

THE FAREWELL OF A SPANISH INFANTRYMAN

A Soldiers Tribute to a Victorious Foe.

HE LOVES NOT THE CUBANS

Most Remarkable Document From a Vanquished Adversary - Thanks and Best Wishes Tendered By the Spanish Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.-A document entirely unique in the annals of warfare was cabled to the war department today by General Shafter. It is in the form of a congratulatory farewell address issued to the soldiers of the American army by Pedro Lopez de Castillo, a private Spanish soldier, on behalf of the 11,000 Spanish soldiers. No similar document, perhaps, was ever before issued to a victorious army by a vanquished adversary. The president was very much impressed by the address, and after reading it carefully, authorized its publication. The following is the text of the address as cabled by General Shafter:

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 22.-H. C. Corbin, Adjutant-General, U. S. A., Washington: The following letter has just been received from the soldiers just embarking for Spain:

"Major-General Shafter, Commanding the American Army in Cuba.-Sir: The Spanish soldiers who capitulated in this place on July 16th last, recognizing your high and just position, pray that through you all the courages and noble soldiers under your command may receive the greatest wishes and farewell which we send them on embarking for our beloved Spain. For this favor, which we have no doubt you will grant, you will gain the everlasting gratitude and consideration of 11,000 Spanish soldiers, who are your most humble servants.

PEDRO LOPEZ DE CASTILLO, "Private of Infantry."

Also the following letter, addressed to the soldiers of the American army: "Soldiers of the American army: We would not be fulfilling our duty as well-born men in whose breasts there lives gratitude and courtesy, should we embark for our beloved Spain without sending to you our most cordial and sincere good wishes and farewell. We fought you with ardor, with all our strength, endeavoring to gain the victory, but without the slightest rancor or hate toward the American nation. We have been vanquished by you (so our generals and chief judged in signing the capitulation), but our surrender and the bloody battles preceding it have left in our souls no place for resentment against the men who fought us nobly and gallantly. You fought in compliance with the same call of duty as we, for we all but represent the power of our respective states.

"You fought us as men, face to face, and with great courage, as before stated, a quality with which we have not met during the three years we have carried on this war against the people without morals, without conscience and of doubtful origin, who would not confront the enemy, but hidden, shot their noble victims from ambush and then immediately fled. This was the kind of warfare we had to sustain in this unfortunate land. You have complied exactly with all the laws and usages of war as recognized by the armies of the most civilized nations of the world; have given honorable burial to the dead of the vanquished; with humanity have respected and cared for your prisoners and their comfort, and, lastly, to us, whose condition was terrible, you have given freely of food, of your stock of medicines, and you have honored us with distinguished courtesy, for, after the fighting, the two armies mingled with the utmost harmony.

"With this high sentiment of appreciation from us, all there remains but to express our farewell, and with the greatest sincerity, we wish you all happiness and health in this land which will no longer belong to our dear Spain, but will be yours, who have captured it by force and watered it with your blood, as your conscience called for, under the demand of civilization and humanity, but the descendants of the Congo and of Guinea mingled with the blood of unscrupulous Spaniards and of traitors and adventurers, these people are not able to exercise or enjoy their liberty, for they will find it a burden to comply with the laws which govern civilized communities.

"From 11,000 Spanish soldiers. "PEDRO LOPEZ DE CASTILLO, "Soldier of Infantry. "Santiago de Cuba, August 21, 1898. SHAFER, Major-General.

THE STARS AND STRIPES ARE RAISED

Old Glory Waving Proudly O'er New Scenes.

THE REPUBLIC IS NO MORE

America's First Break Toward Territorial Expansion--Impressive and Beautiful Ceremony at Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.-The steamer Belgic this evening brought the following:

HONOLULU, Aug. 12.-Precisely at eight minutes to 12 o'clock today the Hawaiian flag descended from the flagstaff on all the government buildings, and exactly at five minutes to the same hour, the Stars and Stripes floated on the tropical breeze from every official flagstaff.

The ceremony of today was a most impressive one. To hear the strains of "Hawaii Pono" for the last time, as a national anthem, to hear the bugle blow taps as the Hawaiian ensign sank from his position, and to notice the emotion of many who had been born under it and had lived under it, was solemn. But then came the bright call for raising Old Glory, and the strains of the "Star Spangled Banner" broke forth as that banner was unfurled to the breeze. Then cheers broke forth, and eyes which had been dim for a few moments became bright and lightened up when the Stars and Stripes blew out.

The picture presented in and around the extensive building was most striking. In the grounds and around all the approaches were crowds of onlookers of every station of a varied nationality. Notably remarkable was the number of Hawaiians. Within the grounds the military and naval display was fine. Hawaiian troops, United States marines, the mounted patrol, the police and the citizen's guard presented a splendid appearance, while the platform for the exercises and the verandas of the executive building were gay with brilliant summer dresses, dancing feathers and ribbons and the brightest faces that Honolulu possessed.

The ceremonies opened with prayer by Rev. G. L. Pearson, pastor of the First Methodist church, of this city. United States Minister Sewall then rose, and, addressing President Dole, who had risen, presented him with a certified copy of the joint resolution of congress annexing the Hawaiian islands to the United States.

AMERICAN TARS RETURN HOME

Cannon Boomed and Whistles Shrieked Beside Which Every Person of Sound Lung Cheered Then Cheered Again.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.-New York and the nation have fitly signaled their appreciation of the achievements of the victorious fleet. Early this morning a citizens' committee of ten boarded Admiral Sampson's flagship near Tompkinsville. The welcoming ceremonies were short, but impressive. The ceremonies over, amid the hoarse shrieking of steam whistles and the hosannas of the throngs on the shores and water, the mayor and committee boarded the steamer Glen Island.

There was a salute of cannon, and the cheers of the people and thousands of whistles made an indescribable din. Soon the monster pageant was in line. The great battleships moved slowly and majestically. As governor's island was passed there was a tremendous report from the guns that did so much execution at Santiago and Guantanamo. The people on shore and afloat went wild. They yelled and screamed, waved flags and jumped up and down in patriotic fervor, and so it was all the way to Grant's tomb, where there was a final demonstration of patriotic fervor, such as New York has never witnessed before. The pageant was viewed and cheered by hundreds of thousands of people. It was a magnificent and indescribable scene, and one never to be forgotten. The flagship New York led Sampson's fleet into port this morning, passing the Hook at 8 a. m. She was followed by the Iowa and Indiana. Then came the Brooklyn and Massachusetts, the Oregon guarding the rear.

Sampson is looking far better than when the war commenced, and is very glad to get home. Speaking of the crews, and especially the crews of the Indiana, Iowa and New York, who have had no shore liberty for seven months, he said: "They have borne privations in a manner beyond all praise."

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers.

The delinquent taxes of Wasco county, as shown on the rolls now in the hands of the sheriff are $60,000, an amount almost equal to the indebtedness of the county. Every citizen will doubtless admit that this state of affairs should not exist, and that all taxes should be collected. On account of hard times in the past the county court has shown leniency to taxpayers, but that leniency has reached the limit, and the court cannot wait longer on delinquents to make settlements. For this reason a warrant has been attached to each delinquent roll commanding the sheriff to collect all taxes by seizure and sale of property. With a bountiful crop now in sight, there can no longer be any reasonable excuse for the non-payment of taxes. The sheriff is bound by oath to comply with the terms of the warrants attached to the tax rolls for the collection thereof, and has no option in the matter. Delinquent taxpayers can save the cost of seizure and sale of property by settling their taxes at once.

Sheriff and Tax Collector for Wasco County. Dated, August 4, 1898.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

THE NATIVE SONS OF OREGON

Organization of the Society--Its Aims and Objects and Splendid Prospects for the Future.

In the city of Portland, during the months of June and July of this year a society was organized, known as "The Native Sons of Oregon," the objects of which are, as expressed in its articles of incorporation and constitution, to bring the native born adults of our fair state into a closer union; to promote acquaintance with each other; to inculcate the principles of friendship, personal association and mutual co-operation among members of the order; to encourage intercommunication, interchange of thought and ideas and as frequent fraternal visitation as the means of travel and the claims and demands of business cares and obligations will admit. To develop the mental and physical faculties of its members and to aid and assist each other in every possible manner at any and at all times. In other words, to create between native born Oregonians a bond of sympathy, of friendship and fraternity similar in point of comparison to that between members of an affectionate family, which is the strongest tie known to humanity. It is designed to create between its members a bond of brotherhood stronger than that of any other society, voluntary or corporate, secret or public, civic, religious or military. Among its many laudable and noble purposes are numbered as prominently as, if not more so perhaps than any other, "those of the gathering together and preservation of facts and details of Oregon's early history, the experiences and biographies of its noble and heroic pioneers and the perpetuation of the memories of those devoted men and women who, bearing the dangers of mountain fastnesses and sterile plains, endured the hardships and personal privations incident to journeys whose trials, deprivations and horrors have never been half told or understood, to lay the foundations of our hearthstones strong and deep in the land of our birth, our beloved Oregon."

