The mothers' meetings, which are bethe greatest impediment between her Huff 62; Sunday, Tolmie 59. and her ideal mother lies in want of thought and the right kind of stimulus to such an end. It is in this, as in any pursuit of man or woman-"want of thought more than want of heart"causes errors and misdeeds. To meet this evident need of women, mothers' meetings have arisen. This department of work in our city holds its meetings the 1st Friday of each month. The meeting yesterday at the Congregational church was well attended and full of interest. The public school children sang very prettily and quite effectively two songs, and rendered one recitation. Miss Cheese read a very earnest, thoughtful paper on "The Mother's Influence."

Mr. Fritz' Funeral.

The funeral of the late Jacob Fritz took place from the Catholic church at 10 a. m. Monday, and the number of friends present showed in what high esteem the aged townsman was held. The G. A. R., of which Mr. Fritz was a member, marched in a body from their hall to the church, and were present at the funeral services, which were conducted by Rev. F. Bronsgeest, who delivered an extended and very appropriate address. The services being over at the church, the funeral procession wound its way to the Catholic cemetery, where all that was mortal of Jacob Fritz was laid to rest with military honors.

The pall bearers were selected from among the old friends of the deceased and members of the G. A. R., and were Robert Mays, J. Doherty, E. P. Fitzger-

Had it not been that many were kept away by business, which could not be left, the church would have been filled to overflowing. As it was, the funeral was well attended, for Mr. Fritz' friends their esteem for so good a friend, so kind a neighbor, so brave a veteran, and so true a gentleman.
