OUR WAR POLICY

Havana May Be Captured Without Destroying Morro Castle—All Small Forts Will Be Abolished.

MAY WANT MORE TROOPS

Regiments of Men Who Have Passed Through a Siege of Yellow Fever Will Be Raised—A Call for Such Troops May Be Sent in.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—General Miles believes Havana can be captured without destroying Morro Castle and Cabanas. The guns in these fortifications are very expensive and with their mounts would be invaluable in establishing defenses after Havana capitulates.

This is the reason that Admiral Sampson has avoided an attack on the forts near Havana, and it is this policy which is to be maintained, at least until the army invasion is ready. The plan of enlisting the number of regiments of men in the southern states who have passed through the siege of yellow fever, and are consequently immune, meets with the warm approval of the military authorities.

GRIM TERROR REIGNS IN SANTIAGO DE CUBA

Every Man and Boy Refusing to Enlist in the Spanish Army to Be Court-Martialed and Shot—A General Massacre is Imminent.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, April 27, via steamer Remus, filed at Port Antonio, Jamaica, April 29.—Don Arseno Linares Pomo, commander-general of this division of Cuba, proclaimed four days ago that every male between 15 and 50 years of age must enroll that night with the volunteers for military service under penalty of arrest and military trial and death.

Spanish soldiers now assume a bullying attitude, and threaten to kill every Cuban man and outrage every Cuban woman left in Cuba when the invasion begins. When the American fleet appears it is expected that all non-combatants will be expelled.

Although the governor of the city has seized for the government all the large stores of food in private hands, many shops still do business with small stocks and prices are doubling day by day. Monday meat was 40 cents a pound, and to-day is $1.

DONS FAILED TO CATCH THE YALE

American Auxiliary Cruiser, Formerly the Liner Paris, Arrives Safely at New York.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The United States auxiliary cruiser Yale, formerly the American line steamship Paris, has eluded the Spanish warships. She landed at her dock here this morning with 150 passengers.

After clearing land Captain Watkins shaped his course about north, and after a run of 30 miles headed for home, keeping a distance of about 30 miles from the usual course taken in previous trips. Captain Watkins had no fear that a Spanish war vessel would catch his fleet steamer after he got sea room, but it was thought possible that some craft of the enemy might be lurking in the vicinity of the channel or the neighborhood of the Irish coast to waylay her.

The Yale entered the Narrows through a field of mines and torpedoes this morning, and was saluted by the steam whistles of passing craft as she went to her dock.

UNCLE SAM ON SOLID FOOTING

A Novel Encounter is Now Looked for—America Expected to Triumph in the First Battle of the Kind in the History of the World.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—In the ten days which have elapsed since the formal outbreak of war between the United States and Spain, all glory achieved has been to the credit of America. So far as known, Spanish warships have not captured a single prize, and the only blood spilled has been Spanish gore in fortifications near Mantanzas. The United States in a week has practically assembled an army of 150,000 men; as many as Spain has succeeded in landing and keeping alive in Cuba in three years, and while this army has suffered none of the hardships of war and has had no smell of gun powder, still it is composed of men whose service in the militia has demonstrated its effectiveness in the matter of handling arms.

The expected battle between Spain's fleet and that of the United States will be the first contest of the kind in the history of the world. Consequently news is awaited with more interest than ever attached to a contest on sea before. But while news of Asiatic battle is largely waited for, the administration is preparing for movement forward, which will be of equal, or greater, importance.

It is the firm belief of the authorities of the war department that this small force can successfully cope with five times their number; but the most important mission which the American troops will be called upon to perform will be to arm and organize some 20,000 of Gomez' followers. They will convey an enormous number of small arms and ammunition, besides a number of gatling and other rapid-fire magazine guns, which Secretary Alger has purchased in Europe and America. It is the opinion of General Miles and other military authorities that if the Cubans are supplied with means of attack, they will prove far more effective against the Spanish during yellow fever season than twice their number of non-acclimated Americans. General Miles therefore proposes that as soon as the American troops have established a depot of supplies upon a firm basis, they shall be withdrawn. In the meantime volunteer forces are to be made accustomed to hardships and the duties of camp life; and should occasion arise, he will be able to land an entire army in Cuba before the end of May.
