New Minister Must Bring a verbal hearing. Spain to Terms.

TO GET THE RUIZ CLAIM SETTLED

He Must Prepare Spain for the Inevitable and Present McKinley's Plan for Disposal of Cuba.

CHICAGO, June 18 .- A special to the Times-Herald from Washington says:

Spain is to be brought to terms. General Setwart L. Woodford, the new minister to Spain, after dining with President McKinley last night, spent the evening at the White House. He received instructions as to his work in the in a week or two.

General Woodford's task is divided inish government for the inevitable, and the inevitable is the loss of Cuba as a islands as exceptional, on account of from the United States as to the disposition of Cuba.

It is as to the first and second chapters that General Woodford is now conferring with the president. He will receive full instructions as to the third either before he sails or as soon as he shall have had an opportunity to report upon the state of mind in which he finds the Spanish ministry and the queen regent.

President McKinley also instructed General Woodford to impress upon the public men at Madrid these vital points: 1. The United is not actuated by an unfriendly teeling against Spain. 2. The United States does not desire to take advantage of Spain's troubles with her colony to bring about the annexation of Cuba to this country.

3. But unless Spain will herself make a move toward meeting the inevitable, toward giving Cuba freedom, the United States will be compelled to interfere and joined the compact. in the case of intervention annexation might naturally follow.

NEW YORK, June 18. - A dispatch to the World from Washington says:

A telegram from Senor Palma, of the Cuban junta at New York, received tonight by Secretary Quesada of the provisional legation reads:

"Prosecuting-attorney has asked for death sentence of Ruiz Rivera and Baccalao."

Steps were taken immediately to prevent if possible the summary execution of such a sentence. Senator Morgan and others were seen and their services enlisted. Arrangements were made to have influential senators call early tomorrow upon Secretary Sherman to urge him to request interference by the Madrid government, and a direct appeal will be made to the president.

) It is expected that minister Taylor will be instructed to obtain from the Madrid government assurances that 'the lives of the two men will be spared. Unless action is taken early in the day the matter to the attention of the senate by a resolution, although there is one on record already in behalf of Rivera.
