

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, - - - - OREGON

OFFICIAL PAPER OF WASCOCO COUNTY.

Published in two parts, on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

BY MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, IN ADVANCE.

One year $1.50

Six months75

Three months50

Advertising rates reasonable, and made known on application.

Address all communications to "THE CHRONICLE," The Dalles, Oregon.

The Daily and Weekly Chronicle may be found on sale at I. C. Nickelsen's store. Telephone No. 1.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Saturday's Daily.

Mr. Sam Sanders of University Park has been in the city the past few days visiting Mr. Frank Wood.

A telegram has just been received from Chairman Hirsch, of the state central committee, saying Mr. Ellis was 243 ahead so far as heard from.

Mrs. Joles wishes all the members of the Independent Temple to meet her at Fraternity hall at 7 o'clock next Wednesday evening to march in a body to the M. E. church to attend the welcome of the grand lodge delegates.

An official statement of Wasco county's vote appears today on our fourth page. There have been many corrections made. This will be the last appearance of these figures in THE CHRONICLE, and should be preserved for future reference.

A very remarkable rose was exhibited by Mrs. Marden at the display yesterday. It was of the variety viscountess falkstone and measured seven inches in diameter. It would easily draw first prize at the Portland floral exhibition.

The fine music furnished by the orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Birgfeld, has been not the least source of pleasure to those who have attended the Nobles plays at the opera house. The orchestra has a full complement of instruments and plays with rare good taste.

The members of Mount Hood Camp, No. 59, are requested to meet at Fraternity hall on Sunday, June 7, 1896, at 1 p. m. sharp to assist in the unveiling ceremonies of our esteemed neighbor, Thos. N. Joles, deceased. All members of said camp, and visiting neighbors will march from hall to cemetery. By order of consul.

Monday's Daily.

The Regulator did not go below this morning, but will tomorrow.

The run of fish is very light, but with a falling river, there is a better chance of a catch.

Geo. W. Moody and Ida Elizabeth Chapman were married this afternoon by Justice L. S. Davis.

Attorney H. S. Wilson is in Goldendale, where he appears as counsel for the three drug store men of that town who have been indicted for selling liquor.

The old Frank Taylor property across the river, afterward owned by the Interstate Improvement Co. was sold at sheriff's sale Saturday, the plaintiffs bidding in the property for $5,000.

The Regulator will make a trip tomorrow, leaving at 8 a. m., and will make connection with the Dalles City for Portland. Excursion rates, Cascades and return, 50 cents. W. C. Alloway, Agent.

The river has been at a standstill for the past twenty-four hours. Late news from the upper river is that the Snake has fallen eight inches, and the Upper Columbia raised four inches. It is now the general impression that the river has nearly or quite attained its height for the season.

The Junior League of the M. E. church will give a picnic next Wednesday, to which the children, and all interested in their religious welfare, are invited to attend. The company will meet at the academy grounds at 9:30 o'clock, with lunch baskets, and from there will proceed to the picnic grounds.

The sliding mountain near Bonneville is again causing the O. R. & N. much trouble. The river washing underneath has caused the land on which the road is built to slide toward the river. By great exertion on the part of a large force of men, traffic has so far been comparatively uninterrupted.

Tickets for "Past Redemption" are selling at a lively rate and good seats will soon be scarce. The entertainment is given for the purpose of meeting the expenses of the grand lodge, and the hall will be filled by our home people and the visitors. The play itself is very strong, and we understand the cast is enthusiastic concerning its merits.

There is a chance that the McCoy laborers are to be paid for their month's work. Mr. McCoy requested the sheriff to conduct him to Portland yesterday, promising to make an effort to secure the money. The ditch men have worked nearly two months. They were paid at the end of the fraction of the first month, but were not paid at the end of the second month, an aggregate sum of about $2,200. They insist upon getting before they resume work on the ditch.

