be compared with the fact that attendance of May '95 was 120 greater than the attendance of any similar period in the previous history of the district. The ministers of the city occupy their several pulpits yesterday morning and the usual Sunday school sessions were held. In the afternoon union service was held at the armory, and in the evening at the same place Mr. Carpenter preached to a large audience, taking on his subject the parable of the wise and foolish virgins. Mr. Wallace sang in a most impressive manner the solo "Beckoning Hands," which caused a hush to come over the audience remarkable for such a large crowd. The meetings will close tomorrow night. Mr. Ira Rowland, who lives near Moerier, had a narrow escape from drowning Saturday. A sudden shift of the wind blew the sail in such a manner that the rope, being tight, caused his boat to capsize, and he was thrown into the water. He was a considerable distance from shore and he had to swim for it. The water was numbing and he is not a practiced swimmer, and he was about to sink after a long struggle, when his feet fortunately touched bottom. He waded, out almost exhausted, but thankful for his life. The boat floated down the river and was lost. The sacred concert given by The Dalles band yesterday was one of the finest out-door concerts ever given. The large number of people who gathered at the school grounds were enthusiastic in their praise. These Sunday concerts have already become a necessity, and we hope nothing will occur to cause their discontinuance. The band was assisted by Mr. Chrisman of the Congo Oil company who is an accomplished musician and plays the E. B. cornet, the leading instrument. His services were greatly appreciated by the band, who have expressed a desire to publicly thank him for his kind assistance. The last meeting of The Dalles Lodge No. 2, I. O. G. T., or the Saturday night lodge, was of more than usual interest. The mock trial inaugurated two weeks ago was proceeded with and conducted with unparalleled ability by the attorneys on each side, who possessed the faculty, highly developed, of bothering each other and delaying proceedings in the true style. The jury brought in a verdict on the second ballot of guilty. The case was, of course, promptly appealed by the attorneys for the defense. Next Saturday evening a Leap Year basket social will be held, the gentlemen preparing and bringing the baskets, which will contain the lunches and also a very juvenile photo of themselves, to be auctioned off to the ladies. A most cordial invitation to attend is extended to all friends and members of neighboring lodges. Tuesday's Daily. The infant child of A. J. Hendry died last night from an attack of spasms. The baby was a little girl, aged about 8 months. The tabulated vote of the county appears elsewhere. It is almost complete, and the results will not be changed appreciably by the vote yet to be reported. A telegram was received by Sheriff Driver this afternoon from Sheriff Maddock of Clackamas county that the entire Populist ticket is elected in that county. The election yesterday indicates a larger vote than was ever before polled in The Dalles. The returns show an excess of 172 votes over the highest number ever before polled. Some fine racing horses went below this morning on the Regulator. The Wasco Stables sent Latab, Begonia and Jim Crow, Geo. Alexander sent Hattie Glenn and W. G. Whitmore sent Ione. Mr. McNeil left for Mosier last night, where he was called on account of an accident to one of his little boys. The boy was hurt on the railroad, and reports are that he lost an arm and was considerably bruised about the head. At the meeting last night at the armory Mr. Carpenter took for his subject the hand-writing on the wall. Mr. Wallace also sang a solo touching the same subject, which was indeed impressive. The last meeting will be held tonight, and all are especially invited to be present. A delegation of young folks went to Wasco this morning to attend the district convention of the Epworth League comprising a territory between Golden-dale and Prineville and Heppner to the Cascades. Those who left here were Edith Randall, Nellie Sylvester, Mabel Riddell, Ethel Deming, Ed Hill and John Thomas. Postmaster Crossen received a letter from the postmaster general this morning which must have given him intense satisfaction. It raises this office to a second class postoffice and means an increased emolument of $200 a year. His salary will now be $2,000 annually. This raise is considered permanent, as there is small chance for the office to again lapse to third class. This news, taken with the greatly increased vote of Dalles City over any election prior, proves that our population is greater than ever before, and that we have fully recovered from the effects of the removal of the shops here several years ago. A laborer at the Cascades got into a row with some Chinamen this morning at Seufert's cannery, resulting in a warrant for his arrest by A. A. Urquhart, who made the arrest this afternoon. While the man was working at a fish wheel a Chinaman accidentally spat in his hat. He mistook the Chinaman's intent and commenced beating him, finally pushing him down a shaft about thirty feet deep. This made the boss Chinaman mad and he floored the white man with an iron bolt, nearly breaking his jaw and splitting his ear the entire length. The white man went away, but soon returned with a gun and renewed hostilities. He fired into the Chinamen, but with no serious effect. The white man was then taken in charge and the officers summoned. Umatilla County. PENDLETON, Or., June 1.