

McKINLEY HAS WON IT

The Middle West Solid for Him.

THE COMPETITOR TRIAL AGAIN

California Probably Safe for McKinley and Oregon Sure of Four-Thousand and Majority for Him.

Michigan.

DETROIT, Nov. 3.—At midnight it was generally conceded that Michigan has gone Republican by 25,000 to 50,000 plurality. The latter is the figure given out at that hour by Chairman Ferry, of the republican state committee. Chairman Baker, of the fusion committee, declines at this hour to make any statement. Secretary Alward, of the republican committee, claims the election of all 12 congressmen, but the democrats still hope to save some of their candidates. The Tribune (free silver), on the basis of the scattering returns thus far received, estimates McKinley's plurality in the state, outside of this county, at 29,000.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—If McKinley keeps up the average shown in precincts already counted in California, there is no doubt he will carry the state by a comfortable majority. The Republican state central committee claims he will have 30,000 the best of it, and six Republican congressmen out of seven have been elected.

In Eastern Oregon.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 4.—Eastern Washington, according to latest estimates, will give Bryan 7,000 majority, and the state ticket nearly the same. Rogers, People's party candidate for governor, is not behind the ticket, and the congressional candidates, Lewis and Jones, are nearly even with Bryan.

May Require Official Count.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The Associated Press received the following from Joseph M. Carey, from Cheyenne: "Wyoming is in great doubt; I think McKinley will have a small majority. It may require the official count to decide who is elected."

Bryan's Clean Sweep.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—Election returns are coming in slowly, but the indications are that the democrats have made a clean sweep, electing the congressional delegation, and that Bryan has carried the state by not less than 30,000 majority.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 3.—Mississippi gives Bryan a majority of 50,000. The vote for Watson will not exceed 10,000. The seven democratic candidates for congress are elected by majorities ranging from 1000 to 5000.

Democratic Claims in Illinois.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—At 9:30 the chairman of the Democratic committee had received no reports from the county chairmen. Press reports indicated a majority of 50,000 for McKinley in Cook county, and this was generally conceded by the committee.

No reports on which even an estimate of the state, outside of Cook could be made had been received, but the committee still claims 35,000 for Bryan. The vote by precincts runs 10 per cent below the registration. This bears out the report that the returns so far received are only on straight Democratic and Republican tickets, omitting the People's Party, which the committee counts on for 25,000 votes.

Altgeld, in sixty precincts, has run 3000 ahead of Bryan, and on this basis the committee claims his election, even though Bryan should lose the state by 20,000. Secretary Nelson says he will concede nothing until he has received a report from his own chairmen, and these are not expected before midnight.

LEE'S PROTEST HEADED.

Proceedings in the Competitor Trial Temporary Suspended.

HAVANA, Nov. 3.—Owing to a notice of protest from Consul General Lee, taking exception to the new court martial of the Competitor's crew, begun in Fort Cabana recently, the proceedings in the case have been temporarily suspended. A summons has, however, been published in the local papers requiring various witnesses to appear and file written evidence against the prisoners.

One member of the expedition, George Ferran, who after landing surrendered to the British authorities and was pardoned under General Weyler's amnesty decree, has just been arrested to await the trial as a witness.

James Brown, a British subject, and prominent in Havana business circles, has been imprisoned upon a political charge.

The report that Antonio Maceo crossed the military line after attacking Artimesa and being repulsed with great loss, according to the official account is again denied. It is stated that the insurgents on that occasion acted without union, disobeyed orders, made no attack upon the forts and were unable to capture the Spanish occupants. Maceo, the day after bombarding Artimesa, in conversation with a member of a firm near his forces, sustained and admitted that it was no easy matter to cross the military line. Spanish forces are slowly occupying positions Maceo may have intended to use, and he is said to be resting in order to care for the wounded.

There are two versions as to the whereabouts of Maceo. One has it that Maceo and Ruba are in the mountains on the limits of Cabanass and Cayajabo, which constitute part of Sierra de Rosa Rio. Another report says he is in the range of mountains of the Sierra, south of San Cristobal.

The Spanish troops are continuing to advance westward toward the insurgent strongholds, without receiving any assistance from the troops stationed along the military line which are being still farther strengthened.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alternative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

This Near the Final Figure.

Practically complete returns from all counties of Oregon, except five, give McKinley a plurality of 3158.

No returns have been received from Crook, Curry, Lake, Grant and Harney counties. Crook county will undoubtedly show a majority of 100 for McKinley, while Harney, Grant and Curry combined will probably give Bryan a majority of 300, which will leave McKinley's plurality in the state about 3000.

Clackamas has run her plurality for McKinley up to 290, Clatsop will give more than 700, Marion still stands at about 400, Morrow is good for 61, and Washington for 500.

Polk, Douglas and Josephine are for Bryan by small pluralities, and Union, Jackson and Linn give him large pluralities.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alternative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

Notice to Teachers.

