

BRYAN ROWDYISM

Generals Palmer and Buckner Grossly Insulted.

DERIDED BY POPOCRATIC THUGS

General Buckner's Stinging Reply to the Brutal Taunts--Bryan Tours the Badger State.

PARIS, Mo., Oct. 30.—Generals Palmer and Buckner arrived here this morning and were met at the depot by 500 people. As the candidates stood on the rear platform of the car with heads bared some young men pushed up with a big Bryan banner and shoved it under the noses of the generals, at the same time shouting for Bryan. Several efforts of Buckner to speak were interrupted by cries of derision, many in the crowd yelling, "Look at the McKinley Aid Society!"

Strong at this last fling, Buckner pointed at the banner and said: "Let me tell you who and what constitutes the McKinley Aid Society. In 1892, on a sound-money platform, we elected Grover Cleveland and last elections in Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio were disastrous because you, you shouters, with your heresies, drove the party on to failure and contempt. Hold up that banner. There is the emblem of the McKinley Aid Society. Look at it!"

The train pulled out before Palmer could speak.

SPAIN'S CUP IS FULL.

Further Trouble Threatens that Luckless Country.

PORTO RICO, Oct. 30.—The cup of woe will certainly be filled to overflowing if, as some suspect is possible, a spark from Cuban campfires blows Porto Ricoward and proves sufficient to start the flame of insurrection here.

The government, far from failing to realize the situation, knows full well the inflammable nature of the material with which it is dealing, and carries its precautions almost to the verge of exaggeration. If the people tell the truth, however, there is no likelihood of trouble here, at least while the struggle in Cuba goes on. That bitter contest won by the insurgents, their ends gained, there can be no doubt but that there will be an uprising in Porto Rico, but until that time comes the island is not likely to give Spain any trouble other than may be made by contributions to the cause of Cuba through the junta in New York.

Senor Xavri Marani, a dry goods merchant in Ponce, on the opposite side of the island from the city of Porto Rico itself, in an interview, said:

"I do not think there is any danger of an open insurrection against the Spanish on the part of the Porto Ricans. That there are some Cuban sympathizers on the island there can be no doubt and the government is on the lookout for such of them as go to the point of imprudence, shown in the arrests in Aguadilla."

"Whatever degree of feeling might exist among the native Porto Ricans is in a very limited portion of the island. The small population—something like 80,000 in all—would in itself be enough to preclude the probability of any general uprising under present conditions. Even monetary aid, if such exists, which Porto Ricans might be disposed to offer to the insurgents in Cuba, would have to be sent to New York and find its way to its ultimate destination through the American junta."

"But in case Cuba should achieve autonomy, or even independence, what would be the effect on Porto Rico?"

"Ah, that's another matter," he said, with a smile. "Very likely in that case Cubans would want to see Porto Rico free, too, and once sure of their assistance, there is no telling what the natives would do."

THE DANGERS OF KISSING.

A Warning to Sweetheart Against Promiscuous Osculation.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—The secretary of the state health board has a case reported from Columbus, where a man persisted in kissing his sweetheart who is alarmingly ill with diphtheria, by which he also contracted the disease. The secretary therefore wants to interdict all kissing, concerning which he says:

"I am convinced of the difficulty the health board will meet in trying to taboo kissing among sweethearts. Although a most dangerous pastime, there seems to be an inherent tendency to indulge in it, and we have little hope of ever being able to do away with it. I may have to recommend a disinfectant. All that will be necessary will be to rinse the teeth well with it and rub it well on the lips. That would insure against the dangers resulting from osculation.

CRIME OF A MONTANA WOMAN.

Shot at Her Husband and Killed Her Son.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 30.—In an attempt to kill her husband, Mrs. J. W. Allen, of Maryville, shot and almost instantly killed her 12-year-old son. She then fired two more shots at her husband, one bullet fracturing his skull and the other breaking his arm. He will probably die.

For some time the wife and husband have not been getting along well, owing to the quarrelsome disposition of the woman, who is believed to be of unsound mind. Before going to work Allen whipped his son, and this so enraged the mother that she picked up a rifle and began shooting at her husband. The first shot missed him and hit the boy in the left side. The two other shots hit the man.

