

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

OFFICIAL PAPER OF WASCOCO COUNTY.

Published in two parts, on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

BY MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, IN ADVANCE.

One year $1.50, Six months .75, Three months .50.

Telephone No. 1.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Wednesday's Daily.

J. B. Crossen has severed his connection with The Dalles bowling alley.

License to marry was issued today to James M. Davidson and Hattie Morris, both of Wamic.

The trial of W. J. Jeffers before Justice Filloon yesterday afternoon resulted in a verdict of acquittal.

A jury was secured in the Bauer case this morning, and the testimony is being taken this afternoon.

Remember the hose teams will give a moonlight excursion in a couple of weeks, and be ready to buy a ticket, when called upon.

The town of Dufur is to have a much larger, or rather stronger, water supply, arrangements having been made for doubling the present pressure.

The trial of Vinz Bauer, indicted for rape, began in the circuit court this morning. Defendant is represented by A. S. Bennett, E. B. Dufur and Sinnott & Sinnott.

The excavation for the McCoy residence on the corner of Fifth and Washington streets is being made. The building will be one of the handsomest in the city, and will be completed by September 1st.

The five young fellows arrested Monday on suspicion of being the persons who took $20 from a stranger in Birgefield's saloon, were discharged last night, no formal complaint having been entered against them.

The O. R. & N. and Southern Pacific cut rates have induced lots of people to travel. Last night's Telegram says between 800 and 1,000 would leave for San Francisco last night.

Since the river has started to fall, and consequently get clearer, the salmon are beginning to run in fine shape and a good season is anticipated.

The cattle ranges of Oregon are being depleted this year, sure. Crook county has furnished several thousand head for the Eastern markets, and the counties along the river have been pretty well cleaned out.

Prof. Swanton gave another of his enjoyable dancing parties last night, which was the last, as the Prof. will leave tomorrow for Newport.

The river is at the 40.7 mark this morning, and falling slowly. The weather bureau reports the Columbia above Pasco, and the Clearwater as having passed their floods, and that they will continue to fall steadily.

The examination of Eppinger and others at Portland was begun before U. S. Commissioner Sladen at Portland yesterday. Gautier, the principal witness, is even of more unsavory character than the famously infamous Nat Blum.

An important and interesting lecture will be given at the Methodist church this evening at 8 o'clock, by H. K. Hines, D. D.

national profit to all interested in the history of our own state, and few, if any, are better qualified to give this subject a more correct and helpful consideration than he.

The Woodmen of Mt. Hood camp and the Women of Woodcraft, of the Circle, this city, are making extensive arrangements to entertain the public next Wednesday night, June 9th.

Hood River may be slow in some things, but it is certainly up-to-date on others. Down that way just now there are a goodly number of pretty Portland girls engaged in picking berries.

The closing recital of Miss Elliot's pupils will probably be held Friday evening, June 11th.

The Lutheran Sunday school held a picnic in the academy grounds this afternoon, and had a very pleasant time.

Fifty cents will buy a pair of these new soft kid lace shoes for infants at Pease & Mays.

The contract for the retaining wall at the site of the new schoolhouse has been let, and work commenced.

Another train load of cattle from Southern Oregon was stopped at the Saltmarsh feed-yards last night, and will go on East tonight.

The ladies of the Catholic church, who managed the ice cream and strawberry sale in the Bunnell building yesterday, report having taken in $65.15.

There was a great big 10-pound boy came to Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Young's this morning, and they were so pleased with the little stranger that they will keep him.

A new and very handsome line of ladies Oxford, in ox-blood, chocolate and black, has just been received at Pease & Mays.

An exhibit of the class work at St. Mary's Academy will be given for a few days, beginning next Saturday.

The river this morning was at 39.8, a fall of a foot in twenty-four hours.

Bishop Morris will hold services in St. Paul's Episcopal church on Sunday next, Whitsunday, administering the Holy Communion in the morning.

The case of the state against Venz Bauer is still on trial, and bids fair to last all day tomorrow.

Wool continues to come in very fast and the warehouses are about filled.

Something new and dainty for infants, Pease & Mays are showing a line of infants shoes in ox-blood and tan, with colored silk tops.

School Superintendent Gilbert is expected home about June 15th. Beginning July 12th he will hold a four-weeks summer school and teachers' institute.

Fern Lodge, Degree of Honor, last night elected officers for the ensuing term as follows: C. of H., Mrs. Gibbons; L. of H., Mrs. Crandall; C. of O., Mrs. Douthitt; Recorder, Mrs. Longmire; Financier, Cora Joles; Receiver, Lizzie Schooling; Usher, Miss Eton; I. W., Mrs. Lauretson; O. W., Mrs. Kreft.