—The returns come in very slowly. The count up to the present indicates the election of Teel, pop., for joint senator. Bennett will run ahead of the ticket in all precincts. Report of Summit Ridge School. EDITOR CHRONICLE:—Following is the report of Summit Ridge school for the month beginning May 4th and closing May 29th: Those who have not been tardy nor absent and excellent in deportment during the month are James Clausen, Cora Clausen, Ednah Clausen, Otto Clausen, Anna Ramus and Nettie Ramus. Visitors, Mrs. Pell, Hattie Sternweis, Washington Sternweis and Jessie Smith. MAUD PEABODY, Teacher. $10 Reward. Lost—Two checks on French's bank, one for $90 and one for $421, also an order on The Dalles Lumbering Co. for $157. Ten dollars reward will be paid for their return to The Lumbering Co. * The Baldwin opera house now in good order, will be rented at one half former rates, until further notice. Address my39,3t J. C. The Jury Vote the Australian Ballot. The jury amused themselves during the long hours last night while they were trying to agree on a verdict in the Snipes case by taking a vote on the political situation. Sample ballots were handed them, which each quietly marked and deposited in a hat. The vote showed their minds were about in the same confusion on the political situation as they were on the Snipes case. Perhaps the best index as to their party complexion was shown in the vote for congress, Bennett receiving 7, Ellis 3 and Quinn 2. This opinion is corroborated by the vote for superintendent of schools, the Democratic nominee receiving 7, the Republican 3, while one of the two Populists knew that Miss Hansbury was not legally a candidate. For the other positions, the vote showed a past tremendous agitation in favor of the Republican candidates. For supreme judge, Bean led the ticket, receiving 5, Bennett, Dem. 4, Gaston the inevitable 2. For clerk, Kelsey's popularity was manifested, receiving the full Republican vote, a majority of the Democratic vote, and even one of the Populists; Kelsey 8, Cates 3. Driver also gained a Democratic vote: Driver 4, Woodcock 6, Taylor 2. For joint senators the Demo-Pop fuse is apparent: Armsworthy (dem) 5, Dufur (dem) 6, Michell (rep) 6, Moore (rep) 4. For representatives, B. S. Huntington led the ticket with 5. Henry 3, Messenger 2, Jones 2, Coon 1. For county treasurer, the independent candidate is top man. Wm. Michell received 5 votes, Geo. Liebe 4, Seth Morgan 2, and C. L. Phillips 1. Geo. Morgan, accepting the jury's vote as indicative of anything, is the most popular. He received 8 votes to Whipple's 3. Morgan is our townsman, while Whipple is not so well known in this locality. For coroner, Butts 6, Williams 4. For surveyor, Schuts 7, Goit 4. The last named again shows the complexion of the jury politically. Both men are held in equal esteem by the community. It is now too late to subpoena a jury with a Republican majority, which party is really dominant, and the vote if it shows anything is very complimentary, as it indicates that the Democratic party propose to vote for many men who represent the party of protection and the friends of both gold and silver as money metals. Today's Election. The election in The Dalles today has been very animated, and it is probable a larger vote will be polled than ever before. Early this morning a number of persons were seen wearing Bennett ribbons, and later a circular letter was distributed from Northup, the Oregonian candidate for congress. In many respects the election today is a personal canvass, which cannot but result in a great number of scratched tickets. The chief local fights are being made on county judge, sheriff and clerk. For the other county offices it is believed the party ticket will generally be followed by the respective adherents. Nothing is obtainable upon which to base a prediction for a single name on the ticket. The strong fight, which is being made for Bennett, and a local pride which exists because of his residence in The Dalles, might give him a plurality. Otherwise Ellis would have received a majority. Quinn will poll a larger vote than has been generally conceded. East Dalles precinct polled 162 votes by 2 o'clock. Several illegal voters attempted to cast ballots, but the most of them were prevented by competent challengers. The judges here were R. E. Williams, John Adams and John Blaser. Clerks, D. Parish, and John Taylor, Deputy sheriff, B. H. Thurston. The challengers were Jack Elton and D. H. Roberts. In the other precincts there seemed to be no regular challengers. The polls in Bigelow precinct were held at Wm. Michell's undertaking establishment. At 2:30 there were 136 votes polled. The judges were John Cates, S. B. Adams and J. M. Huntington. Clerks, Ed Patterson and D. C. Herrin. The county court room was the polling place in Trevitt precinct. At 2:45 o'clock there were 147 votes polled. The judges were J. L. Story, C. E. Bayard and N. H. Gates. Clerks, Geo. Gibbons and Roger Sinnott. West Dalles polled 177 votes by 3 o'clock. This polling place would make a fine summer resort, but when the chilling blasts of November whistle through the chink holes of the old City Mills building, it will be decidedly uncomfortable. The judges are J. M. Marden, G. M. Sterling and J. Doherty. Clerks, S. S. Johns and B. F. Miller. Conflicting Reports. Reports from the upper country are conflicting as to the probable stage of water in the Columbia this season. Ranchers who have come from the upper country report a small snowfall, while miners claim the opposite. No prediction has yet been sent from Portland. The river this morning registered 23.6 feet. To equal the height of 1894 it must rise 33.4 feet, or over a foot a day for thirty days, which is a very remote possibility and entirely improb-