After the shooting Mrs. Allen threw the gun out of the window and rushed out of the house, crying, "Murder!" "Help!" The boy was still alive when the neighbors arrived. He said: "Mother shot me and I will never forgive her," and then expired. The woman was taken to jail.

Carlisle's Last Speech.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 30.—The last of Carlisle's five speeches in Kentucky was made here this afternoon to a tremendous and enthusiastic audience at the opera house. Mrs. Carlisle joined the secretary here this morning and they will leave for Washington tonight.

Carlisle said today that this visit to Kentucky only confirmed his previously expressed opinion that Bryan will be badly beaten.

Jones Denies It.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Chairman Jones of the Democratic National Committee, was shown the London dispatch today in which he is quoted as having admitted the defeat of Bryan in Illinois.

"I never said Bryan would not carry Illinois," said the senator, what I did say was that Bryan would win without carrying that state. We have not given up the hope of carrying Illinois. On the contrary, we fully expect to carry it.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alternative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

HANNA'S ESTIMATE

Claims 28 States and 311 Electoral Votes.

MISSOURI AND TEXAS DOUBTFUL

Three Other States Probably Safe for McKinley--Bryan Will Get Seventy-Eight Votes.

Republican National Headquarters, Chicago.—The earnest support which the loyal citizens of the United States, irrespective of former political affiliations, have rendered the Republican party and the cause of sound money in the campaign about to end, justifies an expression from those who have been called upon to conduct it. No campaign since the war of the rebellion has presented such grave responsibilities to those entitled to the elective franchise. The dangerous principles enunciated by the Chicago platform, which proposes not only a debasement of the currency, but the destruction of the highest judicial authority of the land, have justified good citizens, irrespective of past party preferences, in uniting to rebuke those who would thus endanger the very foundation of our national organization.

The developments of the closing week of the campaign leave no doubt that the judgment of an overwhelming majority of the people is against the platform and candidate of repudiation and national dishonor. It now remains for the voters to register at the polls their answer to attempts to excite passion, prejudice and selfishness for the benefit of a few who are willing to destroy national honor and endanger national existence for their personal ambitions and individual profit.

I am confident the strength of McKinley and Hobart in the electoral college as a result of next Tuesday's election will not be less than 311 votes. This estimate is made upon figures just received from the chairman of state committees, the result of final polls taken in such a careful manner as to give them the highest credence. These polls indicate that the vote by states will be as follows:

California	9	Nebraska	3
Connecticut	6	North Carolina	11
Delaware	3	North Dakota	3
Illinois	24	Ohio	23
Indiana	15	Oregon	4
Iowa	13	Pennsylvania	32
Kentucky	13	Rhode Island	4
Maine	6	South Dakota	4
Maryland	6	Tennessee	12
Massachusetts	15	Vermont	4
Michigan	14	West Virginia	6
Minnesota	9	Wisconsin	12
New Hampshire	4	Wyoming	3
New Jersey	10
New York	36	Total	311

For Bryan:

Alabama	11	Montana	3
Arkansas	8	Nevada	3
Colorado	4	South Carolina	4
Florida	4	Utah	3
Georgia	13	Idaho	3
Louisiana	8
Mississippi	9	Total	78

Probably safe for McKinley:

Kansas	10	Washington	4
Virginia	12
Total	26

Doubtful:

Missouri	17	Texas	15
Total	32

Good citizens in every section and of every party have united in publicly expressing themselves upon this subject. Their duty now is to do so in such a manner as will forever put to an end further attempts in this line. There is but one way of doing this, and that is at the polls. While each man has his special field in the preliminary work of the campaign, the duty of election day is common to all. No man, however much he has done in influencing others, can neglect his personal duty at the polls, and no citizen, however humble or devoted to employment or business, should fail to exercise his privilege and duty on election day.

It is not merely a privilege, but a duty. And, while it is the duty of every good citizen to express his will at the polls on all occasions, that duty was never more serious or important than now. Sound arguments and expressions of loyalty count for nothing unless those who offer them or are convinced by them exercise that universal privilege of participating in the actual direction of the government by voting on election day.

