and let us strengthen one another, and when we separate and return to our own vineyards of our Heavenly Master, we can say with one voice "It was good for us to be here." In this progressive day and age we feel we must be constantly on the alert and very progressive, or else we find we have not accomplished as much as the Cecil, finding one of his hives queenschools which cope with the problems of today. "This is the day which the Lord hath made, we will rejoice and be glad in it." He made former days for the men of former generations, and the future days are for the coming generations; but we have nothing to do with the duties of the past and the future. Our day is here and now, and if we fail Mrs. A. R. Thompson came up from Portland Saturday night, where she had to improve this time, we are a failure for all time.

There are two kinds of people on earth today, Just two kinds of people, no more. I say, No: the saint and the sinner, for 'tis well understood The good are half bad, and the bad are half good.

Not the rich and the poor, for to count a man's span Who puts on vain airs is not counted a man;

Not the happy and sad, for the swift flying years Brings each man his laughter and each man his tears. No! the two kinds of people on earth I mean Are the people who lift and the people who lean. Where'er you go you will find the world's masses Are always divided in just these two classes: And, oddy enough, you will find. too, 1 ween, There is only one lifter to twenty who lean.

In which class are you? Are you easing the load