ble. For the 24 hours previous to 6 o'clock this morning the river rose two feet. At Umatilla the river rose six inches yesterday, which means a rise of one foot here tomorrow. Unusually high water is feared, but no one yet believes it will reach our streets, and the railroad men are not alarmed that it will do any damage to the track. A Death at the Cascades. Coroner Butts was called to the Cascades Saturday to hold an inquest over the remains of Wm. C. King. The report of the grand jury contains the essential facts which are as follows: We, the undersigned, the jury duly empanelled by W. H. Butts, coroner of Wasco county, Oregon, to inquire into the case of the death of the body now before us after hearing all the testimony of the different witnesses called and sworn by said coroner find as follows: That the name of said deceased was Wm. C. King, of about the age of 53 years, and came to this country from Marlborough, Mass.; that he had no known relatives in this state so far as known and was a single man. That the cause of his death was from an accidental fall off of bridge No. 73, in the eastern portion of Cascade Locks, said bridge belonging to the O. R. & N. Co., which resulted in the death of said deceased; that said deceased came to his death as above indicated, on the 29th day of May, 1896, falling from said bridge between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock p. m., the exact time of which is not now known, but from the testimony of the witnesses we believe that said accident happened about 3 o'clock p. m. of said day. And in conclusion we find that no blame attaches to any person as the cause of said death, but that the death of said deceased was purely accidental and could not be avoided and caused either through his infirmity or an unavoidable accident. CHARLES MALANDER, C. A. STEWART, R. C. WILBY, F. P. SHAW, JOHN McCABREY, D. S. DUFUR. Mr. Spencer's Speech. Mr. L. C. Spencer made an old-fashioned Republican speech at the courthouse last night. He talked along the lines of protection and bimetalism in a speech of an hour and a half's length, and was frequently interrupted with applause. He was introduced by Mr. F. W. Wilson, president of The Dalles McKinley Club. Mr. Spencer reviewed the financial history of our country from 1796 to the present time. He explained the truth of the Gresham law, or the promulgation of a well-known principle in 1856 in England which he applied to all nations at all times where two or more metals circulated side by side. That principle is that the cheaper money will drive the dearer out of circulation. When money was first coined by our government at a ratio of 15 to 1 gold was driven out of circulation. An attempt was made to remedy it by establishing the ratio at 16 to 1. This was an error the other way and silver became the scarcer metal. The government cannot legislate a value for silver. Silver must take its place in the commercial world along with every other commodity. If legislation would give silver value Mr. Spencer would go further than the Populists. If 16 to 1 would double its value, he wondered why they did not make it 8 to 1 and quadruple it, or 4 to one and make it worth eight times as much. He would make it 1 to 1 and make all of us millionaires. He closed with a strong argument to support the regular ticket and vote 'er straight. Watkins the Name of the Dead Man. Coroner Butts has received a letter from Mrs. Minnie Miller, Portland, stating that the man who was run over by the train and killed a few days ago, is her father; that his correct name is Mose Watkins instead of Russell, and that he assumed the name of Russell because of trouble he got into at Portland. A picture of a little girl was found on the dead man's person. Referring to it the writer said: "He asked me for the picture the day before he left Portland. That was on May 12th. The picture is of my little girl. If it is not too badly disfigured I would like to have it returned. I am coming up to have his body removed as soon as it is convenient. We are well satisfied with the inquest, but it was a terrible shock to us. I am very thankful to you for your kindness in helping us to find out his identity." Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair. DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER Most Perfect Made. 40 Years the Standard.

