In each of the cases of T. J. Field vs. the O. R. & N. Co., B. A. Osgood vs. Isaac Dunn et al, and O. F. Showalter, administrator, vs. W. R. Winans et al, the sheriff was ordered to make out deeds.

And still another of Oregon's soldiers is dead. George Ernest Segar, of Portland, died at the presidio in San Francisco of pneumonia on November 20th.

Wheelbarrows are about as difficult articles to keep as umbrellas; they are eternally taking wings and flying away.

Yesterday a pair of glasses was picked up in front of THE CHRONICLE office. The owner can have them by calling at this office.

A runaway, which came nearer being a walkaway occurred this afternoon, when two horses attached to a heavy freight wagon decided to leave their station at Ruch's store for a broader field.

Two and three cents more a pound is being paid for turkeys this year than was charged last year. This increase has been caused from the extended demand and stationary supply.

Yesterday being the 14th birthday of Bertha Robinson, a number of her friends were invited to spend the evening with her at the home of Miss Nora Turner.

This evening Supt. O. L. Gilbert, Profs. Gavin and Landers will leave for Antelope to attend the educational meeting there. They will take their Thanksgiving dinner at Shear's and somehow we imagine they expect to eat more than one of such dinners this year.

It may not be generally known, but newspaper people have a few reasons for being thankful as well as common people. Have we not more to eat than most people? more turkeys, brought in on subscriptions, to gobble than anyone?

And now comes Portland to the front and in a short time has collected $167.40 for the Canyon City sufferers, beside articles of clothing, etc. The O. R. & N. Co., has kindly offered to deliver all supplies contributed, and the Telegram is to see that they are forwarded from Baker City.

Friday's Daily. And still the attention of the court is directed to the case of Mrs. M. J. Mosier vs. the O. R. & N. Co.

A marriage license was today granted to William F. Magill and Amelia M. Crofoot, both of this county.

Mr. Hoyle, who has been confined to his home for the past few weeks, we are informed is improving, and will be able to resume work in a short time.

THE CHRONICLE office has now on hand a supply of blanks for making application and affidavit for railroad land under the act of September 29, 1890.

The marshal this morning arrested a hobo and placed him in jail until he could make up his mind that in this world it is every man for himself, and comes to the conclusion that he'd use his muscle as a little more by means of procuring livelihood.

Captain White, who was one of the unfortunate victims of the Baldwin fire in San Francisco, was an old-time friend of J. H. Cradlebaugh, he having spent many years working side by side with him in the mines of Nevada.

Our streets are all "cut up" over the intrenchments which are being made on their rights. Today Union street is in the hands of a force of workmen who picks and shovels, and soon the new pipes will be laid to the reservoir. Before we are aware, the work on the new mains will be completed and we'll have water, water everywhere in abundance.

Yesterday George Smith, a 13-year-old boy, who lives about seven miles west of town, succeeded not only in cutting off the head of a goose, but the top of his left thumb. So serious was the injury to the member that Dr. Hollister was called, when the wound was dressed and it is thought he will not lose the use of the thumb.

The news of the suspected complicity of Edward Warren in the burning of Canyon City created a sensation in Minnville. He is a son of ex-Sheriff W. L. Warren, of that city, and comes from a highly respected pioneer family.

Our old ferry boat, which has been undergoing repairs for some time since, looks like a different craft now in its made-over clothes, and yesterday afternoon was launched onto the bosom of her old friend, the Columbia.

What came near being a destructive fire occurred at the residence of J. H. Wilburn, adjoining the Calvary Baptist church, Wednesday evening. The children, in playing, upset a lamp, which broke and caused the oil to spread promiscuously over the floor and then ignite.

In spite of the fact that many who were anxious to see the foot ball game yesterday were a little more anxious to finish their dinner, and therefore did not attend, there was a large crowd at the grounds and enthusiasm ran high. Somehow the picked team was decidedly "picked" and the score stood 21 to nothing in favor of the High school boys.

Much has been said and heard regarding the Wasco county fruit exhibit at the Oregon Industrial Exposition in Portland, and visitors who attended from this county returned proud that they lived in such a section of country. We were awarded first premium, and this morning the Commercial Club received a beautiful gold medal about the size of a $20 gold piece and a diploma of very neat design.

Billy Daly, who was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, and whom THE CHRONICLE spoke of as being very penitent, seems to have been a "dope" fiend ever since he was a mere boy, and was the cause of his crime.

police magistrate for the use of morphine he was one of the most ghostly living sights human ever beheld. He was both a physical and mental wreck. He was sent to the asylum and emerged from there the picture of health; but soon took hold of the deadly habit again and left Portland. The best place for him would be in an institute where, if possible, he could be cured of the habit.

THE MAIN QUESTION.

Work Being Pushed Rapidly - Where the Mains Will Be.

Work on the new water mains is progressing very rapidly, two thousand feet of ditch having been opened up during the past three days. About thirty workmen are employed and they are certainly doing their best, as the ground, being very rocky, is extremely hard to get a pick through.