It is hoped, therefore, that all good citizens will join hands on Tuesday in maintaining the honor of the nation by registering their ballots in favor of that candidate who has been honored by the support of loyal men of all parties—William McKinley.

The issue is between two men and two platforms, the one representing national honor, good government, sound money and sound principle; the other standing for doctrines dangerous to the peace and prosperity of the nation, and promising only a system, which must debase the currency, destroy business and employment. It is, as has been recently said by Major McKinley himself, "a time when the voice of the partisan is hushed in the chorus of patriotism which sounds from one end of the country to the other."

Let every loyal citizen take this thought to the polls with him on election day, and the country will be saved from the danger which confronts it, and saved by that same loyal devotion which obliterated party lines in defense of the nation on the occasion of equal but not greater peril. M. A. HANNA.

A Phenomenal Rainfall.

The most phenomenal rainfall recorded in the annals of Ohio took place on the 12th day of August, 1861. Mr. S. B. McMillan, who gives an account of this remarkable downpour, says that it extended over an area of at least 100 square miles. The total amount of water which fell during the 11 hours of precipitation was 8 1/2 inches, and of that quantity 4 1/2 inches fell in 4 1/2 hours. What is meant by a fall of 8 1/2 inches of rain is so short a space of time will be better understood when the reader is informed that one inch of rain means 22,000 gallons to the acre. This immense quantity of water will weigh 220,000 pounds, or 100 tons!

Vice Regal Invitations.

An invitation from the lord lieutenant in Ireland is supposed to be, like one from the queen whom he represents, a command. Irish society, however, does not always treat it as such, but according to convenience, either honors it in the breach or the observance. A "society" person may throw over a previous engagement in favor of a vice regal invitation without being considered to have committed a breach of manners. He may also refuse the vice regal invitation if so minded. Irish society is not servile on this point, but exercises common sense and the liberty of choice in the matter of amusing itself.

Origin of Billiards.

The origin of billiards is obscure, but the best authorities on the subject declare that the game was brought from the east by the Crusaders. It was certainly played by the early Knights Templar and the Knights of Malta, and in medieval times was exceedingly popular among the monks in the monasteries of France and Italy.

Blessing the Fish.

Thousands of spectators witnessed the unique spectacle of the annual blessing of the fisheries, which took place at Folkestone, England, recently. A procession, consisting of surplised choirs and clergy, with cross and banners, left St. Peter's church, and after it had made a detour of the fishing quarter of the town chanting the litany a position was taken up overlooking the sea. The vicar of the parish gave an appropriate address, and prayers were offered asking a Divine blessing on the fisherman's calling.

ELECTION NOTES

Both Parties Still Confident of Success.

THE SITUATION IN CALIFORNIA

Reed at Oakland Today--Will Pass Through Portland on his Way Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—The close of the campaign in California finds the Democrats confident of carrying the state, and Republicans also claiming California. Frank McLaughlin, chairman of the Republican state central committee, claims 10,000 majority for McKinley, while Chairman Alford, for Democrats, claims 30,000 majority for Bryan. Many Republicans concede the state to Bryan by a small majority.

It is believed San Francisco will reverse her majority for the Democrats of two years ago of 11,000, and give McKinley a small majority. The Republicans claim 5000 majority in this city, while the Democrats make a similar claim for Bryan. Conservative Democrats and silverites claim the state for Bryan by smaller majorities than the Democratic state committee officers.

W. P. Lawlor, of the silver state committee, says Bryan will undoubtedly carry California, but says his majority is problematical. Gavin McNab predicts that Bryan will have at least 10,000 majority in the state outside of San Francisco. The Democrats claim all the congressmen except in the Fifth district, where it is admitted that the Republicans have a chance. The Republicans claim all the congressmen except Maguire in the Fourth. The Democratic state central committee is positive Devries will defeat Grove Johnson in the Fourth district.

REED AT SAN FRANCISCO.

