BREEZE IN THE SENATE

Republicans Have a Falling Out Over Wool Schedule.

TEN CENTS FOR FIRST CLASS WOOL

This Caused Carter to Make Charges of Covert Dealing, Which Allison Hotly Resented.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The wool schedule was taken up in the senate today. The first contest came in a motion to reduce the rate on first-class wool from 11 to 10 cents a pound. It was carried by a vote of 55 to 13.

This result was followed by a mild sensation on the republican side. Carter said the vote disclosed a purpose to reduce the wool rates, and served notice that a day of reckoning would come, when a combination would care more about the matter. He suggested a postponement of the wool rates. Foraker vehemently reinforced Carter's remarks and announced that unless the agreement that he supposed had been reached on wool was respected, every senator must act for himself.

Allison endeavored to smooth matters and mildly resented the suggestion of a combination. He intimated a willingness to postpone the disputed rates, but, with rising temper, said: "Senators cannot be driven, and this is not a good place to drive."

"And that is why I don't drive," retorted Foraker.

"Nor will I," said Allison, showing great feeling. "If there had not been an insinuation of a combination," he said, "I would have moved the postponement of all paragraphs open to question, but with the senate thrown into a condition of excitement, I do not propose to submit to threats." "Therefore," said Allison, passionately, "I am not to be driven by threats from anybody. We are told we are in a combination, and that the combination will not vote for the bill. I am for the bill and expect to vote for it, and I do not wish to be charged as a member of the finance committee with dealing with this question in a covert way."

Foraker had remained on his feet, and with biting scorn he replied to Allison: "If anybody is excited," he said, "we will have to look about the chamber and see who the excited persons are."

He proceeded to show that entire new features had been proposed on the wool schedules, which the senators had not had an opportunity to examine.

Quay came in to inquire as to what the agreement was to which Foraker had referred. The Ohio senator said the agreement was informal, but Quay was informal as to it, having been invited to attend the meeting when the senators considered what could be done toward an agreement on certain features of the wool schedule. Subsequently, the results of this meeting had been laid before the finance committee.

"In fact, you were present and a party to the agreement," said Gorman to Quay. The Pennsylvania senator sat down and shook his head.

TO CONVENE AT TOLEDO.

Republican State Convention Will Meet This Afternoon.

TOLEDO, O., June 22.—The republican state convention begins here today. It will nominate a full state ticket and induct a candidate for United States senator. There is no opposition to Senator Hanna, for both the short and long terms, and none to renomination of Governor Bushnell and other state officers.

The only contest has been from the start for control of the central committee, which elects the campaign chairman. Foraker, Bushnell and others have been untiring in their efforts to retain Chairman Kurtz, while Hanna and the old following of McKinley and Secretary Sherman have supported Major Dicks for the place. The fight has involved party leaders on one side or the other, and is the bitter contest that has been waged within either party for years.

Senator Hanna arrived from Cleveland with a large escort shortly after 11 a. m., and had a conference with Major Dicks, who presented an ultimatum from Governor Bushnell. Bushnell authorized Dicks to say to Hanna that he would decline the renomination if Chairman Kurtz was not retained in charge of state headquarters. Hanna and Bushnell are to have a final conference previous to the district meetings of delegates at 3 p. m. The assembling of the convention is announced for 4 p. m.

TOLEDO, O., June 22.—The conference with Senator Hanna and his friends closed at 12:30, when it was announced the senator would not consider the withdrawal of Major Dicks as a candidate for chairman.

Hanna Off for Toledo.

CLEVELAND, June 22.—Senator Hanna left for the state convention at Toledo this morning with a retinue that any monarch might envy. The train was ablaze with color and every one of the 400 who accompanied him wore beautiful badges of red and gold in which was woven Hanna's picture.

Liberals' Cuban Policy.

NEW YORK, June 22.—A Herald dispatch from Madrid says:

The avowed and final Cuban policy of the liberal party is now complete. It guarantees autonomy, sincere and thorough, directed by a trustworthy and humane civilian governor.

The newspapers are busy looking up the speech which it is alleged General Woodford made years ago favoring the Cuban rebels, and drawing inferences therefrom. They also echo the statement published in an English paper that the Hawaiian islands would be at the mercy of the Spanish fleet in the event of an international rupture.

A Coal Company Fails.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Henry S. White and Elmer Stockton have been appointed receivers for the Randolph Coal & Coke Company, that operates mines near Sparta, Ill. HANNA IN CONTROL

Harmonious Session of the Ohio Convention.

BUSHNELL NAMED FOR GOVERNOR

Daugherty for Chairman of the Central Committee—Platform Indorses the McKinley Administration.

TOLEDO, O., June 23.—With the contest for the chairmanship settled in favor of Major Dicks, and the entire Hanna slate, the republican state convention proceeded today with the usual business. The report of the credentials committee was adopted without opposition. Temporary organization, with Grosvenor in the chair, was made permanent.

