THE DALLES WEEKLY CHRONICLE, SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 1898.

3

Long Distance Company Again Trying to Establish an Exchange.

At present we have another instance ments. The long distance telephone' deavoring to make another fight for business in this city by giving a contract ises of unsurpassed service. Their efforts are overlooked, however, by the rates so that every one can afford to use

The Seufert & Condon Co. have started and made a success of their business when the long distance company was in its most flourishing condithe opposite faction.

THE PORTLAND EXPOSITION.

Dates on Which It Will Be Held-Prospects for the Display.

The exposition to be held in Portland this year, opening September 22d and closing October 22, promises to be the largest, best and most successful ever held. In 1895 and 1896 it was given

It is conducted, not for profit on the part of the committee, but to display to the people of the Pacific Northwest and resources of this favored section of our

There will be given prizes consisting of cups, medals and diplomas for all the the best and most meritorious exhibits

Exhibits from Eastern Oregon will certainly take some prizes. Space is free. Exhibits will be transported without cost and there will be no expense to Anyone wishing to make exhibits or will receive a prompt reply when ad-

HYMENIAL.

Mr. J. L. Miller and Miss Emma Mack United in Marriage.

On Wednesday evening, June 15th, Mr. J. M. Miller and Miss Emma Mack were united in matrimony. The ceremony was solemnized at the residence and Saturdays.

1	SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
BY	AIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, IN ADVANCE.
Six mor	51 onths	50 75 50
Adver on appl	ising rates reasonable, and made know eation.	C
Addre ICLE,"	s all communications to "THF CHRO! "he Dalles, Oregon.	ş.

Telephone No. 1.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Wednesday's Daily

Yesterday a party charged with being drunk and disorderly, was brought before Recorder Sinnott and fined five dollars.

Yesterday a marriage license was issued by County Clerk Kelsay, to Calvin Dunake and Miss Leonora Freeman. Both young people are of Mosier, in this county.

A large shipment of Oregon cherries during the season the amount will in- will operate mining claims. crease daily.

A large number of workmen are being distributed along the line of the O. R. & N. through Eastern Oregon to help in the repair work of the line, which is at present being made. We understand the company pays $1.60 per day for common laborers.

owners are not selling their wool, as gonian. Every spear seems to be per- recanvass will show his election. they are not in need of money. They tect, the heads are even and unless expect that higher prices will prevail something unusual occurs within the before long.

On Monday, June 13th, in Pendleton, a son was born to the wife of W. H. Fowler. Harry has always been "monulations that he now is Papa Fowler.

has written to Ben Brown, of Burns, have already gone; but the cooler weamade to consolidate the Harney and La minds and put off their summer vaca-Grand land offices. Mr. Herman sug- tion until later in the season. gests that unless reasons exist for the proposed consolidation that the move- that Murdoe McKay, who was shet on council of administration of each organ- Minute Cough Cure. It quickly cures ment be watched.

Chronicle.

and will continue three days. Teams promptly replying to Mrs. Lease, saying: produce a rise for at least three days at ture ranged from 58° to 60°. The absence and members of the family. have arrived from Walla Walla, Baker "We have but few reasons to offer in The Dalles. By that time the effect of of a marked rise under the influence of The dining room was beautifully dec-City, and Huntington. Already a large defense of Minnesota's climate, but you the current warm weather over the the high temperature, indicates that the orated with flowers and evergreens, and number of people are in attendance and have given the best one we have." many more are expected .- La Grande Thursday's Daily. We are sorry to announce the serious Yesterday evening George Ferguson returned from Albany accompanied by to his room with a painful attack of Mrs. Ferguson, who went below in hope neuralgia. that a change of climate would improve Yesterday morning ninety Walla her health. It did not agree with her, Walla troops passed through the city en however, and she returns to The Dalles, route to the Presidio at San Francisco and then to Manila.

have little fears of a drought this year. Yesterday's rain will certainly insure an abundant grain harvest, although ripe strawberries and other fruits are said to night to attend the graduating exercises have suffered severely from the rainfall. At Grass Valley, Oregon, on June 7, was made to Denver last night. This will join a partner at Spokane, from 1898, Mr. B. M. Hawley and Miss May is almost the first shipment of promi- which point they will go on the Spokane M. Dougherty were united in marriage. nence from this city, but from now on overland route to Alaska, where they Both the contracting parties are well and favorably known in this county and state, and THE CHEONICLE extends to

E. W. McComas, one of the bestthem its best wishes. known wheat buyers in Eastern Oregon,

P. H. D'Arcy has asked the canvassdrove several miles on the Athena road Friday, and on his return said that al- ing board of Marion county to recanvass the vote cast for himself and Judge though he had bought wheat in the great valley of California for many years. Boise for circuit judge. In an affidavit and had always been a close observer of filed with the county clerk Monday, Mr. the growing crops wherever he was, yet D'Arcy sets forth that the results ar-

The greater part of the wool clip of he has never seen wheat looking better rived at by the canvaseing board differ Baker county and much of that of Grant than it does between Pendleton and essentially from the returns published is being stored in Baker City. Flock- Athena this year, says the East Ore- in the newspapers. He thinks that a next three weeks, Umatilla county will harvest her banner crop.

believing that this climate is as good as any. Her many friends hope to see her

J. W. Lathrop, of Oroville, California, passed through Long Creek the other morning en route to the Stickeen river,

Alaska. Mr. Lathrop has a good outfit consisting of eight head of mules, and was accompanied by three men. He fully recovered in a short time.

The cooler weather which has pre- a small attendance, but a very interest- his selection received the usual applause vailed during the past few days makes ing and profitable meeting was held, and encores. Miss Georgia Sampson arch of all he surveyed ;" but his right the crop prospects much more cheering and some of the papers caused an ani- played several selections on the plano. will now be disputed. His Dalles in Eastern Oregon. During the hot mated discussion. Dr. Eshelman was As yet we have not learned what the friends, however, extend their congrat- spell many of our people were very anx- elected president for the ensuring year. proceeds of the festival were but are ious to go to the seaside and mountains The society adjourned to meet in Port- sure the ladies realized a handsome Land Commissioner Binger Hermann for summer outings, and quite a number land next year.

Four hundred visitors are in the city advising him that an effort is being ther has caused others to change their of Walla Walla to attend the 16th encampment of the G. A. R., department of Washington and Alaska, and kindred

Tuesday the 7th, by William Rolfe. is ization held a session preliminary to the coughs, colds, bronchitis, pneumonia, Robert Smith, who was so seriously still alive, although in a dangerous con- regular encampment, which begun yes- grippe, asthma, and all throat and lung injured by a horse at Dutch Flat on dition. The following description of the terday, whengthere was a big parade. A diseases. Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

Snake country will be shown.

The O. R. & N. Co. has added many that but a further slight rise is likely improvements to the Bonneville picnic to occur.

illness of H. D. Parkins, who is confined grounde, and this beautitul spot is now in excellent order. During the summer and the Columbia at Northport has risen sweet, generous disposition. The groom season tickets will be sold at The Dalles only .4 of a foot; at Umatilla the rise is to Bonneville and return every Sunday only .2 of a foot. for the low rate of $1 for the round trip. Tickets will be sold for train No. 3, leaving The Dalles at 6:55 a.m. every Sunday, and will be honored for return paswill not exceed 21 feet, while at The Our Eastern Oregon farmers can now sage on trains Nos. 4 and 2, same date. Dalles 36 feet is thought to be the limit.

> We learn from Mrs. John O'Leary, who came up from Portland Wednesday of St. Mary's Academy, that her husband, who was shot several weeks ago by young Walker at Grass Valley, is getting along as nicely as could be expected. For a time it was feared that he would lose his leg, but the doctors have concluded they can save it. Her from Ann Arbor medical college, is in win Parkins and Professor Eyan rendered two guitar and mandolin solos.

The twenty-second annual meeting of Miss Clara Nickelson gave a piano solo, the Homoeopathic Medical Society con- while Misses Clara and Julia Nickelson vened at the Methodist church at 9 rendered two beautiful instrumental o'clock Tuesday morning. There was duets. Professor Lundell also sang, and

We can save you money. Mays & Crowe.

Thousands of sufferers from grippe Latest reports from Antelope state organizations. Tuesday afternoon the bave been restored to health by One supply all demands. The program was varied and interesting throughout. Ir-basin, then the small amount of snow yet remaining will not be melted until a varmer period again occurs. In the in-ficient to produce a further rise. With-in six days the rise will probably cease. teeth.

lumbia river basin. Monday the max- Kellar, of this city, Rev. L. Grey, of the supply of snow is almost exhausted, and a splendid wedding supper was served.

The bride is favorably known in this city, and is a great favorite with those The Snake is stationary at Riparia who recognize her worth and know her is an enterprising young business man of San Joaquin, Calif.

The river will continue to rise slowly The young couple left on the early morning train yesterday for their Califor the next several days. It is expected that the maximum raise at Portland fornia home.

NOTICE.

All able-bodied men wanting to enlist The weather is cloudy, showery and quite warm over the Columbia river as volunteers for the purpose of joining basin. Tuesday the maximum temper. Co. L, now at Manila, call at the armory ature decreased a few degrees. The every evening at 8 o'clock.

LIEUT. G. E. BARTELL, Recruiting Officer.

The Modern Beauty

Thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. If her system needs the cleansing action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant Syrup of Figs, made by the California

Use Clarke & Falk's Rosofoam for the

PLANO Headers, Reapers,

Mowers and Rakes.

BUCKEYE Reapers and Mowers.

HODGE Mowers and Rakes.

EXTRAS FOR THE ABOVE.

And don't forget that the "RUSHFORD" is a little bit the Best Wagon made.

THE DALLES, OR

Get our prices on Banner Buggies.

rivers continue to rise slightly. The very small rise is indicative of an early cessation of the rise. At Umatilla the rise in the river will about one foot more. The temperature will slowly fall over the Columbia river be about two feet more; at The Dalles about 3.8 feet more and at Portland son, Albert, who was recently graduated

Portland with his father.

The ice cream social given by the Lutheran ladies last evening was a terval the water now present will run Fig Syrup Co., only. grand success. At 9:30 the ice cream off and the next supply will not be sufgrand success. At 9:30 the ice cream gave out, but a new supply was immediately secured which was ample to