With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxions to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.

We furnish "The Chronicle" and N. Y. Weekly Tribune one year for only $1.75.

THE

FIRST

BATTLE

THE FIRST BATTLE is an interesting story of the great political struggle of 1896, its most important events and the many issues involved; a logical treatise on Bi-metalliam as uttered by mainent exponents, including the part taken by Hon. W. J. Bryan in the silver agitation prior to the Democratic National Convention, and dur-ing the campaign; the best examples of bis won-derful oratory, the most noteworthy incidents of his famous tour, a careful review of the political situation, a discussion of the election returns and the significance thereof, and the future possibilities of Bi-metallism as a political issue.
