We notice one thing, and that is that this coasting proposition is something like the circus deal, where older people who want to see the show, go in order to gratify the desires of the children, as they express it, when they are really going for their own benefit. So it is with coasting; if they want to enjoy this diversion they say they go to see that the little folks do not get hurt.

L. J. Adams, brother-in-law of Al Coolidge, jr., recently killed by the Van Pelts, returned to Salem yesterday from Gold Beach, Curry county. He was there a few days, looking after property interests, and was accompanied by Joseph Cavanaugh. They report the Van Pelts are not and have not been confined in jail. On reaching Gold at the Vogt opera house in this city. This play has been well received in every city in the country, and comes well recommended by the press and the people. It will be here on Christmas eve, which will give everyone an opportunity to spend the occasion in the merriest kind of a way, since it is very langhable throughout.

The work of putting the furnace into the new Lutheran church building is about done, and it will be but a short time until it will be ready to receive the furniture, which has already been ordered. After the furniture arrives it will have to be re-painted, which, owing to the condition of the weather at present, will take some time. About February 15th, at the very latest date, this church will be ready for dedication.

Joseph Knox of Hood River is in the city today. He informs us that a new road is to be run from Tucker's mill south, intersecting the old road at Lancis' place, and leading into the Mt.
