THE DALLES, OREGON

PERSONAL MENTION.

Wednesday.

Mr. Gus Bartell is very sick with pneumonia. Mr. E. C. Pease returned from San Francisco today. Mrs. L. E. Crowe is spending a few days in Portland.

Mr. George Noble came in from Wamic yesterday. Miss Daisy Alloway, who is attending the university at Eugene, is visiting at home this week.

Mr. Frank Woodcock is in the city, and tells us that Bryan's book is meeting with large sales. Dr. Lannenberg, who has been at Goldendale for a week, is again home and ready to attend to business.

Hon. Henry Blackman, inspector of Internal revenue, is in the city, coming up from Portland last night. H. Taylor Hill, the genial and ubiquitous gentleman from Prineville, is in the city, on his way home from a visit to relatives in the valley.

H. J. McMannus and wife and H. C. Bradford and wife, the first of the summer tourists, are in the city, and guests of the Umatilla House. Miss Pearl Butler, although slightly better today, is in a very critical condition, it being feared last night that she would not survive till morning.

Warren Brown, a griddy Crook county boy, who has been attending business college at Portland, was in the city last night and left for home this morning. Mr. Henry Heppner, one of Eastern Oregon's pioneers, and founder of the town of Heppner, is in the city. He looks hale and hearty, and as though he might live long enough to see Heppner become a large and prosperous city.

Miss Winnie Chapman of Portland is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lytle. Taylor Hill left for Prineville this morning by private conveyance. Representative Miesner of Crook county arrived in from Mitchell this afternoon.

Miss Grace Graham and Mrs. Wolford, who attended the D. of H. social last night, missed the boat this morning and returned to Hood River on this afternoon's train. Mr. O. D. Sturgis of Goldendale is in the city.

Mr. McDonald, Biggs' popular merchant, is in the city. Hon. W. H. H. Dufur is in the city from the metropolis of 15-Mile. Dr. Lannenberg will leave for Condon tomorrow night, to remain a week.

Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw, returned last night from a visit with relatives in Lafayette. Mrs. Dysart arrived from Centralia at noon today, to attend the funeral of her sister, Pearl Butler. Mr. Dysart accompanied her. Judge Bradshaw leaves for Condon tomorrow to open the spring term of court. He will be away probably a week.

Captain O. W. Hoesford of the steamer Ionic came up on the Regulator last night and returned to Portland on the local this afternoon. Mrs. W. Ketchum went to Portland Wednesday morning, and will return tomorrow, accompanied by Miss Carrie Ketchum, who has spent the winter in that city.

BORN. Near Mosier, Sunday, April 4th, to the wife of J. R. Steel, a son. This is Different. In your valuable paper of last evening an article entitled, "A Reply to White Stars." We must say that the author of that masterly piece should never follow the profession of baseball, but should at once leave for Hawaii to be queen of the chief advisers, or else to Turkey and give the sultan a few pointers. The author of that piece certainly possesses a great mind, but it, like The Dalles coal mines, is undeveloped. His baseball playing is just like his great (grate) mind, unripe.

He says in the first game the White Stars did not "catch on" to the idea that the Champions purposely let them win. No, that is a fact, we did not catch on to the idea, but such a thing as an idea could not materialize from the brains of the Champions, but nevertheless, as we were not playing a game of ideas, it was outside of our line of business to catch on to anything except a base ball, which we managed to catch on to often enough, and at all times in due season, to "goose egg" them six innings and score a record that they cannot overcome with all their new-fangled ideas and ball games in big print.

The White Stars believe that the test of superiority is best established by demonstration in the "Field of action," and we stand ready at any time to back up this proposition by results materialize on the diamond, and we did not organize for the purpose of playing ball or ideas through the columns of a newspaper, although it seems so far that this kind of ball is the one game that the Champs (chumps???) can play to a perfection. WHITE STAR.

These Were Here. Yesterday the names of those attending the Degree of Honor social from Hood River was inadvertently omitted from the article mentioning that affair. We give them below: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. La France, Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Watt, Mr.

and Mrs. J. E. Rand, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crapper, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. W. Strannahan, Mesdames Cradlebaugh, Crowell, Wolford, E. I. Smith, F. Howe, the Misses Sunderland, Misses Anne Smith, Grace Graham, Carrie Shute, Crowell, Edith Lindsay, Messrs. Wm. Crapper, Wm. Yates, Wm. Davidson, Criss Dethman, M. H. Nickelsen, J. R. Nickelsen, Geo. Siocum, Chester Shute.

New York Weekly Tribune. For—Farmer and Villagers, For—Fathers and Mothers, For—Sons and Daughters, For—All the Family.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

We furnish "The Chronicle" and N. Y. Weekly Tribune one year for only $1.75.

HON. W. J. BRYAN'S BOOK. THE FIRST BATTLE is an interesting story of the great political struggle of 1896, its most important events and the many issues involved; a logical treatise on Bi-metalism as uttered by eminent exponents, including the part taken by Hon. W. J. Bryan in the silver agitation prior to the Democratic National Convention, and during the campaign; the best examples of his wonderful oratory, the most noteworthy incidents of his famous tour, a careful review of the political situation, a discussion of the election returns and the significance thereof, and the future possibilities of Bi-metalism as a political issue.

THE FIRST BATTLE. RICHLY and durably bound in English Cloth, plain edges; portrait of the author forming the design on cover; autograph preface; magnificent presentation plate in silver, gold and blue; containing 600 pages and 32 full-page illustrations. $1 75.
