SAYS TURKISH SOLDIERS MUST BE WITHDRAWN

Note of the President of the Cretan Committee-Has Been Handed to the Foreign Admirals.

RESULT OF CANDAN KILLING

Particulars of the Bloody Battle of Yesterday.

Convention of the Cretan Assembly De manded and a Force of Cretans Placed at the Disposal of the International Administration.

CANEA, Sept. 3 .- The president of the Cretan executive committee has notified the foreign admirals that in view of the massacre at Canda it is impossible to continue the effort to organize the administration until the Turkish troops and functionaries have been withdrawn. He demands the convocation of the Cretan assembly, and proposes to place a force of Cretans at the disposal of the the international administration.

THE BATTLE OF YESTERDAY.

Turkish Troops Refuse to Aid in the Restoration of Order.

LONDON, Sept. 8 .- The correspondent of the Times, at Canda, telegraphing on Wenesday, fully confirms earlier reports of most serious events.

Lieutenant Haldad was killed and Lieutenant Sesgrave wounded. The soldiers pluckily carried Lieutenant Haldad's body to a boat, under a bail of bullets. The telegraph office was repeatedly set on fire, and the father of the telegraph superintendent was killed.

Worse is feared. As to the fate of the majority of the christians, it is reported that only 259 have been saved out of

The situation was extremely difficult. The Turkish troops refused to aid the British, and there being exceedingly few of the latter in the town, they were soon overpowered. Forty wounded were attended to by the warships.

Achievements of Our Ships Will Probably Bring Foreign Contracts to Scott's Opinion.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 .- Irving M. Scott, of San Francisco, vice-president and general manager of the Union Iron Works, at which the Oregon was built, arrived from Europe on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse and went to the Hollann house.

Mr. Scott said he went to Russia to further American interests on the eastern coast of Siberia, and incidentally to crack up the performances of Americanbuilt ships of war.

"The destruction of the torpedo-boats was the cause of a revision of all foreign naval programs. The battleship was elevated to the place and importance it deserves, and much doubt was thrown on the utility of the torpedo-boats. In consequence all the powers have curtailed their outlay for these crafts and are doing more for heavily armed and armored vessels."

Mr. Scott will spend a week or ten days in the city. During his stay he will visit his masterpiece, the Oregon, at the navy yard.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8-Secretary Alger has requested the president to order a thorough and searching investigation of the war department. In this request the secretary had been jorned by Adjutant-General Corbin. No decision has been reached yet by the president as to what course he will pursue. He has the sideration, but has not yet determined whether he will grant it or not.
