

COLLISION ON A RAILROAD IN MICHIGAN

Two Passenger Trains Come Together at Port Huron

MANY PERSONS ARE HURT

Panic Among the Passengers in the Collision.

FOUR CARS WRECKED

In the Rush for the Doors and Windows of the Car Many Women Were Trampled Under Foot, Many Slight Injuries Being Inflicted.

PORT HURON, Mich., August 25.—Twelve persons were more or less seriously injured in a collision on the Flint & Pere Marquette railway here.

The collision was between the Almont train and train No. 609, of the Saginaw division. The former was loaded with circus excursionists. Four cars of the Almont train were overturned and almost telescoped. The engine of the other train was derailed.

When the trains came together a frightful panic ensued, the 200 or more passengers in the overturned cars screaming and struggling to extricate themselves. In the excitement many women were trampled under foot and innumerable slight injuries inflicted.

A HAINAN INSURRECTION

American Missionaries and Converts Forced to Flee.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A Hong Kong special to the Herald says:

A serious insurrection has broken out at Nadoo, in the interior of the Hainan island. The American missionaries and native converts have sought refuge in safe territory.

On August 14th, the rebels fought the soldiers, who used the American Presbyterian property as defenses and repelled the attack.

Nadoo is ninety miles from Hoisow, one of the richest valleys on the island. Unless the revolt is speedily suppressed the insurgents will probably be reinforced by refugees from Kwangsi, where the officials are coping with the recent rebellion.

Should it not be suppressed, there is an opportunity for French interference. The French are using vigorous means to protect the native Christians near Kwang Chow Wan, and are extending their influence in Southern China, which, at present, is very much needed.

A HARVEST FIELD ACCIDENT

Boiler to a Threshing Machine Blows Up Instantly Killing One Man and Scalding Five Others.

EGGERS, Or., Aug. 25.—By the explosion of the boiler of an engine used to operate a thresher on the farm of J. F. Kirk, fifteen miles west of here, early this morning, one man was instantly killed and five terribly scalded by escaping steam.

The threshing crew was just preparing to begin work and a group of men were standing about the engine, when without a warning the boiler exploded, scattering pieces of iron and hurling steam in all directions.

It is supposed that the boiler, which was an old one, became filled with water on account of the gage being out of order. The steam gauge registered eighty pounds just before the explosion of the boiler.

Ellory Kirk was the man who was killed. Those who were injured by the water are: John Lemley, Henry McBee, Tony and James Bryant, and John Gibson.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures. That is what it was made for.

LAST OF THE SOLDIERS LEAVE CUBA

All of Shafter's Army Will Have Embarked Today.

GENERAL SAILS FROM SANTIAGO

Command all Embarked Except Detachment of Recruits of the First Illinois Volunteer Infantry and Part of Ninth Massachusetts.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The last of Shafter's army will sail from Cuba tomorrow. The following dispatch was received at the war department late this afternoon:

"SANTIAGO, via Hayti, Aug. 25.—Adjutant-General, U. S. A., Washington: Command all embarked except detachment of recruits of the First Illinois volunteer infantry and a part of the Ninth Massachusetts volunteer infantry, all of which will embark tomorrow morning on transports now here. General Butt, with the First Illinois on the Berlin, and the Berkshire with 450 convalescents, leave this morning for Montauk point. I leave with headquarters and one company of the First infantry on the Mexico by noon today. Instructions about the Orizaba proceeding to Montauk point just received. The Allegheny left yesterday with the Ninth Massachusetts on board. The Unionist, having on board one company of the First Illinois and private horses, leaves today. The Saratoga, with Lieutenant Freedman and 350 of the Fifth infantry, arrived this morning; 300 more are expected on the Knickerbocker in two or three hours. SHAFTER, Major-General."

INTERSTATE ASSOCIATION

Two Press Associations Now in Session at Spokane.

SPOKANE, Aug. 25.—All the trains from the west and south brought in big delegations of newspaper men to attend the annual convention of the Washington and Oregon State Press Associations. Tonight there are in the city more than 2000 visiting editors and publishers, and as many of them are accompanied by members of their families, the total is nearly 4000.

The meetings of the two associations are held in the same building, but in different halls. In the absence of Pres. Scooby of the Washington association, First Vice-President Brant, of Vancouver, presided. President George B. Small, of Baker City, presided at the meeting of the Oregon Association. Both associations held business meetings in the forenoon and afternoon, and later in the day the two associations held a joint meeting.

In response to an invitation from the managers of the Omaha exposition, the associations selected September 16 as Oregon and Washington Editorial day at the exposition.

The Oregon association has selected Astoria as the next place of meeting, and the committee appointed by the Washington association has chosen Seattle.

At 6 o'clock this evening the visitors were taken for a trolley ride around the city.