The committee on platform was in session all night, trying to frame a platform so as to prevent a contest over the civil service, Cuban and other resolutions. The platform adopted declares as follows:

"That the republicans of Ohio rejoice in the magnificent victory of last year, whereby the voters of the United States overwhelmingly declared in favor of an honest dollar and a chance to earn it, and elected as president that splendid son of Ohio, William McKinley.

"The platform upon which that victory was won declares the principles and policies of the republican party. To all the declarations of that platform we pledge anew our allegiance.

"The republican party has always been the friend of the downtrodden and oppressed, and deeply sympathized with the struggle of any people for independence. We extend sympathy to the patriots of Cuba in their efforts to achieve freedom, and hope the day of their deliverance is near at hand. We commend the course of the president, and express confidence in his speedy and patriotic disposition of the Cuban question in accordance with wise statesmanship and a firm and vigorous policy.

"We believe the administration in negotiating a treaty of annexation with Hawaii has acted wisely.

"We denounce the violation of the spirit of the civil service act by Cleveland.

"We favor the passage by congress of such a law as will provide a national board of arbitration for adjustment of differences between corporations engaged in interstate commerce and their employees.

"We demand for the woolgrowers of Ohio such ample protection as shall speedily increase the American flocks sufficiently to supply all American needs.

"We endorse the candidacy of M. A. Hanna for the United States senate to succeed himself, and pledge the support of the party at the next general assembly to his selection for both the short and long terms."

Mention of Hanna's name was greeted with loud demonstrations.

Hanna was called for. He said the Republicans had been warned that this was a dangerous year. He joined in accepting the challenge. The opposition will revive free wool in Ohio, but never again free wool. The senator paid a high tribute to the president's efforts to bring about prosperity.

The following nominations were made: Governor, Asa Bushnell; lieutenant-governor, A. W. Jones; supreme judge, J. F. Burkett; attorney-general, Frank Monett; treasurer, Samuel Campell.

A new state committee was organized with H. D. Daugherty chairman; Peter Darr, secretary.

FIGHTING ENDED FOR THE SEASON

Heavy Rains Put a Stop to Operations in Cuba.

NEW YORK, June 23.—A letter written by General Maximo Gomez, dated May 17, has been received by the Cuban junta. It states that the rains having begun, fighting is over for the season. During the period of inactivity the Cuban army is reduced to 3000 men, but, writes Gomez, these men are well-equipped, well-fed, sturdy and efficient soldiers.

The Spanish army, the Cuban general describes as ill-equipped and ill-fed.

Insurgents in a Bad Way.

NEW YORK, June 23.—A dispatch to the Journal from Havana says:

A dispatch from Placetas insists that the backbone of the revolution in the Santa Clara district is broken. It also declares that a majority of the Moneagados insurgent forces are without arms; that all lack munitions, and are suffering from scurvy and smallpox. Their food supplies are said to be fast diminishing on account of the activity of the Spanish columns engaged in the destruction of the crops.

The double execution of Isidoro Carmona and Anthony Jordan, prisoners of war, sentenced for rebellion and incendiarism, occurred at La Cabanas this morning. The prisoners were court-martialed yesterday afternoon.

Want the Cubans Recognized.

THE HAWAIIAN TREATY.

Finance Committee Refers It to Subcommittee for Investigation.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The Hawaiian annexation treaty formed the principal topic of convention by the senate committee on foreign relations today. The treaty and accompanying papers were read and referred to a subcommittee consisting of Senators Foraker, Davis and Morgan. The inquiry will require considerable time, and no effort will be made by the full committee to take the subject up until the subcommittee reports on all the details.

The protest from Japan in connection with the Hawaiian treaty was considered in a more serious light than first made apparent. The committee took precautions to prevent the publication of its proceedings. The protest is accepted as almost an ultimatum on Japan's part to the effect that the treaty must not be perfected.

To Regulate Annexation.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Senator Morhas introduced a bill to regulate the annexation of Hawaii to the United States.

SENATE ON THE WOOL SCHEDULE

Quay Moved to Restore House Rates on Third Class.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Senator Quay today moved to restore the house rate of 32 per cent ad valorem on third-class wool, valued at 13 cents or less. The Western senators combated it. Quay also moved to lay on the table the amendments of the finance committee to paragraph 337 (wool), the effect being to restore the house rates, and the motion was lost by a vote of 19 to 11.

Teller made a vigorous speech in which he charged the Republicans with having no desire to push the tariff bill. Referring to the remarks of Hoar to the effect that Bryan would have vetoed the tariff bill for duty on wool, while some of his supporters now urged a higher rate. Teller stated, if Hoar was going to bring the last campaign into debate the bill would be delayed indefinitely, as silver men would not allow such assertions to go unchallenged.

The Gila Valley Railway.

GLOBE, Ariz., June 23.—It is believed that construction work on the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern railroad will be pushed to a speedy conclusion. Two years ago the road was laid from Bowie to Fort Thomas, a distance of 75 miles. President William Garland, of Los Angeles, and Vice-President Cutler have been here for several days in the interest of the road, and it is expected that the 75 miles from Fort Thomas to Globe will be built at once.

Annexation of Hawaii.

