

RED LETTER WASH GOODS SALE

PEOPLE are inclined to be rather lazy in hot weather, but it is different with us. The warm weather is raising the water on us very fast, and we are putting the knife on prices without reserve so as to reduce our stock.

Keep Your Eye on Us.

You shall meet with something new every day.

CHALLIES	3 1-2c per yard
LISBON LAWNS	3 1-2c "
DEFENDER BATISTE	4 1-2c "
OUTING FLANNEL	4 1-2c "
DRESS GINGHAM	5 1-2c "
KILDARE LAWNS	6 1-2c "
LEITRIM LAWNS	6 1-2c "
Assorted lot of Wool Challies and Organdies, 7c "

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

PEASE & MAYS.

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON
OFFICIAL PAPER OF WASCOS COUNTY.

Published in two parts, on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
BY MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, IN ADVANCE.
One year $1.50
Six months75
Three months50
Advertising rates reasonable, and made known on application.
Address all communications to "THE CHRONICLE," The Dalles, Oregon.

The Daily and Weekly Chronicle may be found on sale at I. C. Nickelsen's store. Telephone No. 1.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Saturday's Daily.

Mr. Ernest V. Jensen took out his final papers of citizenship today.

Seventeen militiamen of Co. C, Pendleton, were court martialed, and fined for non-attendance at drills.

Mr. J. W. Jenkins left today for the Christian missionary convention, which meets at Turner, Or., tomorrow.

Phil Brogan, Jr., lost about 150 head of sheep by poisoning at Dry Hollow yesterday. They have been herded there waiting to be ferried across the river.

Mr. Hayward Riddell took a fainting spell today at L. S. Davis' office and Dr. Sutherland was summoned, who restored him to consciousness by a hypodermic injection.

The champion bowling record of 58, which has been held by Victor Schmidt for the past two weeks, was broken this morning when Harry Liebe made a score of 61 points.

Ward, Kerns & Robertson have disposed of their barn and livery business to the Wasco warehouse, and will not be found in person or by telephone at the barn hereafter.

The Regulator will make three trips per week until further notice. Will leave The Dalles at 7 a. m. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and will make through connection.

This afternoon the sale of a strip of land 47 by 100 feet, adjoining lot 2, Baird's addition to Antelope was sold to F. M. Dial for $1,545.33, at administrator's sale. E. Jacobsen is administrator.

An individual named McDonald, a trifle "under the influence" fell from the bridge into the water while trying to avoid the train today. He was rescued by Mr. Will. Moody, and was found to be considerably bruised.

The contractors have kept the water from injuring the locks by hauling and placing stone at the exposed portion. Several carloads have been used in this manner. They were two feet higher with the rock wall than the river yesterday.

The boys who were arrested for cruelty to animals, were dismissed today by Justice Davis. Bert Phelps and Hayward Riddell were attorneys for the prosecution and N. H. Gates for the defense. The case was dismissed on motion of Attorney Riddell for the prosecution.

Since The Dalles will not celebrate, many of our citizens will perhaps go to other fields to commemorate the nation's birthday. Among those places near at home is Moro, where there is to be ball games, dancing, etc. Douglas Allen, the proprietor of the stage line, proposes to leave The Dalles Friday morning, at 5 o'clock. He is prepared to carry as many as sixteen. Round trip, $2.50. For further information inquire of Blakeley & Houghton.

Mrs. Stabling had many visitors last evening to see the "flower of the gods." It was found to be a large, white flower of very delicate appearance and with a strange but pleasant perfume. The flower was as curious as the plant which bore it. This was a cactus plant, an African variety. It had no foliage, but is a rope-like vine, covered with barbs. It will have other flowers at various times throughout the year. The one which opened last evening closed late this morning and is dead. There will be another in a few days judging from the bud. It takes a bud nearly a year to mature. The plant is a very curious one. It resembles a snake in appearance, and the buds look something like a serpent's head. The flowers, however, have a rare and surprising beauty.

Monday's Daily.

The strong current this afternoon in the river tore the little warehouse from its moorings on the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s incline, and it floated off. No effort was made to rescue it.

Rev. Hazel last night finished his long course of sermons from Revelations. His sermon last evening was on "The New Jerusalem," the scripture reading being taken from the last two chapters of Revelations.

Joseph Adams, a son of John Adams, an Indian living on the Silets, was one of the graduates of the Carlisle Indian school, this spring. Mr. Adams has graduated as a full-fledged doctor of medicine, and will practice his profession in the East.

