ADVICE ABOUT PACKING.

More Gowns-Are Made Impossible by Careless Packing Than by Wear. Now a word of advice can be given to the woman traveler who is not so fortunate as to possess a well-trained maid. Pack your own trunks and pack with

More rumpled and impossible gowns are due to careless packing and loose adjusting than any other one thing. No amount of tight packing or of pressure applied downward will do more than accentuate the natural folds. A single toss of the trunk that is loosely packed means a hopeless jumble of hats, wraps, bodices, laces and what

Begin at the foundation with the heaviest garments. Do not fold too much; shake skirts from the waistband and spread them for the entire length without folding that the size of the trunk will allow. If not, spread out with great care in the folds which are naturally taken when held in an upright position, and turn over smoothly at the top.

Shake wraps from the shoulders, lay them out in the folds they naturally take, with great care smooth the sleeves and turn the fronts over on the back, smoothing and adjusting all trimmings and frills so as to avoid horizontal creases.

It is impossible to so fold a garment as to avoid all lines, but those taken lengthwise of the cloth readily disappear and are also little noticed, as they take the direction of the folds spread out in the trunk and folded as little as possible. Then pack close and tight. Hats should be packed firmly, so as not to move, and for this purpose any light article, such as handkerchiefs, to July 7, 1893, will be paid at my mouchoir cases, or soft and pliable objects that will not crush or injure the 1897.

The Weekly Chronicle. What is Scott's Emulsion?

It is a strengthening food and tonic, remarkable in its flesh-forming properties. It contains Cod-Liver Oil emulsified or partially digested, combined with the wellknown and highly prized Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, so that their potency is materially increased.

What Will It Do?

It will arrest loss of flesh and restore to a normal condition the infant, the child and the adult. It will enrich the blood of the anemic; will stop the cough, heal the irritation of the throat and lungs, and cure incipient consumption. make this statement because the experience of twenty-five years has proven it in tens of thousands of Cases. GOOD WORDS FOR WASHINGTON Improvement in Moral Tone of the Nation's Capital.

Gen. H. V. Boynton, the veteran Washington correspondent, has been for more than 30 years collecting news and writing letters. Few men know so thoroughly as he the inside history of the capitol, the white house, and the departments. Being asked what he considered the most important deduction from his experience at Washington, he answered:

"The marvelous improvement in the moral atmosphere, and the general tone and honesty of the government. We, the people of the United States, have the most honest government in the world. It is and has been for many years more honest than ever before, and is to-day more honestly and efficiently administered than any private business that I have ever examined. I mean that there is less waste and less defalcation.

"Look at the great postal service, for instance. Where in the world will you find any private agency which does so much and does it so well, and at so little cost? And change of parties makes no difference. Thorough honesty is the

"The atmosphere of the white house is pure beyond that of any royal residence, and this is the most moral and peaceable city in the United States, if not in the world. It makes me laugh when those good people come from New York and Cincinnati and away out west to help reform Washington.'

PERSECUTED IN AMERICA.

John Wesley Suffered for Refusing Communion to a Woman.

Rev. W. J. Scott, D. D., writes of 'Wh John Wesley Preached in Georgia," in Ladies' Home Journal, and gia," in Ladies' Home Journal, and from the famous preacher's journal tells the story of his persecution in $3.20 a.m., departs at $2.25 a.m. No. 1, from Baker City and Union Pacific, arrives at $2.20 a.m., departs at $3.30 a.m. Ray Logan came up from Portland Georgia, which ultimately resulted in his quitting America and returning to England in 1737. "During the afternoon before Wesley's departure he was approached by the recorder of Savannah, who informed him that he must not leave the province until he had given bond in £50 sterling, and in addition furnished bail to answer Mr. Wnfiamson's charge. Wesley responded: 'I have given him every opportunity to make good his accusation, but he refused to do so; and now, sir,' he continued, with emphasis and firmness, 'I must insist that, as an official, you have treated me and the trustees of the colony very ill. I shall neither give bond nor bail. You know your business and I know mine."

"'The same afternoon,' he adds, '1 shook the dust off my feet and left Savannah, after preaching there one year and nine months, not as I ought, but as I was able.' "The show made by his enemies of a purpose to intercept him was a shallow pretext, and is now so regarded." Wesley's persecution was the outcome of his refusal to admit a woman of his congregation to holy cummunion without evidence of her repentance and contrition.