It is the purpose of this association to have the parent tree in the city of Portland because of the superior facilities to be had in a city of the size and in the present position of Portland.

It is intended to proceed immediately with all possible expedition to organize branch cabins in every town and village in the state with a view to having a large representation of cabins present at the annual session of the grand cabin to be held in Portland, June 13, 1899.

The institution and installation of cabins have already begun in Portland, and charters, constitutions, blanks and all necessary paraphernalia are now ready for distribution [including secret work, emblems, buttons, regalia, etc. The Order of Native Sons, for so it is by reason of its secret work, is made secret with appropriate symbolism for the purpose of giving a cohesiveness that can be found in no other feature of organized work.

Celebrate the Sixtieth Anniversary of Their Wedding.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Sargent were happy in the fact that they were permitted to celebrate the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding and to entertain a number of their friends upon the auspicious occasion. Fortunate indeed are a husband and wife who have lived to a happy old age side by side, and on their sixtieth anniversary find themselves so happily situated and in such good health as this aged couple. However, one would have to be convinced before they could realize that either one of them had passed the eightieth mile-stone, so little does their age tell upon them.

On the evening named a number of their intimate friends gathered to extend their congratulations and spend a pleasant evening. It was an event which was thoroughly enjoyed by all and will impress itself on their memories. Several very useful and beautiful presents were received by the happy couple, expressing the good wishes and friendship of the donors.

Mr. and Mrs. Sargent are beloved by all with whom they come in contact, and not only those who were guests, but their host of friends extend their congratulations, and wish they may spend many more years of happiness together.

WEDDING BELLS.

Marriage of B. L. Davidson to Miss Edith P. Potter of Hood River--A Delightful Wedding.

Upon the principles of christianity, and the duties and obligations of christian wedlock recognized and faithfully discharged, rests the stability and permanency of our government, the sanctity of the home and the virtue and honor of our social institutions. These things rightly understood impart to a wedding more than the ordinary or passing interest, and invests such an occasion with a solemnity, and yet with a joy and delight all too lightly appreciated.

On August 18, 1898, your contributor had the pleasure of attending the delightful wedding of Mr. Benjamin L. Davidson and Miss Edith Pearl Potter, at Belmont, in the unsurpassed Hood River valley, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Potter, famous throughout the whole countryside for their generous and cordial hospitality. By a happy coincidence, the occasion was also the anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Potter, who have been married thirty-seven years.

Rev. Robert Warner, presiding elder of The Dalles district, solemnized the wedding of their daughter to Mr. Davidson, and the marriage with the ring and the responsive service was very interesting and impressive. The bride was tastefully attired in conventional white, with veil and appropriate flowers. Under the marriage bell the happy couple received the heartfelt congratulation of their parents, relatives and friends, and then led the way to the dining room, where all partook of an elaborate and bountiful supper amid mirthfulness and genuine good feeling.

The prevailing atmosphere might well indicate to a looker on, that the present was an omen of the other similar occasions from among the happy group. And why not?

The invited guests, a number of whom were childhood friends of the bride, were:

Rev Robert Warner, The Dalles; Mr and Mrs Frank McFarland, sister of the bride, Earl Carrol, Victor McFarland, Mr and Mrs E Quackenbush and Fred Quackenbush, all of Portland; Rev and Mrs G R Archer, Mr W Isenberg, Mr M Isenberg, Miss Bees Isenberg, Miss May Chapman, Mr W Johnson and Miss Maggie Frazier, Mrs Castner, Mr J Gregory and Eddie McFarland, of Hood River; Mr Thomas Gregory, Mr L Gregory and Miss Ruth, of Portland University.

A slight personal allusion will indicate the happy auspices, under which these young people embark upon the sea of life together. Mr. Davidson is studying for the Methodist ministry and is a general, earnest and devoted gentleman. Mrs. Davidson is a very sincere and sweet christian woman, and thoroughly in sympathy with her husband's life purpose. She seems to have inherited her mother's warm-heartedness, devotion and zeal in the christian life. If her lives are spared, the world will surely be richer and better for their presence in it.

Joe Forrest, living at Thorn Hollow, near Pendleton, had an accident Saturday that will make him timid about working in wells in the future. He was having a well dug on his place, his boys doing the work. Thinking he could make faster progress, he went himself into the well and piled the pick and shovel until time to come up, when he side by side, and on their sixtieth anniversary find themselves so happily situated and in such good health as this aged couple. However, one would have to be convinced before they could realize that either one of them had passed the eightieth mile-stone, so little does their age tell upon them.