The idea copied of the Democratic editor became tired of its duties this afternoon, and waiting till its owner walked down to the D. P. & A. N. Co. wharf, allowed the wind to wait it from his head to the broad bosom of the Columbia. Mr. Douthit hurriedly got into a boat and gave chase, but when he regained it, it was pretty wet. That is the first time, says Mr. Douthit, he ever soaked his hat.

A jury trial is in progress this afternoon before circuit court in the case of Wolf & Zweicker Iron Works vs. I. H. Taffe. It is an action on a promissory note given by Taffe for hoisting apparatus and fish wheel gearing. Taffe claims the goods were never sent him and that he signed the note under a misapprehension. The attorney for plaintiff is H. H. Riddell; attorneys for defendant Huntington & Wilson.

On June 4th Mrs. Emily B. Rinehart was appointed the legal guardian over her children, Sayre Rinehart, aged 13, Earl and Carl Rinehart, twins, aged 11, and Phillip Rinehart, aged 8 years. It is deemed necessary that a guardian be appointed for the persons and estate of these minors, for the purpose of collecting certain moneys due to said minors. The requisite bond was filed June 5th.

The Hood River strawberry crop is still backward about ripening. Wednesday night something over 100 crates were shipped to Montana. Prices in the Montana market remain good for Hood River berries. At Butte they have been selling for $7 a crate. In some early localities the crop was injured by the frost and cold rains, but on the whole, the crop is better than for several years. The prospect is considered good for prices ruling as high as they did last year throughout the season.

Tuesday's Daily.

The river fell three inches during the night.

Hood River Strawberries are selling in Salt Lake City at $4.50 to $5.50 per crate.

Work will soon begin on the new depot at North Yakima, to cost about $50,000.

Conductor Fowler of the O. R. & N. reports great improvement of late in the passenger business.

Judge Bean is re-elected supreme judge by a plurality of about 13,000. This indicates that Oregon is still a Republican state.

A new steam shovel started work this morning, and trains loaded with rock are being hurried to Umatilla to prevent damage to the track in case the river rises.

County Clerk Kelsay has shipped four tons of peas to Montana, receiving an average of $100 per ton. He will have another ton for shipment. The peas planted in February did better than those planted in the fall.

Attorney J. L. Story, who has been converted to the Populist faith, believes that Vanderberg was legally elected in the First district, but gives it up regarding the Ellis-Quinn contest. He believes an effort is being made to count Vanderberg out, and predicts if that is done the state will go Populist by 5,000 majority in November.

The jury in the case of Wolf & Zweicker Iron Works vs. I. H. Taffe brought in a verdict this morning against the defendant, Mr. Taffe of $16.50 and $20 attorney's fees. The jury were Messrs. N. Wheelton, Paul Krefl, J. H. Cross, D. P. Thomas, John Parish, A. Sandrock, Jess Blakeney, J. W. Johnston, Hugh Chrisman, R. H. Weber, H. F. Dietzel and N. M. Lane.

The large elevator of the Tacoma Warehouse Co., at Walla Walla, was destroyed by fire Sunday morning. Eighteen hundred sacks of wheat belonging to Dement Bros., and a carload of flour owned by Gilbert & Co., stored in the warehouse, was a total loss. The elevator was valued at $10,000, with $4,000 insurance. The fire is of an incendiary nature. A few days ago notices were posted about town that if the people of Walla Walla did not stop employing Chinese the town would be burned down.

Citizens Meeting.

Pursuant to the usual custom, a meeting will be held at the Court house on Thursday evening June 11th, 1896, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of making nominations for the offices to be filled at the coming city election.

FRANK MENEFEER, Mayor.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Most Perfect Made. 40 Years the Standard.

ELLIS A SAFE WINNER.

He Will Again Be Congressman From the Second District.

