Our Fruit Exhibit At Omaha.

Yesterday Mr. F. S. Peet, of Portland, spent the day in this city endeavoring to awaken an interest in our fruit exhibit at the Omaha exposition, and succeeded somewhat in his mission. Today Pete Stadelman sent a fine exhibit of grapes direct to the grounds and others have signified their intention of following his example. One of our Eastern Oregon papers has been objecting seriously to the bill which has been in the legislature asking for $18,000 to defray the expenses of our exhibit there, saying that it has not been worth $15 to the state. In regard to the appropriation, we have nothing to say; but certain it is that the paper in question knows nothing of the many visitors who stop to wonder at and admire the Oregon fruit there displayed, while those who know just what an excellent ex-ashamed of what they behold. Mr. Peet informs us that a free rate on 1000 pounds a week has been secured through to Omaha, which leaves little excuse for our fruit men's neglect in failing to do this much towards advertising our state. It is to be hoped that J. A. Stevens is in the city today from many boxes of Wasco county's wonderful fruit will find their way to the ex-R. B.