Will Leave for Home via Portland on Wednesday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Hon. Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, in company with Claus Spreckels, John D. Spreckels, A. C. Spreckels, Miss Kitty Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich, drove through Golden Gate Park and to the Cliff house, where they had breakfast, yesterday, within sight of the Pacific ocean. The party was met by Mayor Sutro, who showed them all there was to be seen in the vicinity. During the drive they inspected the Presidio military reservation and fortifications on this side of the bay and the pavilion and different parts of the park.

Today Mr. Reed will remain at the Palace hotel until noon, when he will go to Oakland and speak there. He will return to the hotel in the evening. Tomorrow he will spend the day driving about the city.

Wednesday the party will start for San Jose and the Lick observatory, and spend several days quietly at the Hotel Del Monte. Returning here Saturday, the homeward journey will be begun by way of Portland, Seattle and the Canadian Pacific, the plan being to reach Portland, Me., on the 17th or 18th of this month.

QUIET DAY AT CANTON.

No Organized Delegations Called Upon the Nominee.

CANTON, Nov. 2.—No organized delegations have reached Canton thus far today, but callers as individuals have been going to and coming from the McKinley house all day. Shaking hands has been the major's occupation during the day. Colonel A. L. Conger and Judge U. L. Marvin of Ohio, came in with an informal party of about a score of ladies from Akron. An informal party from Massillon also called. Mrs. McKinley continues to improve, and has nearly recovered from the illness which confined her to her room nearly all of last week. Mr. McKinley looks the picture of health. Canton clubs have arranged for a parade tonight.

Canton troops of horsemen, who escorted all the visiting delegations to the McKinley house, were photographed in a group with Major McKinley this morning, and a number of such groups are being arranged.

THE FLOODS IN FRANCE.

Rivers Rhone and Seine Rising With Disastrous Effect.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Telegrams received from the departments bear news of further floods and of alarming rise in the rivers. Enormous damage to property has been done, but no fatality has yet been reported. The river Seine is still rising, and is at the flood stage. The authorities have despatched to Compe and to Vallabregades, the artillery wagons from Nimes, to assist in the work of relief. The river Rhone has burst its banks at Lauson, which is now isolated. The only communication through considerable districts is by boats. Troops have left Avignon to assist in repairing the broken banks of the Rhone.

Later advices state that the Seine has fallen slightly tonight, but the further rise is feared. The news received from Lyons this evening is most disquieting. Many houses are flooded at Neuville-sur-Saone, and the river is covered with furniture. The barracks at St. Lambert is surrounded by soldiers and prisoners. Half this district is inundated, and numerous factories in Lyons and vicinity are closed.

RIISING WHEAT MARKETS.

Grain in New York Advanced Steadily During the Day.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—From start to finish today the wheat market gave a surprising exhibition of strength, considering the fact that tomorrow is a holiday. Opening 1/8c higher at 80 1/2c for December, it kept on rising until it reached 81 1/2c, where it closed. Speculation was most active in the last hour, and the total sales for the day only reached 3,150,000 bushels. It was a case of bull sentiment, reinforced by strong foreign news and European buying, especially on the Pacific coast, where further export orders were reported. Siverpool stocks showed a falling off for the month, world's shipments were estimated at nearly 1,000,000 bushels less than last week, and there was a reduction of 640,000 bushels on passage. The American visible supply increased only half as much as expected.

A Pioneer in Oregon.

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 2.—Peter Weiss died at his home on the west side of the Willamette, south of the Tualatin, last night, in his 78th year, of a stroke of paralysis. He was a pioneer in this county, having taken the claim in 1895, where he spent the remainder of his life. He was an unmarried man. The elevation known as Pete's mountain, near the junction of the Willamette and Tualatin rivers, is on the Weiss claim and was named from the old man's given name. His only known relative is a brother, Francois, whose home is in Wisconsin, and who is now on his way here. The deceased left an estate of considerable value.

Snow in South Dakota.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—A special from Huron says five inches of snow fell there last night, making a foot now on the ground. The storm in the north and west is reported as severe. Farmers are wholly unprepared for winter. Telegraph poles and wires are down between here and Pierre. No communication with that city has been had by wire since Thursday evening.