W. R. Ellis has emerged from the clouds of uncertainty and it is now certain that he will again be congressman from Oregon for the second district. His reelection has been made sure by the returns from Grant, Malheur and Union counties. The vote, which is sufficiently complete to prevent the result from being changed by the few counties in which scattering precincts have not been heard from, is: Ellis, 12,212; Quinn, 11,581.

In the first district a few votes either way will decide whether Tongue or Vanderburg will go to Washington. The correction of errors discovered in the count has so changed the totals that Vanderburg is now only 38 votes ahead. The returns so far being: Vanderburg, 19,166; Tongue, 19,113. These figures, however, do not include Curry county, where Tongue is reported to have a majority of 105 votes, which would change Vanderburg's plurality of 143 to 38, or wipe it out altogether, in case the majority in Curry should not turn out to be a plurality.

Tongue's principal gains have been made in Lane and Linn, and Vanderburg has lost in Clackamas.

For the Third Term.

Representative W. R. Ellis is a native of Indiana, having been born in Montgomery county, April 23, 1850. He is a farmer's son, his father having died when Ellis was 18 months old. He entered the Iowa agricultural college when he was 21 years old, and graduated from the state university in 1874. During his residence in Iowa he made his home in Hamburg, where he was honored with several municipal offices, including that of mayor. He came to Oregon and settled in Heppner, Morrow county. Here he engaged in the practice of his profession as lawyer. In 1885 he was appointed prosecuting attorney of the Seventh judicial district by Governor Moody, and in 1886 he was elected to the same office. In 1888 he was re-elected to this important office by a large majority. In 1892 he was nominated and elected to congress from the Second Oregon district. He was re-elected in 1894.

The Rose Display.

Those whose expectations were raised to the highest, when they received invitations to Mrs. Marden's rose display, found them fully realized yesterday afternoon, for there and then took place one of the prettiest, brightest, happiest parties ever given in our city. The decorations were wonderfully beautiful, and were composed of thousands of roses. Every door and window was outlined with that matchless flower, while long streamers were suspended from the center to the corners of the ceilings. The hall was festooned entirely with red roses, the two parlors in cream and La France roses respectively, while the dining room was decorated solely with magnificent yellow beauties. There were 145 varieties of roses used.

The form of entertainment which was most novel and interesting, was an original idea of the hostess. Each guest was furnished with a score card and pencil and a name of some one thing, which one after the other drew on a large portfolio, hanging on the wall. Peals of laughter would greet each effort, and the guesses went all the way from "General Grant's tomb," to "a nightmare," on the same picture.

While a most dainty luncheon was being served, the score cards were counted and it was found that Mrs. Herbert had gained the highest honors, and Mrs. Lord was the one to be consoled; but it turned out that she was truly envied, for she carried home an armful of magnificent roses.

Among the invited guests were Messdames Lord, Thornbury, Curtis, Myers, Donnell, M. Donnell, Condon, J. W. Condon, Bennett, Brooks, Gibbons, R. Gibbons, Crandall, Laughlin, Peters, Fish, Bradshaw, Hobson, Schenck, S. French, T. Butler, Hudson, Crowe, Patterson, Glenn, Phelps, Sheldon, Fairfowl, Huntington, M. E. French, Doane, Cushing, A. R. Thompson, Hostetler, Davenport, W. H. Wilson, Schutz, H. S. Wilson, Blakeley, Kerns, Moody, Faulkner, Croesen, Weigle, McCoy, Eshelman, Mac Allister, Pease, Schanno, Herbert, Morgan, Houghton.

Fine Shoes Made by Hand.

Mr. Fred Helfrich, late of Seattle, has been induced to locate in this city through the influence of The Dalles Concert Band who have promised him their support in consideration of his becoming a member of that organization to which he is a valuable acquisition. This gentleman is a shoemaker of exceptional ability and makes a specialty of making fine shoes by hand as well as repairing of all kind. His shop is located on Second street, two doors west of the Clarendon restaurant. All new work will be fully warranted and his repairing will be done in the most artistic manner. We hope this enterprise will meet with the success it deserves.

