THE DALLES, OREGON

On the Death of W. Cederson.

THE DALLES, Nov. 16, 1896.
The following resolutions were adopted by Friendship Lodge at their last regular convention:

WHEREAS Bro. W. Cederson, a member of this lodge, who was with us but a short time ago, has passed away. As a member of this order he was always friendly, courteous and kind to his brothers, and he received and deserved the confidence, respect and esteem of this lodge. We loved him for his virtues, we mourn his loss, and while memory holds her seat, we will keep his memory green, and in God's good time may we meet again.

Resolved, That our heartfelt sympathy be extended to his relatives and friends in their great affliction. Be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this lodge, that a copy of the same be sent to the relatives of our deceased brother, and published in the local papers, and that our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

Cruelly Abandoned.

Just what imp of the perverse blunts the intelligence of compositors and blinds the eyes of proof readers is past all finding out. Under the head of "Editorial Musings" we yesterday gave to a critical and skeptical world a few lines of poetry. We had arranged the rhyme so that the girl with eyes of blue was to get next to us in good shape, until we could feel her heart thumping the inside of her corset; but alas! it was not to be. A cruel compositor put the girl up next to another fellow, and our eyes were so blinded to the wicked deed that we failed to notice it in the proof. It will be seen from this that we are not next to ourself, and neither is the girl. In fact, there seems to be a vacancy now open for some girl to fill, one with experience enough not to make a mistake and leave us in the lurch again. No other need apply. We are wearing a doubled-sized Menthol plaster on our noble chest just now, but no extra charge will be made on that account. We are willing to throw in a plaster.

Going Into Business.

Mr. Henry A. York was a passenger for Hood River, on the Dalles City this morning. He took with him the stock for a drugstore, which he will open for business this week. He has lived in Hood River valley since boyhood and has a host of friends there. That he will get a good share of the business of that thriving community is, therefore, assured. Although his will be the second drugstore in our neighboring town, the rapid growth of that wonderful region will assure plenty of business. Already the valley contains a population of 2,500, and from the rate of increase in the past year, by the end of 1898 its population will be double that sum. His many friends here wish him abundant success in his new field.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.