The college boys of Lawrence, Kan., played a good joke on Governor Leedy soon after his inauguration. They got up a travesty on the circus in order to raise money for a local church, and invited the governor to grace the entertainment with his presence.

ty at the great expense of Mr. E. N. Morrill of Hiawatha, whom he has tamed effectually. This is a rare and handsome specimen, and the only governor of Kansas now in captivity.

Yesterday evening Mr. and Mrs. German Sequi came in from their home on Mill creek for the purpose of placing their 3-months-old baby, that was very sick, under a doctor's care.

Extras for standard mowers and rakes at J. H. Filloon's.

One carload of horses was sent to Portland last night.

For the old reliable McCormick reapers and mowers go to J. H. Filloon.

Judge Bradshaw discharged the jury this morning, all the business of the court requiring their attention being completed.

B. N. Snover's barn was burned last Saturday afternoon. Also a buggy, single harness and some other articles that were in the barn.

The Goldenstate Sentinel says: A large crowd of people had come to town on Decoration day to attend the exercises and see the balloon ascension.

The ladies' medal at the Commercial Club was won yesterday by Miss Nona Ruch. It was a tie between herself and Miss Myrtle Michell.

Frank Kelly was arrested yesterday, charged with stealing a pair of shoes out of a buggy. He was tried before Justice Filloon yesterday afternoon.

The case of the State against Venz Bauer was given to the jury last night, and on the second ballot a verdict of not guilty was reached.

The fourth annual assembly of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua will open June 13th, with the most brilliant program in its history.

The week ending last Saturday was the busiest one Arlington has seen since the completion of the Heppner branch. Every day vast herds of cattle and sheep were driven through the streets to the yards.

George Sage, grand nephew of Russell Sage and son of Elzsur Sage, died in the poorhouse in Will county, Illinois, May 27th.

George Sage had been suffering from consumption for two years, and two months ago was taken to the poorfarm. Application was at that time made to Russell Sage to assist him.

A great find of ancient papyri in Egypt has been made by Greenfield and Hunt, who are working in behalf of the Egyptian exploration fund.

A great find of ancient papyri in Egypt has been made by Greenfield and Hunt, who are working in behalf of the Egyptian exploration fund.

BOGGS GETS HIS SENTENCE.

Three Years and a Grass Widow--The Italian Drew the Line.

Sheriff Driver went below this morning, taking Lewis Boggs to the penitentiary, where he has three years to serve.

He expresses a determination to earn as many credits as possible, and so shorten his sentence, and insists that as soon as he is free he will marry the widow of his choice.

Other minds cannot contemplate future conditions with the same complacency, the same hope, simply because they look upon the small side of things.

The conference was called to order as usual and the reports from pastors and examination of candidates occupied part of the session.

The Thursday afternoon session opened with praise service, led by Rev. Samuel Hornbrook, Sr.

An adjourned session was called for 7 p. m. to complete the conference business.

The district conference closed its work at the evening session with closing remarks by Bishop Cranston.

The league convention opened Friday morning at 8:30, with Rev. Robt Warner in the chair.

The district conference of the Methodist church convened Tuesday night in this city.

This morning's session was opened with devotional service led by Rev. J. W. Helm.

At 9 o'clock the presiding elder, Rev. Robt. Warner, took the chair, and the conference proceeded to organize.

Revs. F. R. Spaulding, returned missionary from South America, J. W. Fleisher of Denver, Colo., and W. C. Curtis, pastor of the Congregational church of this city, were introduced.

The session was occupied with arrangement of work of committees and reports from the pastors of the charges.

Rev. J. H. Wood spoke at length of the necessity of planning for some systematic means by which the care of our veterans can be had.

The theme, "The Bible and Its Critics," in a clear, comprehensive and rich paper, was read by its author, Rev. N. Evans.

Dr. A. N. Fisher, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, by invitation, presented the interests of that paper, touched its relation to the discussion of the above and other current topics in the home and study.

At 8 o'clock Rev. H. K. Hines, D. D., occupied the pulpit, delivering a lecture on the "Historical Relation of Methodism to the Pacific Northwest."

Advertisement for Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco, featuring portraits of men and text: "The highest claim for other tobaccos is 'Just as good as Durham.'"

Advertisement for The Dalles District M. E. Conference, detailing the proceedings and attendees.

Advertisement for "Be Not Alarmed" by Mays & Crowe, featuring a warning about competitors and a promotion for their Baker Barbed Wire.