"The Phoenix."

The last of Milton and Dollie Noble plays in The Dalles was given at the opera house last night. A larger audience was present than at either night previous. "The Phoenix" loses none of Specials for this Week.

Sun Shades.

We offer this week a very choice line of Plain and Fancy Sun Shades. The shades and quality were selected with great care.

See Window for Styles.

Children's Figured Cotton Shades	40c
Children's Plain and Fancy Silk, assorted	75c to $2.50
Ladies' 24-inch Gloria, plain black	75c to 2.00
" 22-inch Black Satin Sun Shade	1.50
" 24-inch better grade	2.00, 3.00, 3.50
" 22-inch Fancy Taffettas, in all the new shades	4.00 and 5.00
" 24-inch Plain Black Parasols, in Silk Gloria and Taffettas, fine assortment of Dresden Handles	3.00 to 7.50

Ladies, you will do well by looking through our stock. We know we can please you.

Shoes, Shoes.

We will interest customers desiring anything in the Shoe line, with one of the best offers ever made in our Shoe Department. In Children's Shoes, we have about 200 odd pair in fine Kid and Kangaroo, to be sold for $1.00; regular price, $2.50 and $2.55. In Ladies' Shoes, we have a very fine Kid, with cloth top, that we are offering for $2.25; regular price, $3.75 and $4.00. Don't overlook this offer, for you are getting the best stock we have.

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

PEASE & MAYS.

their interest with the advance of years. It introduces a variety of American characters in the world of urban life which are frequently met. The same sparkling fun pervades this play as all the others, and does not differ materially in style. The readiness of the New York Bohemian to adapt himself to circumstances is very naturally drawn by Nobles in his character of "Carroll Graves." The play throughout is full of spirited dialogue, and several thrilling tableaux are introduced. Though the company drew poor houses while in The Dalles, owing to other attractions, they were fully appreciated and will meet with a warm welcome should they ever revisit our city.

Past Redemption.

The next theatrical production will be by home talent, under the direction of Prof. C. W. Travis of New York. He has a very strong attraction booked of a temperance cast, and is a thrilling drama which had 100 nights run in New York City alone. Mr. Travis is a competent and painstaking drillmaster, as well as a thorough actor, and he assures us that "Past Redemption," to be presented at the New Vogt opera house next Friday evening, will compare favorably with many established companies. Below is published the cast of characters and synopsis of the play:

CAST OF CHARACTERS.

Harry Maynard	Mr. C. W. Travis
John Maynard	Mr. G. A. Clarke
Robert Thornton	Mr. Geo. E. Stewart
Tom Larcom	Mr. Chas. N. Clarke
Stub	Mr. J. J. Cosgrove
Nat Harlow	Mr. John Hartnett
Murdock	Mr. E. H. Merrill
Capt. Bragg	Mr. J. I. Thomas
Hanks	Miss Pearl Dean
Jessie	Miss Mabel Riddell
Kittie Corum	Mrs. J. E. Dean
Mrs. Charity Goodall	Miss E. J. Fisher

SYNOPSIS.

ACT I—The husking bee. A good old-fashioned time. The hunter's return. Seeking his fortune. John Maynard's story. The serpent. Capt. Bragg's Sunday dinner. An old-fashioned dance.

ACT II—The courting bee. You've got the sack; you've got the mitten. No letter. I'll go down in de mornin'. Thornton tells the story of Harry's downfall. I love you. Charity Goodall. Past redemption.

ACT III—The serpent's den. The doctored goods. Harry Maynard, the drunkard. Stub, the black elueth. Will you have my pocket flask. Charity's quest. Saved. In the sweet bye and bye.

ACT IV—Thanksgiving at the old home. Time breaks up households. Tom, Kitty and the baby. He's just like his pa. John's picture gallery of old memories. Charity's story. Faces in the fire. Jessie. My daughter. Harry's return. Redeemed by love. 'Tis Thornton. My name is Wm. Bragg; it's a lie. My father. I am down, let me die in peace. Take my—stop, forgive us we hope to be forgiven. In the sweet bye and bye.

