EDITOR CHRONICLE:

Farmers are very busy with their spring plowing at present, for there was little time for plowing, and but few did any plowing at that time, being busy hauling their grain to market and getting their winter's wood; but there will be a larger acreage put in grain this year than ever before, as farmers ex-of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda supplies exactly what they want. They will thrive, grow strong and be well all winter on this splendid food tonic. Nearly all of them become very fond of it. For adults who are not very strong, a course of treatment with the Emulsion for a couple of months in the fall will put them through the winter in first-class condition. Ask your doctor about this.

BORN SEPTEMBER 18, 1841.

For more than fifty-six years it has never failed in its weekly visits to the homes of farmers and villagers throughout the United States.

IT HAS faithfully labored for their prosperity and happiness, for the improvement of their business and home interests, for education, for the elevation of American manhood and true womanhood.

IT HAS told at the fireside, interesting and instructive stories of the doings of the world, the nation and states.

IT HAS advised the farmer as to the most approved methods of cultivating and harvesting his crops, and the proper time to convert them into the largest possible amount of money.

IT HAS led in all matters pertaining to the welfare of farmers and villagers, and for over half a century has held their confidence and esteem.

IT IS THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE and we furnish it with the Semi-Weekly Chronicle one year for $1.75, cash in advance.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF Oregon for Wasco county. F. J. Field, plaintiff vs. Wm. Birgfeld, Laura E. Birgfeld, First National Bank of The Dalles, Thomas Kelly and A. S. Bennett, defendants.

By virtue of an execution, decree and order of sale, duly issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Wasco, to me directed and dated the 25th day of February, 1898, upon a decree for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage and judgment rendered and entered in said Court on the 4th day of December, 1897, in the above entitled cause, in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendants William Birgfeld and Laura E. Birgfeld as judgment debtors, in the sum of fifteen hundred and twelve dollars and twenty-nine cents, with interest thereon from the 4th day of December, 1897, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and the further sum of one hundred and fifty dollars as attorney's fees, and the further sum of fifteen dollars, costs, and the costs of and upon this writ, and commanding me to make sale of the real property embraced in such decree of foreclosure and hereinafter described, I will on the 12th day of April, 1898, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, and at the front door of the County Court house in Dalles City, Wasco County, Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the defendants William Birgfeld and Laura E. Birgfeld, then being and the Bennett, or either of them, had on the 4th day of August, 1892, the date of the mortgage foreclosed herein, or which such defendants or any of the defendants herein have acquired, or now have in and to the following described real property, situated and being in Wasco county, Oregon, to-wit: An undivided one-fifth and one-half of all of section No. 21, the NW 1/4 and the SE 1/4 of section No. 23; also all of section No. 25, the NW 1/4 and the SE 1/4 of section No. 27, and the NW 1/4 of section No. 35, all in township No. 7, south of range No. 17, east of the W. M.; also of section No. 3, township No. 8, south of range No. 17, east of the W. M., containing in all 288.98 acres according to the Government survey (page 314, Vol. 2 of deeds) also the NW 1/4 and the SE 1/4 of the SE 1/4 of section No. 34, township No. 7, south of range 17, east of W. M., containing 160 acres, (page 116 Vol. 2, deeds) also all the NW 1/4 of section No. 29, township 7, south of range 17, east of W. M., (page 350, Vol. 2 of deeds.) Said interest in the above described real property being the same descended to and inherited by the said Laura E. Birgfeld upon the death of Alexander Rogers and Matilda Rogers, her father and mother. Said property will be sold subject to confirmation and redemption as by law provided.