The Price on Farm Wagons Has Dropped.

That is, the price on some wagons has fallen below our price on "OLD HICKORY" wagons. Why? Because no other wagon on the market will sell alongside of the "OLD HICKORY" at the same prices. It is the best ironed, best painted and lightest running, and we guarantee every bit of material in it to be strictly first class. If you want the CHEAPEST wagon on the market, we haven't got it; but we have got the BEST, and solicit comparison. MAYS & CROWE, The Dalles, O.

VICTORY!

Almost the Entire Republican Ticket Elected in Wasco County. Wasco county declared in no uncertain terms what it believes is responsible for the hard times now afflicting the country, and that it is willing, nay anxious, to place the reins of government once more in the hands of the Republican party, that party under which it has enjoyed uninterrupted prosperity until Cleveland's election the first time. For congressman Bennett has, so far as heard from, a small plurality, but the precincts yet to be heard from will lessen that plurality, and perhaps overturn it. But this being Bennett's home, has an influence to swell his vote locally. News from Portland indicates to a certainty the election of Hon. W. R. Ellis. Bean for supreme judge, Jayne for prosecuting attorney, Michell for joint senator and Huntington for joint representative are among the certainties, while the election of Jones is almost assured. The only defection on the Republican senatorial ticket is W. H. Moore of Sherman county, and there is yet some hope for him. The county ticket is almost a clean sweep, if not fully so. Blakeley gave Mays a close race for county judge, but indications point to the election of Mays. Driver for sheriff is re-elected by a handsome majority. Kelsey for clerk and Gilbert for county school superintendent got surprisingly large votes. The balance of the Republican county ticket is probably elected, though the vote for assessor is very close, and will be decided by the precincts yet to be heard from. For precinct officers the Democratic candidates were elected. In the case of justice of the peace this was caused by the large independent vote for Davis, who did not fall far behind either the Republican or Democratic nominee. Filloon received 369 votes, Farley 326 and Davis 304. For constable Hill received 562 to Wiley's 463. The result as a whole is more than satisfactory, and indicates the triumph in November of the grand old Republican party throughout the states. THROUGHOUT THE STATE. Bean Surely Elected—Ellis Will Probably Win. Others in Doubt. PORTLAND, June 2.—Never have tickets in Oregon been so scratched as at the election held yesterday. The count is progressing with phenomenal slowness throughout the state. The only things certain are that the Republicans have elected Bean supreme judge and has been successful in most counties with local officers. It is impossible yet to determine whether the Republicans will control the next legislature or whether it will be in the hands of the Populists and Democrats. In the Second congressional district it looks very much as though Ellis had

INCOMPLETE RETURNS.

For supreme judge— Robert S. Bean, Rep. 719 John Burnett, Dem. 200 Joseph Gaston, Pop. 353 For congress— A. S. Bennett, Dem. 146 W. R. Ellis, Rep. 683 F. H. Northup, Ind. 706 Martin Quinn, People's. 700 City of Portland. For mayor— Chas. F. Beebe, Ind. 511 H. Boerner, middle road pop. 9 D. Solis Cohen, rep. 380 J. H. Morris, pop. 4 Sylvester Pennoyer. 625 Sherman County's Vote. Sherman county has been regarded as Populist, but yesterday's returns do not bear out the impression. Sherman county is this year Republican. Here are the figures: For congressman—Ellis 381, Bennett 209, Quinn 196, Northup 50. For supreme judge—Bean 347, Gaston 232, Burnett 110. For prosecuting attorney—Jayne 387, Cradlebaugh 326. For joint senator—Michell 341, Armsworthy 360, Moore 330, Dufur 396. For joint representatives—Huntington 326, Jones 284, Henry 308, Messenger 330, Coon 30.

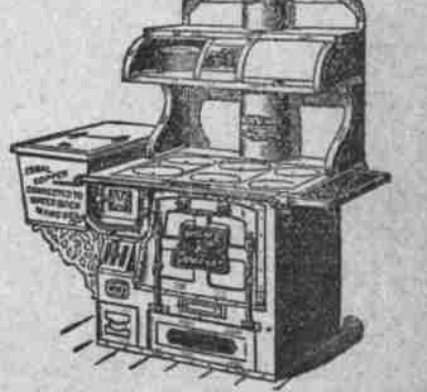

PROGRESS.

People who get the greatest degree of comfort and real enjoyment out of life, are those who make the most out of their opportunities. Quick perception and good judgment, lead such promptly to adopt and make use of those refined and improved products of modern inventive genius which best serve the needs of their physical being. Accordingly, the most intelligent and progressive people are found to employ the most refined and perfect laxative to regulate and tone up the stomach, liver, and bowels, when in need of such an agent—hence the great popularity of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are made from the purest, most refined and concentrated vegetable extracts, and from forty-two to forty-four are contained in each vial, which is sold at the same price as the cheaper made and more ordinary pills found in the market. In curative virtues, there is no comparison to be made between them and the ordinary pills, as any one may easily learn by sending for a free sample, (four to seven doses) of the Pellets, which will be sent on receipt of name and address on a postal card. ONCE USED THEY ARE ALWAYS IN FAVOR. The Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, indigestion, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heart-burn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Put up in glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day after dinner. To relieve distress from over-eating, they are unequalled. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them. Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.