LONDON, June 23.—In the house of commons tomorrow Beckett, conservative member for Yorkshire, will question the government as to whether it is aware that "Queen Liliuokalani has been deposed by a small body of Americans who, without right or title, have assumed sovereignty over Hawaii and to save themselves from the resentment of the people, have requested the American government to annex Hawaii, and whether Great Britain proposes to allow this most important coaling station pass into the hands of the United States without opposition.

Bad Fire at New York.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Fire broke out this afternoon in a seven-story manufacturing building, at Light and Greenwich streets, which drove 300 people who were employed, out. All got out safely except one man, who jumped from a window and was badly injured. The principal tenant was W. E. Dietz, a lamp manufacturer. Dreyfus, wholesale liquor store occupied a portion of the building. The loss will amount to $500,000.

Collins was powerless to hold his companion above water or help himself, and both perished.

HER RIGHTS IN DANGER

Is the Reason Japan Opposes Hawaiian Annexation.

STANDS ON HER TREATY RIGHTS

Annexation Would Abrogate This Agreement and Jeopardise Property Rights of the Japs.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The gist of the protest of Japan against the annexation of Hawaii to the United States as read to the senate committee on foreign relations yesterday, was as follows:

"The acquisition of Hawaii by annexation to the United States would deprive the resident Japanese in the islands of the right to which they are entitled under the present treaty with Hawaii. There are 25,000 Japanese in the islands with large property rights, and under present conditions they are entitled to become citizens of Hawaii.

"In case of annexation these Japanese could not become citizens of the United States, as decisions of the United States circuit courts are to the effect that no Asiatic can become a citizen of the United States.

"By annexation the Japanese now resident in Hawaii would be subject to any measures that might be adopted by the United States. They would lose the right to become citizens and vote. Large interests owned by Japanese citizens in the islands would be greatly jeopardized. Therefore the Japanese government must firmly protest against the proposed annexation."

ENGLAND ON THE ALERT.

Rights of British Subject in Hawaii Will Be Protected.

LONDON, June 24.—In the house of commons today the parliamentary secretary for the foreign office replied to a question of Beckett, conservative, regarding Hawaiian annexation. He said the government was aware that a proposal to annex Hawaii to the United States had been submitted for the consideration of the senate, but no decision had been reached.

The secretary added it would be the object of her majesty's government to see that whatever rights according to international law belonging to Great Britain and British subjects, are fully maintained.

DISPUTE SEEMS INEVITABLE.

Title to Oak Island, Rainy Lake, Is Involved.

ST. LOUIS, June 24.—A special to the Globe-Democrat from Duluth, Minn., says:

Gold has been discovered on Oak Point island, in Rainy lake, which will undoubtedly lead to an international boundary dispute between Great Britain and the United States.

According to maps of the geological survey, the island is in Canadian territory, but according to the wording of the treaty of Ghent, the island is a part of the state of Minnesota. Canada has issued patents to several valuable mining locations on the island and vigorous protests are being sent to Washington by American prospectors. The miners throughout the Rainy Lake district are greatly wrought up over the matter and there is a probability of trouble unless something is done.

The way things now stand, the United States loses entire control, even of her waters in rainy lake, as, according to the geological survey, the United States cannot get a boat into Rainy Lake without first going through Canadian waters. This is the direct violation of the treaty. The three hundred island boundary dispute is of minor importance compared to this.

FOR ENDEAVOR TRAFFIC.

O. R. & N. and N. P. Companies Are at War.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The Oregon Railway & Navigation Company and the Northern Pacific have become involved in a rate war over Christian Endeavor passenger traffic between points in Washington and San Francisco. Both companies are now quoting a rate of $26.50 for the round trip from Spokane. This war in rates has affected the special Christian Endeavor rates from intermediate points, including Seattle, Walla Walla and other stations on both warring lines.

The Southern Pacific announced another reduction in its special Christian Endeavor rates from Portland yesterday. The company is arranging to run a daylight train to San Francisco, leaving Portland at 5 a. m. on July 5, remaining over night at Ashland, and arriving

SLAIN BY MAHDISTS.

Baron Dhanis' Secret Expedition Comes to Grief.

BRUSSELS, June 24.—The Reformer says it learns from a good source that the entire Dhanis expedition to the headwaters of the Nile, including Baron Dhanis himself, has been massacred.

Baron Dhanis last year enlisted 6000 men in Congo Free State to take part in a secret expedition. The British government allowed some of its Hussar troops to join the expedition, but it was officially denied that an Anglo-Belgian movement has been concerted against the Mahdists. The general impression, however, was that this force was to act in conjunction with the Anglo-Egyptian expedition up the Nile and complete the conquest of the Sudan.

At last Dhanis was reported to have arrived at Lado, north of the territory of the Congo Free State, on the White Nile, and 325 miles north of Victoria Nyanza. It was then understood that the Dhanis expedition would push on northward in the direction of Khartoum. When last heard from in September the baron was at Stanley falls, 600 miles from the nearest Dervish force.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 24.—The parade of the United Confederate Veterans today, in which more than 10,000 veterans took part, was the largest in the history of the organization. The stars and stripes and the Confederate flag were conspicuous in the long line.
