A RIVETING "HUSBANDMAN" PASSES AWAY
By W. H. HOPKINS

The Dalles, Ore., August 4, 1909

Family, friends, and business associates will remember with affection and veneration the late Mr. Fritz Dead, who passed away early last evening after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Dead was born in Germany in 1842. He came to this country at an early age, and has spent his entire life in the North West. He was a prominent citizen, and leaves behind him a large number of friends and business associates.

DEAD IN THE WATERS
By W. H. HOPKINS

The Dalles, Ore., August 4, 1909

A. B. Franklin, a well-known and beloved citizen of this city, passed away suddenly last evening while swimming in the Columbia River. Mr. Franklin was one of the oldest residents of this city, and was well known to all.

THE CHRONICLE; FORWARDS
By W. H. HOPKINS

The Dalles, Ore., August 4, 1909

The weekly Chronicle was published this week, and contains the usual news of the country and the world. The paper is well printed and well written, and is a credit to the city.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE.