During the last week the run of salmon on the upper river has been very encouraging. Traps and operators of nets have been making good catches, and the canneries are kept busy disposing of the fish. Along with what is being canned, a considerable amount is sent to the eastern markets.

You and I and our neighbors are quick to judge a man by his appearance. If he looks the vagahond we want nothing to do with him. We should expect, then, to be judged by the same standard, and remember that there is no excuse for unsightly dress, now that Pease & Mays are selling the famous $10 H., S. & M. suits for $7.85.

The splendid new flag which will be donated by the contractors, architects and workmen as well as the firms who furnished the material for the new school building, is on exhibition in Nickelson's window. It is a beautiful article, its dimensions being 10x20 feet and when raised in place on the 4th can be viewed from all parts of the city.

Last night someone entered the residence of Henry Rodman, on Front street, near the Umatilla House, and stole $8.00 in silver, a coat, a pair of blankets and some other articles of clothing. The entrance was made through the rear by ascending a laider to the back door. Diligent search was made for the theif, but he was not

The Dufur brass band led the third division and consisted of The Dailes firemen in the following order: Chief Engineer Gunning, with his sides; the Jackson Engine company, the Columbia Hose company, the East End Hose company, Mt. Hood company and the Juvenile Hose company, consisting of a number of small boys.

The parade moved down Second to Union and then up that street to the new school building in the Academy park. The beautiful flag donated by the contractors, architects and material men was formally presented in a stirring speech by Hon. John Michell. At the conclusion of his speech the flag was The Dailes band played "The Star Spangled Banner."

The celebration throughout was a vinced that more patriotic people than those in the Dalles could not be found.

Everyone appeared to enjoy the day, and if they did not it was no fault on the part of the different committees, for Joles and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alden they did their duty in every regard and worked as hard as men could work for the success of the day's proceedings. In conclusion we can safely say that their efforts have been amply rewarded and that the celebration of 1898 was the best The Dalles has ever had.