In the afternoon the women of the two associations were given a musical reception at the Hotel Spokane, which was attended by 500 women. Tonight a public reception was given the visitors at the Auditorium. Tomorrow the city's guests will put in the day at Lake Coeur d'Alene. A banquet will be served on the lake shore.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's [drug store]. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

HOSTILITIES STILL CONTINUE THROUGHOUT CUBA

The Government Threatens to Send the Spanish Troops in Cuba Against the Insurgents Unless the Latter Ceases Operations.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—According to a Madrid dispatch to a local news agency there has been serious fighting between the Spaniards and insurgents in Cuba, in which the insurgents lost 500 killed and wounded. The report cannot be confirmed from other sources.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—A dispatch to Herald from Madrid says:

There is a growing feeling of irritation which has been discussed fully in ministerial circles, at the failure of the insurgents to respect the protocol and order for cessation of hostilities. An important political personage said: "If matters continue thus, Spain will find herself compelled to stop the repatriations of the Cuban troops unless the United States can give a guarantee that Spanish interests will be safeguarded from the practical inclinations of the insurgents."

The matter is at such a point that if the insurgents continue hostilities, the government, according to the most important ministerialists, will give orders to the Spanish troops to take the offensive against those insurgents who do not respect the protocol.

H. S. Rubens, consul for the Cuban delegation, said it was possible small bands of Cubans were still fighting in the interior.

There are no telephone or telegraph wires over the island, and it is thought that some of the bands are possibly not yet aware of the cessation of hostilities.

FLEET TO BE KEPT IN TRIM

Will Certainly Be Kept in Tact Pending a Definite Conclusion of the Peace Negotiations.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A Washington special to the Herald, under date of today says:

Acting Secretary Allen said in an interview that there is no intention on the part of the government to diminish the fighting strength of the North Atlantic squadron until peace has actually been declared. For the present and pending a conclusion of the peace negotiations, the squadron under command of Rear-Admiral Sampson will be kept in tact, with a view to meeting any emergency that may arise.

Mr. Allen added that much time and money had been expended in the assembling of a formidable fleet of warships, and it would not be judicious to disband or scatter that fleet prematurely. Various ships will be sent to the several navy yards to receive such repairs as they may need, but they will be continued in service and prepared for immediate action.

Mr. Allen says there have been no requests from the people of the Pacific coast for the return of the battleship Oregon. It is possible that she may at some future time return to the Pacific station, but for the present she will remain with the North Atlantic squadron.

BRITISH ON TO OMDURMAN

The Campaign on the Nile—Lhalifa Preparing to Fight.

WADY HEYNEH, Aug. 25.—The whole Anglo-Egyptian expedition has arrived here, and the column is now commencing to advance to El Hajid, where final concentration will be made for the march on Omdurman, forty miles distant, which will occupy two days, if the Khalifa decides to await attack at Omdurman as it now appears very probable he will.

Refugees are arriving daily from Omdurman. They all agree that the Khalifa means fight. The report that he has 70,000 men. The attack is expected to occur about Sept. 4th.

Our camp of 20,000 men, extending three miles, with the white gunboats and an innumerable fleet of native boats presents a picturesque sight to witness tonight. Wady Hemed is a village forty miles above Metammeh and between fifty and sixty miles from Omdurman.

A CASE OF INSANITY.

An Insane Person Arrested Yesterday at Mr. Sechler's Farm.

Yesterday an individual came to the farm of Mr. Sechler near this city and asked for something to eat. Mrs. Sechler got him a lunch and he informed her that there were a number of people trying to kill him and that he was being pursued. Mrs. Sechler noticed that he was mentally unbalanced and immediately told her husband and William Spencer about the matter.

They at once investigated and concluded that her supposition was correct. He was continually watching some imaginary persons and was terribly frightened. Mr. Spencer did his utmost to quiet him and succeeded in getting him to accompany him to the city where he was lodged in jail. There is a possibility that his trouble has been caused by the excessive use of liquor and that the illusion under which he labors may pass away in a short time.

He will be examined by physicians and if they adjudge him insane he will be committed to the asylum in Salem. He informed Mr. Spencer that his name was Hesse but as it was hard to get any information out of him, nothing was learned as to where he is from or where he intends going.

OBITUARY.

Sarah E. Terry was born in Madison county, Iowa, Jan. 15, 1873, and died in Klickitat county, Wash., Aug. 20, 1898, aged 25 years, 7 months and 6 days. She was married to Albert Anderson, Sep. 2, 1890, and moved to this county in 1893, residing in the neighborhood of Blockhouse ever since.

When about 16 years of age she was converted and united with the Methodist church, of which she was a consistent member until death. Although, owing to ill health, she was not permitted to attend church often after coming here, she maintained her christian experience and her last days were days of christian triumph. The deathbed scene was one of marvelous victory, the spirit triumphing over the bodily suffering and her constant testimony was of a present Christ.

She leaves a husband and three small children to mourn the loss of a faithful wife and kind mother.

The funeral services were conducted at Spring Creek by Rev. N. Evans, after which the body was interred in Spring Creek cemetery.—Sentinel.
