

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

OFFICIAL PAPER OF WASCOCO COUNTY.

Published in two parts, on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. BY MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, IN ADVANCE. One Year $1.00 Six Months .75 Three Months .50

Advertising rates reasonable, and made known on application. Address all communications to "THE CHRONICLE," The Dalles, Oregon.

Telephone No. 1.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Saturday's Daily.

Marriage license was today granted to Oliver Bowers and Ida L. Ganger, both of The Dalles.

The contract has been let by Seufert & Condon for the new telephone line between Dufur and Tygh.

A slight blaze occurred at the house owned by Dr. Hollister, and adjoining his residence, yesterday afternoon, the walk in the back yard catching fire from sparks from the laundry near by.

Yesterday afternoon when Lulu, daughter of L. L. Hill, was playing in the school yard of the old Academy building she stepped into a hole in the ground, which could not be noticed for the growth of grass, and falling broke her left wrist.

Little Grover Bonn is starting in life in the right manner, and yesterday presented the young ladies of the CHRONICLE force with a basket of sweetwater grapes, which were gathered from the vines at his home on the hill.

Mr. Simpson, the telephone operator at Canyon City, informs us that the first report that went abroad last week regarding the Indian trouble in Grant county, was erroneous to a great extent.

This morning word reached here of the death of Charles Shanks yesterday at Starbuck, Wash. His death was caused indirectly from typhoid fever.

Among the names of the boys in Manila to whom Christmas boxes have been forwarded by the Emergency Corps of Portland for relatives and friends, appears that of Admiral Dewey.

Courtland Green, whose trial for the murder of John Linn has been going on in Eugene, was sentenced yesterday to life imprisonment, he having confessed to complicity in the crime.

Last night Jackson Engine Company had a fire drill. Quite a number of members were present, and it is intended to occasionally have such drills, for the purpose of keeping in practice.

Prof. Ryan informs us that the Wilder Quintette Club, who are musicians of a high order and well known in Portland, will be in this city on Thursday, November 17th, and give a concert in the Baldwin. This will be good news to the music-loving public.

The frost is now on the "punkin," and the flowers as well, compelling all who wish to keep their plants alive to cover them.

Monday's Daily.

Mays & Crowe are now domiciled in their temporary quarters on the corner of Second and Federal streets.

Yesterday's Oregonian announces that the marriage of Miss Laura Knowles, of Portland and Mr. Frank Somerville, of Hay Creek, will be celebrated on Thursday, December 8th.

High bowling scores at the Umatilla last week were as follows: Monday, Nolan, 53; Tuesday, J. Flemming, 67; Wednesday, Maetz, 71; Thursday, Maetz, 71; Friday, Maetz, 70; Saturday, Maetz, 65; Sunday, S. Cathcart, 66.

At a meeting of the members of the Christian church last evening their pastor, Rev. Boltz, gave notice that it was his intention to enter the evangelistic field at the close of this year's work, as that has always been the work most preferable to him.

Yesterday morning the body of Charles Shanks was brought to this city and taken to the Crandall & Burget undertaking parlors. At 1:30 the funeral procession left for the cemetery, followed by members of the orders of Workmen and Foresters.

A gypsy outfit was in the city yesterday and left on the boat this morning. They must have belonged to the gypsy "400" from their outfit, one wagon of which they claim was worth $550.

The Sarah Dixon was delayed somewhat yesterday on account of the heavy wind, which is always more noticeable on the river. However, she arrived at the wharf last evening about 7:30 o'clock with the Dalles City and Regulator hells.

Residents awoke this morning to be greeted by a "cold frost," the coldest of the season, the thermometer being down to 29 degrees. At about 10 o'clock a few stray snow flakes were seen flitting in the air, reminding us that winter is at hand.

Yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents about five miles west of The Dalles, Oliver Bowers and Ida L. Ganger were united in marriage by Elder Wm. Michell.

In spite of the many privations and homesickness which our soldiers seem to be passing through, they have not forgotten their Dalles friends and many souvenirs have been received here. In the window of Van Norden's jewelry store a collection is displayed which was received Saturday by Miss Bertie Glenn.

For the past week the friends of Mrs. Joseph Erhart, who was taken to the hospital in Portland about a month ago to be treated for stomach trouble, have been hearing of the hopelessness of her case, and feared the worse, as her disease was pronounced cancer of the stomach.

Courtland Green, whose trial for the murder of John Linn has been going on in Eugene, was sentenced yesterday to life imprisonment, he having confessed to complicity in the crime.

Last night Jackson Engine Company had a fire drill. Quite a number of members were present, and it is intended to occasionally have such drills, for the purpose of keeping in practice.

Prof. Ryan informs us that the Wilder Quintette Club, who are musicians of a high order and well known in Portland, will be in this city on Thursday, November 17th, and give a concert in the Baldwin.

The frost is now on the "punkin," and the flowers as well, compelling all who wish to keep their plants alive to cover them.

Mr. Kinersly has solved a problem of great moment to the ladies of The Dalles, and from now on they may finish their shopping without being compelled to go home and find out whether their hats are on straight.