A Compliment From Boston.

H. M. Drew, a traveling salesman for the mercantile house of the Wm. F. Mayo & Co. of Boston, was in the city recently taking an order from A. M. Williams & Co., when he suggested to Manager Williams that they step out and get a cigar. Acting on the impulse, they walked over to Geo. Ruch's grocery and called for his best cigar. Mr. Ruch at once set out a box of the Regulator brand, made in this city by O. A. Peterson. The cigars were lighted and they were returning to Mr. Williams' store, when the drummer remarked "That is the best cigar I have smoked for a long time, I will have to lay in a supply of them." He at once returned to Mr. Ruch's and bought a box for his own use, and was somewhat surprised on being informed that they were made here in town.

Many of our people seem to think that because a cigar is made at home it cannot be of as good quality as if it were shipped in from abroad. The inconsistency of this notion becomes apparent when you stop to consider that it is just as easy to ship in fine leaf tobacco as it is to ship in fine cigars, and considerably cheaper, for the freight is less. This Boston traveller, who has a chance to sample all kinds of cigars and who had no foolish prejudice to bias his decision, at once pronounced the Regulator to be an exceptionally fine cigar.

Unveiling Ceremonies.

The event of yesterday was the unveiling ceremonies of the Woodmen at Sunset cemetery. The monument was one erected to the memory of Thos. N. Joles. It was erected about a year ago, but the unveiling ceremonies were postponed owing to the absence of Mrs. Isaac Joles.

The procession formed at the corner of Second and Court streets. It was headed by The Dalles band and immediately followed by the Woodmen on foot, to the number of 98. In the procession were a delegation of 15 from Dufur, also Mr. O. D. Sturgees of Goldendale. The Woodmen Circle, the ladies auxiliary of the order, followed in carriages. Then came many citizens. Probably 1000 people altogether were gathered at the cemetery to witness the ceremonies. These were under the direction of Consul Gibbons, Advisor Mann, Banker Phillips, Clerk Fillion and Neighbor C. H. Brown. The opening song was "Nearer My God to Thee." Dr. Doane read the poem "Oh, Why Should the Spirit of Mortal Be Proud." Two beautiful hymns were sung by mixed voices. The oration by Mr. John Micnell was masterly. He extolled the virtues and sterling qualities of the deceased in a fitting manner, and dwelt upon the benefits of the order of which the deceased was an honored member.

The principal floral piece was an emblematic wreath presented by the Circle, which was laid at the foot of the monument during the impressive ceremonies. There were many handsome bouquets also offered, as tributes to the memory of the deceased.

H. H. Joles, wife and two daughters of Geneseo, Ill., and Chas. N. Joles of Tacoma, were present at the unveiling ceremonies.

The Coming Man.

The coming woman can don masculine continuations, tie her four-in-hand around her stand-up collar, pull down her vest, straighten her hat and sail in to take the business responsibilities from the weary shoulders of her henpecked "hubby" just as soon as she pleases, for it was fully demonstrated last Saturday evening at the basket social, held in the hall of The Dalles Lodge No. 2, I. O. G. T., that the rising generation of young men are fully capable of caring for the culinary department of the household. In fact, the lunches brought by the boys when compared with those which the girls prepared two or three weeks ago—well, we won't compare them, the girls might get offended—but they were works of art, every one. A splendid time was had by all concerned.

VISITOR.

Clothes for Slim Men.

Perhaps you're hard to fit. You're clothing man says you're too small, too slim, too long or too lean—the difficulty is not with you, but with his clothes. We can fit you with our special sizes and make the prices satisfactory too.

This Label on a Garment Insures Perfect Fit and Satisfaction. It stands for the best that Money Can Buy or Skill Produce.

H. S. & M.