Beautiful Display of Bate.

That The Dalles ladies thoroughly appreciate fine millinery, and know where to find it was shown by the attendance Friday afternoon and evening at the grand Easter opening at Mrs. Briggs' millinery parlors. It was conceded by all that it was the finest display of the kind ever made in the city, and the beautiful and artistic creations called forth many expressions of admiration. The shapes are about the same, but larger, and the trimmings show quite a difference from those of last year. They are much more elaborate, and red leads all other colors, the hats from the East most distinctly showing the difference. The windows were most beautifully decorated, but these were lost on the ladies who went there to see hats, and would not or could not see anything else.