A warrant for the arrest of the Chinaman and husband No. 1 arrived from Portland Saturday and they were taken down. Larceny is charged. It is believed the charge is trumped up and that a scheme is on foot by husband No. 2 to regain possession of the woman by unlawful means.

An old soldier tramped through town this morning, bound for the soldiers home at Kansas City. He was old and feeble, but was neatly dressed, and wore a pair of new, but cheap, shoes. He proposes to walk the entire distance unless invited to ride.

The barn leased by the Wasco warehouse is the Second street barn, and not the one on Fourth street, an impression gathered by our readers from Saturday's CHRONICLE. Messrs. Ward, Kerns and Robertson have not gone out of the livery business. They merely rented their Second street barn for the accommodation of the surplus wool which is received by the Wasco warehouse.

The expected has happened. The rising water of the river has washed out the track in various places between Umatilla and The Dalles and traffic is impeded, if not blocked. The morning passenger was delayed by a washout of three lengths of rail above Seufert's cannery, and did not arrive until 9 a. m. A special construction crew was dispatched to the scene of trouble at 4 o'clock this morning.

Wamic Union Sunday school will celebrate the Fourth of July by having a picnic at the picnic ground one mile and a half west of Wamic. Everybody invited to come. Bring your baskets and have a good time. Liberty car, instrumental music, etc. Committee of arrangements, Henry Driver, Martin Wing, Frank Woodcock, Mr. and Mrs. Gillis, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Magill, Eugene Pratt.

Tuesday's Daily.

The case of the Indian for larceny at Hood River will be tried before Justice Davis in the morning.

Colored lights in harmony with the canopies will be used to light the latter within the new K. of P. hall.

Wasco Tribe, No. 16, I. O. R. M., will hold an important meeting at their wigwam tomorrow evening. All Red Men are requested to be present.

Up to last night there has been shipped from Hood River 12,939 crates of strawberries. These were shipped by the Hood River and the Oregon Fruit Unions.

The old blockhouse at the Cascades is fast disappearing and will soon be only a memory. Capt. Wand took occasion recently to save a relic of it before it is completely destroyed.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church will give a lawn social at the residence of Mrs. E. B. Dufar, Saturday, June 27th. Everybody invited. Ice cream and cake 15 cents.

Royal Ann cherries are beginning to come into market in considerable quantity. Strawberry shipments have not yet ceased. Seventeen crates were received by The Dalles Commission Co. today.

All danger of higher water is now considered past. The maximum height is believed to have been reached, 42.9 feet. The track has been fixed up in first-class shape, and all trains are running on time. Pile driving is being conducted on the Heppner branch, where new bridges are being put in.

Two thousand dollars are awaiting Nevil R. Dague, Ivalis B. Dague, Gracie G. Dague, children of Harry Dague, sometimes known as Frederick N. Dague, who died at the Soldier's Home, at Leavenworth, Kansas. The above named children are supposed to be in Columbia county, Washington.

The new store front of A. M. Williams is very handsome, the scaffolding having been taken down this morning and the first unobstructed view being afforded. The pressed brick front in colors, and varied with blocks of sandstone containing carvings, presents a most attractive store front, entirely different in design than any other in the city.

Mr. McIntosh's horse attached to a buggy ran away this morning, coming down the Union street cut at break-neck speed. The animal made a deflection to the right on reaching Fifth street and crashed through Mr. J. W. Condon's fence, tearing down about twenty feet of it, which the animal threw about the same distance forward. The horse then circled over the flower beds and through the fence again about thirty feet farther down the same line of fence it entered. It then broke loose from the buggy and ran out into the country. Neither Mr. McIntosh nor the buggy was injured.

Money! Money! Money!
To pay Wasco county warrants registered prior to July 3, 1892. Interest ceases after May 15, 1896.
WM. MITCHELL,
County Treas.
my13-1f

Questions the Truth.

In a recent issue of the East Oregonian appeared an item in which two ladies, Mrs. H. C. Lewis and Miss Ray Robbins, asserted that they had been robbed of $168, the proceeds of a lecture they alleged they gave in Baker City. The ladies stated to the East Oregonian as follows: "Their misfortune was caused by some alleged thief who robbed them of $168 cash, which the ladies had as door receipts for a lecture they gave in Baker City. They came from the opera house in the evening with the money in a sack, when some one in the darkness snatched the sack, leaving them almost without funds. They came on to Pendleton, where they expected to give an entertainment similar to that given in Baker City, but here received word that caused them to go on to Portland on the Friday evening train. Efforts to apprehend the thief whom the women allege stole their money at Baker City, were unavailing."