Notice is hereby given that for the purpose of making an examination for all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the schools of this county, the board of examiners thereof will hold a public examination at The Dalles, beginning Wednesday, November 11th, 1896, at 1 o'clock p. m. Dated the 2nd day of Nov. 1896. C. L. GILBERT, Superintendent

Robbed of $1000.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 3.—This morning about 10 o'clock A. H. Kroschel, of the firm of Kroschel Bros., grocers of this city, started to walk to the farm of his father, three miles west of Albany in Benton county. He was held up on the way by two highwaymen and robbed of $1000. Kroschel came to this city and gave the alarm. A posse started in pursuit, but there is no trace of the robbers.

THE FINAL RESULTS

Are About Settled--Kentucky Still in Doubt.

McKINLEY IS CERTAIN OF 265

John Sherman, Bourke Cockran and Others Comment on Results of the Election.

Result in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 4.—The situation in Kentucky is materially changed by the receipt of late and complete returns from out in the state, which indicate the result is in doubt, with a slight chance in favor of a Democratic victory. At Republican headquarters, it is still claimed the state has gone for McKinley, and Chairman Roberts' latest estimate is a majority of 2,000. Tonight, the state is claimed by the Republicans, but say that the state has gone in their favor by a safe majority. They charge that the reports have been delayed purposely, and that the late returns show beyond all doubt that the state has gone for Bryan. Tonight, the streets are crowded with silverites, who are yelling the name of their candidate.

The following statement was issued at midnight by Chairman Roberts, of the state Republican executive committee: "The Republican state committee claims Kentucky by 1,000. It wired its county chairman today for complete corrected figures by counties, and received returns from all but five counties in the mountain section."

Bourke Cockran's Statement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Bourke Cockran said last night in regard to the result: "This was not a political contest in the ordinary meaning of the term. It was an insurrection against the underlying principles of civilization, and I believe it is without a parallel in the history of the world. I have no opinion to express as to the future of the Democratic party. It has no future which it can determine for itself. This election, in my opinion, was not an explanation of the people as to what should be done during the next four years, but as to what should not be done. I do not regard it as a verdict in favor of any specific policy. It was a verdict against debasement of the currency, against the destruction of the supreme court as an independent tribunal, and against the nullification or abridgement of the president's power to enforce the law. In fine, it was a verdict that the fundamental conditions of civilized society should not be disturbed in this country."

"The final outcome of yesterday's election no man can now predict, except to say that the political issues of the future depend entirely upon the character of Mr. McKinley's administration."

John Sherman's Views.

MANSFIELD, O., Nov. 5.—John Sherman gave out the following signed statement: "I sincerely hope that the election will settle forever a question that in my opinion threatened the honor and good faith of the United States more than any other since the close of the civil war. Confidently assuming as I do the election of McKinley, I hope the present gold standard will be maintained, with the largest use of silver that can be maintained at a parity with gold. This settled, we ought promptly to make such changes in our tariff and revenue laws as will yield a sufficient supply of money to meet current expenses of the government and create a sufficient surplus to pay outstanding bonds within a few years, and to sufficiently and impartially protect American industries."

How Bryan Took Defeat.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 5.—"The fight has just commenced." Thus spoke William J. Bryan tonight when asked if he considered the result the election had been a serious blow to the cause of bimetalism. He had just sent a message to Major McKinley, conceding his election and tendering his congratulations.

Mr. Bryan surrendered at 8:20 o'clock. He had just received the signal, and responded within the next 10 minutes with a telegram to his successful rival. This signal was a brief message from Senator Jones, informing him that he did not consider it wise to longer withhold the concession of McKinley's election. This message was received by Mr. Bryan a few minutes after he had returned from an evening stroll, and in the presence of a dozen callers gathered in the parlor and reading-room of their unpretentious home. The receipt of the telegram created no scene whatever, and one unacquainted with the facts would never have suspected from the surface indications the importance of the occasion, or that the chief actor in the drama had more than a passing interest in it. He handed the telegram to Mrs. Bryan, who was standing near him, and, without a word except to explain the purport of the message, sat down at his desk and penned the following telegram: "LINCOLN, Nov. 5.—Hon. William McKinley, jr., Canton: Senator Jones has just informed me that the returns indicate your election, and I hasten to extend my congratulations. We have submitted the issue to the people, and their will is law. "W. J. BRYAN"

This message was first submitted to Mrs. Bryan, and then, after being amended in some slight particulars so as to conform to suggestions made by her, was given to the press.

While writing the message, and after it was completed, Mr. Bryan chatted pleasantly with the newspaper correspondents who surrounded him, indicating by his manner that he felt relieved to have the matter definitely determined, even though the result was against him. He also showed very plainly that Senator Jones' message was no surprise to him, as it indeed was not; for, as those who have been in his confidence knew, he had considered the battle as practically lost ever since the first night after election. He has, however, felt that it would be both courteous and unwise to give out any intimation to this effect until the national committee had spoken.

Thorny Path to Thread.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 5.—In discussing the result of the election, Senator Carter last night said:

"The election of McKinley bids the American people to renew hope in the future. That the newly elected president will justify the expectations of the people, no one can question. It must be understood, however, that his path is liable to beset with difficulties. It is obvious that the senate will be very close on the subject of tariff legislation. The very large vote cast for Bryan, will, I am sure, admonish those in the minority of the necessity for prompt and vigorous efforts in the direction of securing results on the coinage question in accordance with the platform."
