For big melons, big squashes, fat ducks, dressed or undressed chickens, call on "Dad" Butts. No. 1 was several hours late this morning, caused by some hot boxes and a delay on the Short Line. The Regulator shipped 800 head of sheep yesterday from Lyle to the 'Cascades, sold to D. P. Ketchum. Mr. Fred Bronson has fitted up a platform at Lyle to weigh wheat upon, the scales arriving there yesterday. As we go to press we learn by telegram to Mr. M. A. Moody that General Geo. H. Williams will speak at the Vogt opera house Saturday night next. The cape uniforms, Zouave costumes and gun torches arrived this morning from New York. They will probably see their first service Friday night.

The Endersby McKinley Club will meet at the lower 8-Mile schoolhouse Monday evening, Oct. 12th, at 7:30 p. m. There will be one or more speakers present to address the club. Everyone who will vote for McKinley and Hobart is requested to be present.

As the evenings grow longer and are more unpleasant, attention is again turned to the club rooms, where last night a number of ladies and gentlemen enjoyed the different sports afforded. We expect soon to chronicle some record-breaking bowling scores.

Mr. A. S. Mac Allister returned last evening from the locks. A new dredger is being built to supply the place of the Enterprise, which could not do the work. Eight courses of stone are yet to lay on the north side. An old scow is being fitted up to use in connection. The work is being pushed with all possible speed.

The rehearsals of Howell's farce, "The Garroters," are progressing rapidly under the charge of Miss Grubbs. It will certainly be the opportunity of a lifetime for the ladies of The Dalles to witness this laughable production. Tomorrow we will print the cast of characters, which will be somewhat of a mystery to unravel.

Marshal Lauer appointed Mr. Cameron to run in the cows, and up to 11 o'clock today he had impounded fourteen. He got into altercations with several owners and the day herder, but skillfully ayorded trouble, at the same time chasing in cows. North was bound over to the grand jury under $250 bonds before Justice Filloon yesterday for indecent exposure. The witnesses were four little girls. A silly grin overspread the face of the defendant most of the time during the trial, and it is believed by some his mind is affected. Spectators were sensibly excluded from the court room while the trial was in progress.

Election notices were printed at THE CHRONICLE office this morning, informing the public that there will be a big election on Nov. 3d; that a president and vice-president of the United States will then be elected, and that the polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Most of us have "hearn" that such an event is to occur, but the requirements of the law must be complied with.

The Dalles is shamefully neglected in the matter of Republican speakers. There is not a Republican political address booked at the present time in The Dalles for the remainder of the campaign. The rest of the state is being carefully looked after by such prominent speakers as Hon. W. R. Ellis, T. Mr. J. B. Goit returned last evening from Portland. He attended the recent fire there, and says the firemen made a very poor fight. He got up and dressed upon hearing the alarm, and then got there several minutes in advance of any of the firemen. He says it was 25 minutes after the alarm before a stream of water was directed toward the blaze.

At the home of Will Michelbach last night a farewell party was given to Leo Newman, who leaves today for Portland. The Michelbach home is large and well adapted as a place for entertaining, as was proven last night, for the boys and girls all report one of the best times they have ever had. They played games, danced, etc., and did justice to a fine lunch as well. At some time during the "early" hours they bade Leo good bye, and might have been seen wending their way over Mill creek somewhat more slowly than when they

Indian Love That Survives Youth.

An aged Indian couple is reported near the city trying to maintain life as best they may. They are said to be about 80 years old each. Contrary to all traditional Indian customs, the husband, who can speak good English, cares very tenderly for his aged wife. Indians usually regard their wives, when they become old, as cumbersome cattle, and their portion is neglect, sometimes abuse, which makes them an easy prey to death. The old couple spoken of do not follow the policy of their race, but are very regardful of the welfare of the other. They are having a hard time to make a live of it, but if the storms and exposures of the coming winter prove too severe for one of them, the survivor they go together, it will be with a mutual look of love into each other's eyes There will be no meeting of the Mc- as the film that death bequeaths grows

Mr. Weatherford is not what might be termed a ready speaker. He halted and stumbled, and sputtered and ranted, while following the usual lines of the new and populistic doctrine of the Democratic party, until the more intelligent part of the audience assembled were sorry for his sake they were present to witness his discomfiture. Weatherford should never enter a joint debate. There were a dozen men present last evening, who had they been allowed ten minutes. would have strewn Mr. Weatherford's so far as his often obscure meaning could be figured out. He upheld the right of American citizens to criticize the supreme court; reiterated the longgovernment has no right to interfere with the rights of a state when that state is under the rule of a mob; and re-declared that international agreement for bimetallism is not to be desired nor sought. But all of these arguments are already familiar. The only mistake made by the Democratic campaign committee was in sending out such a poor declaimer as Weatherford, when there are bundreds of bright boys and girls in the land who can repeat the speech with all the arts and graces of the elecutionist, without the frequent repetitions, and without the awful and glaring errors both of rhetoric and grammar, which Mr. Weatherford inflicts upon a helpless audience.

THE CHRONICLE was led into error, in stating that no Republican public speakers had had been arranged for The Dalles, through reading the announcements in the Oregonian, in which The Dalles was in each instance left out. As a matter of fact we have our full share, and through the efforts of the 'ocal campaign committee of Wasco county, the following speakers and dates have been arranged for already:

Gen. Geo. H. Williams of Portland October 10, 7:30 p. m.

Hon. F. X. Schoonmaker, Oct. 20. 7:30 p. m. (Mf. Schoonmaker is one of New Jersey's greatest Republicans and will deliver but three speeches in the state).

Hon. Rufus Mallory and Hon. Binger Hermann have been engaged upon dates to be announced later.

Judge L. R. Webster's itinerary in Wases county is as follows: Tygh, Oct. 8 at 2 p. m.; Wamic 7:30 p. m.; Wapinitia, Oct. 9, 7:30 p. m.; Boyd, Saturday, 7:30 p. m.
