WAR IS BEING WAGED AGAIN IN CRETAE

The Cretan insurgents have reported that the engagement at their post near the Cretan town of Tyrnavos, where the insurgents have been fighting against the Turks for several days, has resulted in severe losses to the Turks. The insurgents have gained some ground, and the Turkish forces are reported to have suffered heavy losses in personnel and equipment.

WHALERS LOST IN THE WATERS OF THE NORTH

Two whaling ships, the Fearless and the Bennington, have been reported missing in the waters of the Arctic. The ships were last seen on August 25th, and there have been no reports of their whereabouts since then. The fate of the ships and their crews remains unknown.

At Long Press and Probable Eight Vio-nets Caught and Condemn to the 1st Aide Post Barrack.

NO NEWS FROM THE CREWS

General Belief is No Lives Were Lost.

Wanderer Also Sank to Hear Starched

Herzfeld Island — The vessel Wanderer was lost without trace after leaving the port of Anchorage, Alaska, on August 20th. The crew, consisting of four men, was last seen in the vicinity of Herzfeld Island, and there have been no reports of their whereabouts since then.

EXTRA SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE

航线, Or., Sept. 5.—An extra session of the Oregon legislature will be called to

THE ANGLO-GERMAN AGREEMENT

Belinda General Tyne in interests in China and Africa.

Lioncourt, June 26.—The Full Mid-

East conference held in Paris last week resulted in an agreement, which is considered significant. The agreement provides for joint action in the event of a war between the United States and Germany. It also provides for reciprocal rights and duties in trade and navigation between the two countries.

ON THE FIELD

Official Record Shows That 29 Off-cers and Men Fell on the Battlefields of West Virginia During the War With the British.

Washington, D.C.—The official record shows that 29 officers and men of the United States military were killed on the battlefields of West Virginia during the war with the British. The list includes two officers and 27 men of the 2nd U.S. Infantry, who were killed in action on March 9, 1842. The list also includes two officers and 26 men of the 1st U.S. Infantry, who were killed in action on March 10, 1842.

QUIET RESTORED AT CANEAE

No Fears Entertained That Nothing Will be Impounded.

Canaea, Sept. 6.—The British battleship Fearless, which is at anchor at Canea, has returned to England after a long stay in the Mediterranean. The ship has been in Canea for several months, and the crew has been reduced to a minimum. The ship is now ready for its next cruise, and the crew are being transferred to other ships.

PEOPLE WANT TO VISIT THE WEST

President McKinley and a portion of the Cabinet will attend the World's Fair in Omaha.

Washington, Sept. 5.—President McKinley and a portion of the Cabinet will attend the World's Fair in Omaha. The President will arrive in Omaha on September 10th, and will remain there for several days. The Cabinet will attend the fair on September 11th.

FATHER CATHOLIC DECIDES TO REJECT THE RICKS CASE

Pittsburgh, Sept. 5.—The case of Father Catholic, who has been accused of advocating回来中国 in the United States, has been settled by a decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. The court has ruled that Father Catholic is not guilty of the charge.

COLONEL BENNETT WILL MAKE THE SURVEY FOR THE CALLING STATES AT FAMOUS POINTS.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—The United States government has been granted permission to erect a monument to the calling states at Famous Points. The monument will be erected in honor of the calling states, and will be a symbol of the friendship and cooperation between the United States and other nations.

MORE OFFICERS TO VISIT THE WEST

Colonel Bennett Decides to Revisit the Ricks Case.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 5.—Colonel Bennett, who has been investigating the case of Father Catholic, has decided to revisit the Ricks case in order to secure more information. The colonel has been ordered to make a thorough investigation of the case, and to report his findings to the military authorities.

NEW FURNACE PUT IN SERVICE.

Beverage, Mass., Sept. 5.—A new furnace has been put into service at the Beverage brewery. The furnace is capable of producing 20,000 barrels of beer per year, and is expected to increase the output of the brewery by 50%. The furnace is one of the largest of its kind in the United States, and is expected to be a great success.

SALOON REPIIRED AGAIN IN CRETAE

The insurgents have reported that the engagement at their post near the Cretan town of Tyrnavos, where the insurgents have been fighting against the Turks for several days, has resulted in severe losses to the Turks. The insurgents have gained some ground, and the Turkish forces are reported to have suffered heavy losses in personnel and equipment.

A FRACTIONAL STRIFE LEADS TO BLOODESRED.

A Deadly Fight at Colorado Springs.

The violence at Colorado Springs has been brought to an end by the intervention of the federal authorities. The leaders of the factional strife have been arrested, and the trouble is expected to die down soon.

ONE KILLED—ONE WOUNDED.

Teller Area Fills Panoramas of Its Happenings, Has Been Haunted by the Peace Officers.

Circular Ground, Sept. 7.—Early this morning a fight occurred in the Teller area, near Colorado Springs. Two men, representing State Chieftains Barlow and Snell, were killed, and several others were wounded. The fight was caused by a dispute over a political issue, and the federal authorities have promised to investigate the matter fully.