EUROPEAN INTERFERENCE.

From Washington comes the semi-official assurance that Germany will not be a troublesome neighbor when the time comes to settle with Spain on terms of peace. Our government has this assurance from the highest quarters-probably from the American minister at Berlin, who had it from the emperor or his ministers, or from the German ambassador at Washington. The presence of five German warships at Manila may therefore be dismissed as not a hostile demonstration, but rather a sincere and proper step for the protection of German interests in the Philippines.

European interference from any source has now become a remote possibility. The European powers. though inclined at times to regard the United States somewhat contemptuously, have long shown a disinclination to arouse the sleeping lion, Not that the lion has stirred himself to warlike action, we shall see increasing respect for the flag of this nation.

None of the European powers is in a position to court war with this country. All have troubles of their own, and the thrones of most of them are a little shaky. Their great standing armies are little more than well drilled militia, having seen no actual service, and their navies are untried, and therefore of unknown effectiveness. WAR AND BUSINESS.

According to Dun's Weekly Review of Trade, the war is hardly a perceptible factor in the business of the country. Very little, relatively, of the new business was created by it, and still less perceptible is its effect in the prevention of trade and

The general feeling is that the war the result. The business men of the country base their calculations upon a short war and the acceptance by Spain of such terms of peace as the United States government may dictate. No doubt important business results will follow the close of the war; but as yet industries have received no marked impetus, except war, and all those combined are not capable of materially affecting the volume of general business in the country at large.

But when once peace has been established, American enterprise will be sure to cast about to see what that the American troops in Cuba and acreage. Terms reasonable. new opportunities are presented for have met a disagreeable surprise in of the Wasco Warehouse Co.

TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE.

The London Star is authority for a report that a part of Camara's squadron left bim near Gibraltar, and is now steaming across the Atlantic to Puerto Rico, "to join the squadron of torpedo boats which Captain Villamil has had concealed there for three weeks past. This fleet," the correspondent naively adds, "will attack Admiral Sampson in the rear, while Admiral Cervera attempts a sortie simultanaously with the commencement of the land battle. Thus Admiral Sampson will be too preoccupied to help General

Unfortunately this is too good to be probable. Nothing in Spain's recent naval maneuvers encourages the hope that she will bring out her ships and fight any warships that fly the star-spangled banner. A School Girl's Nerves.

This record is of especial value to parents. It's a message from a loving mother dedicated to the mothers of growing girls. A truthful narrative of the utmost interest and import.

It is important that the nerves are carefully guarded. Mothers who have young daughters of school age should watch their health more carefully than their studies. The proper development of their bodies is of first importance.

After the confinement of the school room, plenty of out-door exercise should be taken. It is better that children never learn their a, b, c's, than that by over-study they lose their health.

All this is self-evident. Everyone admits it—everyone knows it, but everyone does not know how to build the health up when once broken down, even the best physicians failing at times.

The following method of Mrs. Stephen

"It became necessary, however, for her to leave school.

"She was overtaxed mentally and physically.

Her nerves were at such a tension that the least noise irritated her.
"She had continual twitching in the arms and lower limbs and symptoms of "Her blood was out of order she was thin and pale, almost lifeless. In three months she lost twenty-three pounds.

"We did everything possible for her, and she had the best of medical treatment.

"Several skilled physicians attended her, but no benefit was apparent.

"A family friend visiting us, told how her daughter had been similarly affected, but cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

She urged us to try the pills, and we finally consented.

"We have always rejoiced that we did.

"The pills helped Lucy at once, and after taking eight boxes she was entirely "She is now in perfect health, strong, weighs ten pounds more than ever before, and her cheeks are full of color. "Two years of schooling were missed on account of ill health, but now she can gratify her ambition to study and become an educated woman. The reason that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People were helpful in the above case, is that they are composed of vegetable remedies which act directly on the impure blood, the foundation of disease. As the blood rushes through all parts of the body, the conveyer of good or bad health, it is necessary that it should be pure, rich and red.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood by supplying its life giving elements which nourishes the various organs, stim-ulating them to activity in the performance of their functions and thus drives disease from the system. The pills are in universal demand and sold by all druggists.