In answer to the statement of the ladies, the Baker City Democrat replies: "The women referred to were in Baker City last week. Mrs. Lewis gave a lecture at the opera house and her subject was: 'A Theory in Tatters.' Her audience was a slim one and the receipts were more likely $1.68 than $168.00. So small, indeed, that Mrs. Lewis very probably borrowed the funds necessary to pay her expenses. How she could have been robbed and no one here being advised of it, is strange."

Examination Papers at St. Mary's.

The examination papers of the classes at St. Mary's academy have been on exhibition since Saturday. A perusal of them well repays the effort, and two or three hours of time may be thus pleasantly spent. The papers are prepared by pupils ranging in age from 7 to 17 years and cover many branches of study. A general peculiarity of them all is the pen or pencil drawings that adorn most of the papers, many of them revealing considerable artistic merit. The compositions are on all sorts of subjects, and are generally illustrated. A composition by Miss Ada Smith, gives, in true repertorial style, an account of the exercises at St. Mary's academy on St. Patrick's day, the 17th of March last. Another one is an account of Hugh Gourlay's lecture in the Baptist church, a very edifying report. May Johnson, a little girl of 7 or 8 years, tells of how she did a washing, picturing the tub, washboard, soap, etc., with marvelous fidelity. Anna Brogan, another little girl, gave the life history of a potato, showing the vine in its natural growth. The art work is most attractive and rivets the attention of the visitor to the last. Miss Lena and Eva Rhea and Miss Effie Wakefield seem to be natural-born artists. The Misses Rhea excel on animal life. The picture of "Pharaoh's Horses" is almost animate. A crayon drawing of a brother is also remarkably life like. Of Miss Wakefield's pen drawings, the salmon is perhaps the best.

There are also papers on musical composition. The best in thorough bass are by Misses Ada Smith and Katie Brogan who are each marked 100 per cent.

Numerous oil paintings are shown, which have been executed by the pupils. The cactus, by a girl of 14 years, is worthy of a master. Instructions in fancy work is also shown by the display of artificial flowers, crocheting and fancy sewing which numerously abound. The morning glories are very naturally done, as are also the bouquets of roses in vases.

An Englishman's View.

A well-known Englishman writes to a friend in this country: "Your entire financial difficulty is in this: You cannot maintain a sufficient balance of exports over imports to pay the three hundred million dollars which you require to meet: first, the interest on your foreign loans; second, the enormous expenditure of your tourists and residents in Europe; third the freights you pay to British ships. This is a difficulty not at all confined to your community; it is today the case of all debtor communities."

New K. of P. Hall Fixed Up.

The workmen have finished the interior of K. of P. hall and work commenced this morning on the furnishings. The Lodge have expended over $1,000 for furniture and hangings and their equipment is elegant and complete. The presiding officer's chair is a beautiful specimen of workmanship in carved oak, of which the other official chairs, though smaller, are prototypes. The altars or stations are of polished oak, antique finish. There are a host of chairs for members, all alike, but of handsome and uncommon design, high-backed and strongly made. The canopies are of French cashmere, of varied colors, and are simply beautiful. A Hardman piano, from the Jacobsen Book & Music Co., was placed in the hall this morning.

Crime of an Indian.

An Indian stole $25 from Mr. W. N. West, the butcher at Hood River, yesterday morning. Mr. West laid his money sack, a leather one, containing $25 in gold on his meat block. He forgot it for a few moments and left the shop, when it was taken by the Indian. The swash went immediately to camp, where he was followed by Officer Olinger. The sack was found on his person, as well as the money which was tied in the corner of a handkerchief. He was very much ashamed of himself upon being apprehended. Indians seldom steal and the temptation in his case must have been great. If he had been a practiced villain he would have thrown away the purse. Mr. Olinger brought him to The Dalles on the local yesterday, and he was tried this morning before Justice Davis.

The Price on Farm Wagons Has Dropped;

That is, the price on some wagons has fallen below our price on "OLD HICKORY" Wagons. Why? Because no other wagon on the market will sell alongside of the "OLD HICKORY" at the same price. It is the best ironed, best painted and lightest running, and we guarantee every bit of material in it to be strictly first-class. If you want the CHEAPEST wagon on the market, we haven't got it; but we have got the BEST, and solicit comparison.

MAYS & CROWE, The Dalles, Or.