Mays & Crowe are now domiciled in their temporary quarters on the corner of Second and Federal streets.

Monday's Daily.

Yesterday's Oregonian announces that

nity hall about thirty young people joined them and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. The music furnished by the club proved to be excellent, as the time was perfect and the selections good.

Another serious accident occurred this afternoon when Hon. Robert Mays, who was assisting the workmen to remove some heavy stones which are being used in his new building, from the wagon, smashed his left hand very badly.

The funeral service of Philip Brogan, which took place this morning at 9 o'clock in the Catholic church, was one of the largest ever held in The Dalles, and the long procession which followed the remains to the cemetery evidenced the regard felt for the deceased, who met such an untimely death.

This morning Messrs. Ed Gleason and Tom Condon arrived in the city from Antelope with Joe Aubin, nicknamed "Slim," and Raymond Chavies, who are held as accessories to the murder of Philip Brogan.

The Prineville Review says concerning the large traction engine which was in The Dalles some months ago on its way to Silver Lake: "Last week we said that the people of Silver Lake might hear the whistle of Christman's engine next 4th of July, but we were mistaken."

The chapter of accidents and fatalities still continues, and we are compelled to chronicle one after another of these sad news items. About noon today Mr. C. G. Whitmore, who lives on the right fork of Mill creek, arrived in town bearing the news of the death of his father-in-law, James Hartman.

A "Lo" Fight.

The noble red man is making himself known in these parts of late, and Friday night distinguished himself by getting into a drunken fight.

LATER—Reports received here late this afternoon are to the effect that two persons have been arrested as suspects. Rewards have been offered, and the sheriff is now contemplating sending out a posse from here in pursuit of the fleeing fugitive from justice.

MANILA AS SHE IS.

A number of letters were received in the city this morning from our boys at Manila, and their contents were eagerly devoured by their relatives and friends.

He says they are anxious to get home, but nothing definite as to when they can return can be determined, some say before Christmas; others not for two years.

This Is Your Opportunity.

On receipt of ten cents, cash or stamps, a generous sample will be mailed of the most popular Catarrh and Hay Fever Cure (Ely's Cream Balm) sufficient to demonstrate the great merits of the remedy.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

STABBED TO DEATH

PHILIP BROGAN MURDERED AT ANTELOPE SATURDAY.

Frank Forester, His Camp Packer, Commits the Dreadful Deed and Escapes—Officers Sent in Pursuit of the Fugitive From Justice.

This seems to be a season of accidents and fatalities and The Dalles has not for years been so afflicted in the loss of citizens as during the past year or more. Yesterday morning residents were shocked to learn of the murder of one of its highly respected and prominent men, Philip Brogan, at Antelope.

Many conflicting reports may be heard in regard to the manner in which the dreadful affair took place, but as nearly as can be determined the facts are as follows: A man by the name of Frank Forester who has been working for Mr. Brogan for some time as camp packer owed Brogan $100, which he was to work out, and there was some misunderstanding as to its settlement.

During the day Forester and two companions, a fellow known as Slim and a Mexican followed Mr. Brogan from place to place, and seemed desirous of picking a quarrel, and at one time Forester and a Mr. Gumm had some hot words.

Saturday night Mr. Brogan was in Silvertooth's saloon in Antelope, when Slim, the Mexican and Forester entered. As they stepped to the bar, Brogan was invited to take a drink, but he refused, saying he did not feel well.

The murderer then dashed out of the saloon and escaped. Sheriff Brown at once sent a posse in pursuit, but no word has been received as to the result of their search.

"Phil" Brogan is a man of about 56 years, and was perhaps as widely known as any man in the county, having been in the sheep business near Antelope for years. That he should have met such a violent death is greatly to be regretted.

Reports as to Forester's character are conflicting, some saying he was not of a quarrelsome disposition, but that his deed must have been caused from a brain fired by liquor.

This morning Brogan's remains were brought to this city, accompanied by a number of friends of the deceased.

LATER—Reports received here late this afternoon are to the effect that two persons have been arrested as suspects. Rewards have been offered, and the sheriff is now contemplating sending out a posse from here in pursuit of the fleeing fugitive from justice.

MANILA AS SHE IS.

A number of letters were received in the city this morning from our boys at Manila, and their contents were eagerly devoured by their relatives and friends.

He says they are anxious to get home, but nothing definite as to when they can return can be determined, some say before Christmas; others not for two years.

He says they are anxious to get home, but nothing definite as to when they can return can be determined, some say before Christmas; others not for two years.

He says they are anxious to get home, but nothing definite as to when they can return can be determined, some say before Christmas; others not for two years.

This Is Your Opportunity.

On receipt of ten cents, cash or stamps, a generous sample will be mailed of the most popular Catarrh and Hay Fever Cure (Ely's Cream Balm) sufficient to demonstrate the great merits of the remedy.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

the troops there as the boys had in Cuba, only one man being lost out of Company L—Will Field. Fred Kennedy and Jim Elton were in the hospital when he wrote on Oct. 3d, but were not dangerously ill. Many of the boys are "dumpy," but able to drill.

