There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all othe diseases on together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrah Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testmonials. Address,

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood, Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Honghton's Drng Store. (2)

Thousands are Trying It.

In order to prove the great merit of Ely's Cream Balm, the most effective cure for Catarrh and Cold in Head, we have prepared a generous trial size for 10 cents. Get it of your druggist or send 10 cents to ELY BROS., 56 Warren St., N. Y. City.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no cocaine, mercury nor any injurious drug. Price. 50 cents. At druggists or by mail.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. Nomedicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Con-stipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bit-50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

This Is Your Opportunity.

On receipt of ten cents, cash or stamps, a generous sample will be mailed of the most popular Catarrh and Hay Fever Cure (Ely's Cream Balm) sufficient to demonstrate the great merits of the remedy. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York City. Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Palls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."— Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Pres. Church, Helena, Mont.

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged oure for catarrh and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

TO MAKE MUMMIES.

A New York Association to Go Into That Business.

The Object Is to Preserve the Entire Population for Future Reference -A Simple and Thorough Process.

To a great many people the most hor-rible thing about death is the idea of decomposition in the dark gloom of the grave. The thought of the finish of a human career is not a delicate one in any of its aspects. But now comes the Sanitary Mausoleum association, and offers for the paltry sum of $70 to preserve your physical being for all time, and give you a home in a marble building where you may be on view for your friends and relatives as long as any of them are left to look. .

If you are a millionaire, you may arrange it so that your grateful heirs may see you after death. If you are a public benefactor there is no need to perpetuate you in carven image of stone. You may have a resting place on the edge of the town where all who come may see what manner of man you were. It may even come about that in after years your tangible person will be an exhibit in an art museum. Time may make anything of you, but it cannot change. That is what the newly-organized association guarantees.

In other words, the association offers to New York citizens an opportunity to imitate the enduring Pharoahs and become mummies.

There is nothing about the proposed process to offend the most refined mind. It has an advantage over the lost Egyptian art in that the Egyptian dead were wrapped from head to foot in grass cloths, and in many cases the human form looked like a bale of cloth, not even the features being visible. The American mummy will be created without removing the burial clothes from the body, and except for the discoloration of the face, the mummy will look just as did the subject when arrayed for the final services.

Curiously enough, an American elimatic condition suggested the process. Out west there are torrid deserts over which sweep hot, dry winds. Men die in these deserts, and months after death the body lying exposed upon the sands will remain afmost perfect, decomposition being delayed by the preserving quality of the dry air. Cattle die on the trails from thirst and lie in the sun through countless weeks before there is any appearance of decay.

The medical student murderer, Theodore Durrant, of San Francisco, knew something of the value of dry air as a preservative. When he killed his first victim, Blanch Lamont, in a church, he carried the body high up into the belfry. The belfry windows were slats like those of an ordinary window blind, and the wind swept through almost unimpeded. Durrant stripped the body and composed it carefully on the floor and left it there. Two weeks later, when it was found, there were small evidences of decay.

The new association will munmify by the dry-air process. It is simplicity itself. The mausoleum is the first thing to be built. The plans for it are drawn. It is an immense building capable of giving room to 15,000 bodies. It remains.

Bows and Sashes.

Dark red linens are cut with the loose French blouse to show a guimpe of accordion plaited ivory satin and finished at the neck with applied guipure. Bows of ribbon on the shoulders have returned with the guimpes. These bows are made with many loops and look like a rosette. Another innovation is trimmed sashes. Ribbon or muslin, they tie at the Back in a small bow, and the ends fall to the hem of the gown. Each side is trimmed with narrow lace ruffles, or fine plaitings of Swiss or muslin. This is one of the prettiest fashions of the season, and will be rejoiced in by youthful looking matrons. -Leisure Hours.

DKLAHOMA IS BOOMING.

It May Become a State Before Either New Mexico or Arisona. Oklahoma was organized as a territory in May, 1890, a little more than seven years ago, having been cut off from the Indian territory. At that time the population of the territory was 60,000—33,000 male and 27,000 female and was almost exclusively native-born white inhabitants, the total number of foreigners being 700; of colored inhabitants, 2,900, and of Mongolians, 2,500. Oklahoma was the last of the territories to be let in, Arizona having been admitted in 1863, and New Mexico in 1850; but its growth has been so rapid that there is now talk of making Oklahoma a state. It is said that no other territory ever gained population so fast, and if the proposed new state were admitted it would outrank 15 of the present states in population. The present population of Oklahoma, it is said, creasing at a rote so rapid that unless it be stopped Oklahoma will have, before many years, not only a larger population than Chicago has, but even, though this seems incredible, a larger population than Chicago claims. The development of Oklahoma has been promoted enormously since its establishment as a territory. The railroad business has been developed largely within its borders, and the early settlers who went out in wagons. in carts and on prairie schooners have now all the facilities of modern travel. In 1880 there were not 300 miles of railroad in Oklahema and the Indian territory, then united. On the admission of Oklahoma there were not 100 miles of railroad within its borders, though at that time the Indian territory had 1,200. On January 1, 1892, the railroad mileage of Oklahoma had risen to 390. On January 1, 1896, it was 430, and is now nearly 600 miles.

Oklahoma is modern in some other respects. In 1896 there were more business failures in it than in all the other territories combined-more business failures in the year than in New Hampshire and Vermont together. But business in Oklahoma has been good and there are, it is said, 60,000 individual farm owners. The material prospects of Oklahoma have been improved greatly during the last three or four years by many additions through immigration of women, who now are nearly as numerous as the men. There are enrolled in the Oklahoma schools more than 75,000 pupils and there are nearly 2,000 teachers there.

. The soil and climate of Oklahoma are favorable to the production of corn. cotton, sorghum, flax and fruit, and it is remarked as an encouraging indication of thrift that the inhabitants, unlike those of New Mexico and Arizona, have only seven holidays a year, Washington's birthday being one and Decoration day another. Some 53,000 votes were cast in Oklahoma at last year's election-11,000 more than in Florida, and 22,000 more than in Delaware—and of these the plurality for the successful party was only 1,100. Oklahoma desires to be a state before 1900 and its desire may be realized .-N. Y. Sup.
