Today eighty-one head of fine beef cattle, which will average about 1200 pounds were delivered at the stockyards by William Davis and John West of Wapinitia. The cattle are stall-fed and as fine a bunch of cattle as anyone could desire. They were purchased by Roe Grimes for the Union Meat Co. of Portland. The price paid for them was about four cents per pound, which will amount to a handsome sum.

Renearsals for the original musical farce comedy, "King Hallabohoola II," are progressing in good shape, and will be put on the boards immediately after the Lenten season. All the boys are taking a great deal of interest in the performance, and a marked improvement can be seen at every rehearsal. The performance is strictly original throughout, being different in every respect from anything that has ever been put on in our city.

The Winquatt Literary Society in connection with the High school, held an election of officers last evening in the school building, with the following result: President, Josie Jenkins; vicepresident, Rudy Cradlebaugh; secretary, Clarence Gilbert. The society paper was read and a number of recitations and musical selections were rendered. The evening was pleasantly, as well as profitably, spent by every one of the seventy-three members present.