Referring to their trip over on the Australia, he says: "We were treated like dogs. I have often fed hogs better than we were fed. The supplies put on board for us we never saw unless we paid for them. Yes, we did see them, but they were on the table in the cabin. The donation of tobacco made by the Durham company we also paid for, and after my money was gone I went without a smoke. Beside, we went to bed many a night hungry."

Letters published in the Oregonian recently verify these statements, and make the blood of every citizen boil as he thinks of the manner in which our boys have been treated. Many of them, indeed most of them, were from homes of luxury, and their bravery and patriotism in leaving all for their country is thus rewarded.

The Lafayette Entertainment.

The interest taken in anything given by our public schools was shown Saturday night when the Vogt opera house was crowded with an audience eager to hear the Lafayette entertainment. We will defy any city in Oregon to excel The Dalles in the standard of school programs rendered.

To mention any particular numbers would not be justice to the rest, but we cannot refrain from noticing the two tableaux, "France Consoling the Goddess" and "Unveiling the Lafayette Monument." In the former Miss Anna Haslam represented the Goddess of Liberty and Carrie Zeigler, France.

The receipts of the evening, which will be forwarded to the Lafayette fund, were over $50.

Every Thursday the Year Round.

In more than half a million homes THE YOUTH'S COMPANION comes every week, the welcome guest of young and old—read with equal interest by every member of the household.

Reports as to Forester's character are conflicting, some saying he was not of a quarrelsome disposition, but that his deed must have been caused from a brain fired by liquor. Others say he was always hot-headed and ready for a fight, having the reputation of being decidedly "tough."

This morning Brogan's remains were brought to this city, accompanied by a number of friends of the deceased.

LATER—Reports received here late this afternoon are to the effect that two persons have been arrested as suspects.

He says they are anxious to get home, but nothing definite as to when they can return can be determined, some say before Christmas; others not for two years.

He says they are anxious to get home, but nothing definite as to when they can return can be determined, some say before Christmas; others not for two years.

This Is Your Opportunity.

On receipt of ten cents, cash or stamps, a generous sample will be mailed of the most popular Catarrh and Hay Fever Cure (Ely's Cream Balm) sufficient to demonstrate the great merits of the remedy.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

INSTITUTE EXERCISES

Dedication of New School Building Near Barrett's District, No. 4.

The institute opened with a chorus, "Greeting Glee." Miss Grace Graham read an interesting paper upon Reading. She mentioned a number of good methods and devices to be employed in teaching reading.

Principal J. T. Neff gave an interesting talk upon the methods of teaching decimals. Mrs. R. R. Allard recited a pathetic poem entitled "On Guard."

The dedication exercises took place in the afternoon. A vocal chorus "Our Nation" was first on the program. Invocation by Rev. J. W. Jenkins followed and then a five minutes talk by Superintendent Gilbert upon what Wascoco county is doing along the line of building up schools.

The audience was then favored with another song by the school entitled "The Flag Above our House." The next scene was a presentation of a fine new flag by R. R. Imbler, who represented the pupils of the district. The presentation was neatly and eloquently made.

The acceptance by C. G. Canning was a patriotic review of several flag presentations occurring on or near some of the battle fields of the Civil war.

America was then sung by the entire audience, which then passed out and witnessed the raising and saluting of the new flag.

The next educational meeting is to be held at Frankton school house two miles west of Hool River, on Saturday, November 19th.

Teachers present: Superintendent C. L. Gilbert, J. T. Neff, Miss Erma Benson, Miss Nettie Hart, Miss Mella White, Miss Grace Graham, Miss Eliza Stevens, Miss Anna Smith, Miss Kate Davenport, Miss Hester Howe, Miss Nettie Kemp, Mrs. R. R. Allard, Mr. R. R. Allard, H. Howe, Mr. Edgar Stevens, Mr. Troy Shelly.

MRS. ERHART'S DEATH.

Funeral Will Take Place at the M. E. Church Tomorrow Afternoon.

The body of Mrs. Joseph Erhart was brought to the city on last evening's train, accompanied by her husband and daughter, Miss Edna. They were met at the depot by members of the Eastern Star, of which order Miss Erhart is a member.

Mrs. Alice Erhart, whose maiden name was Laycock, was born in Placer county, California, and was 44 years of age. She has resided in The Dalles for the past sixteen years, and has always been esteemed for her sweet disposition and generous nature.

She leaves, beside her husband, a daughter, Edna, son, Arthur, and three sisters and two brothers, her father and mother being dead. All her brothers and sisters reside in California except Wm. Laycock, who lives in Portland, and will be present at the funeral.

Ladies, No More Darning.

The Magic Hand Loom—made of polished rolled steel. Latest invention for mending clothing, underwear, table linens or heels and toes in hoisery. A child can work it. Perfect weave. Sent postpaid for 25c. Great Western Advertising and Novelty Co., 1155 1/2 Washington St., Oakland, Cal.

137