The new mains are to be as follows: On Union from the reservoir for a distance of 2400 feet will be a 12-inch pipe; and from there down to Second a 10-inch. On Fourth street from Union to Jefferson, down Jefferson to Third, and east on Third to Taylor, 8-inch. On Federal, Jefferson and Taylor, also on Second between Union and Court, a 6-inch. Beside on Garrison street will be placed a 4-inch main, and on Third, between Jefferson and Laughlin, 250 feet of 4-inch.

When the work is accomplished Dalles people will feel a security from fire which it has never before been possible to realize. We will then have a pressure of about ninety pounds to be used in case of fire, and besides the thirty-two plugs which are now distributed over our city, the following will be added: On Union, corners of Eleventh, Ninth, Eighth, Fifth, Third, and Second streets. On Fourth, corners of Washington, Federal, Laughlin, and Jefferson. Corners of Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, and Taylor, on Third.

For general and family use a pressure of sixty-five pounds will be secured, and those who have previously complained of the scarcity of water for irrigating purposes will now have to search for other cause for complaint.

This water move is a good one, and will be greatly appreciated by our residents.

After visiting the section where the men were at work this morning and interviewing Contractor Frye in regard to the men employed, we feel positive that we were misinformed as to outsiders being given preference. The contractors assure us that every effort has been made to employ citizens of The Dalles and vicinity, and although many of their faces are not familiar, yet they are men who have applied for work here.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

A Beautiful Day and Well Observed in The Dalles.

Yesterday was one which was conducive to thanksgiving, and as such was generally observed by Dalles people. Services were held by most of the churches, and family gatherings were the order of the day throughout the city, when around hearthstones and at well-laden tables were assembled the old, the middle-aged and the children to enjoy the genial atmosphere and fellowship of the day set apart for a re-counting of all the mercies and blessings of the past year and to make plans for the future.

Best of all, the poor were not forgotten, and by way of teaching the children that it is more blessed to give than to receive, the superintendents of the junior societies of some of our churches met with a committee of little ones to receive and distribute gifts to those whom we have "always with us." Each child came with some gift, however small, and they were afterward given to the deserving poor.

In the morning services were held in the Episcopal and Lutheran churches, and the contribution at each was for charitable purposes, at the former for the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

Last evening the Congregational and Methodist churches united in a Thanksgiving service at the Congregational church. A large audience was present and the singing was particularly beautiful and appropriate. Rev. Wood delivered a sermon from the text "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits;" adding a text from the New Testament, "In everything give thanks." He recalled a few of the many reasons that the people of the United States have for thanksgiving, mentioning particularly its success in the recent conflict; also saying that not only as a nation but as individuals, have we numberless reasons for gratitude. The speaker was very earnest in his remarks, and claimed the undivided attention of his audience throughout.

A collection was taken at the close of the meeting to be distributed by a committee from each church to those whom they might consider the most needy.

A Farewell Party.

A farewell surprise party was given last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Norman, who leave soon to make their home in Roseburg, Oregon. It was a very enjoyable affair and the guests showed their appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Norman by presenting them with a number of elegant presents. Those present were as follows: Eld. W. V.

Boltz and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kraus, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Akin, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Garner, Meedames B. Murch, J. E. Andrews, D. J. Lemison, C. E. Dufar, A. Schooling, M. James, B. Burger, M. H. Brown, L. Ulrich, E. L. Hughes, G. A. Albright, E. Johnston, Smiley, Hoering, T. E. McPherson, S. Francisco, L. E. Chrisman, L. Lemison, Wm. Bassett, Miss Scott, Arthur Murch, W. A. Smiley, Lewis Johnston, A. Hoering, Ed Davenport, Jennie Akin.

A bountiful lunch was served and every guest departed with a regret that they were to part with such friends as Mr. and Mrs. Norman and with a hope that they would find in Roseburg good friends and be pleased with their new home.

The Catholic Bazaar.

The bazaar given by the Catholic ladies was a success far beyond their expectations. Both evenings the hall was well filled by audiences who seemed to have come with the express purpose of assisting the ladies in their good work.

The programs were very good, the instrumental music being first-class and the negro sketches by Hampshire and Clarke, as was expected, the drawing card of both evenings. The boys seem, if possible, to improve each time they appear, and the question now is, is there an impersonation they cannot do to the queen's taste or as good as any professional?

Miss DeForest, whose voice has not been heard on a Dalles stage since the rendition of "Pinafore," was again listened to Wednesday evening, when its sweetness delighted the audience so much that she was compelled to answer to an encore.

Last night renewed interest was taken in voting for the most popular young lady and also the most popular man in town. Miss Hennegan, who received the most votes in the former contest, was presented with a very pretty china teaset. Judge Bradshaw now holds his head high in the air, having carried away the handsome rocking chair, which was not required to prove his popularity.

A large number of those who enjoy dancing remained to spend a few hours keeping time to the music of the orchestra.

The receipts, so far as can now be ascertained, are about $550.

Comparison.

Look on these: St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 22.—The snow-storm continued throughout the night and drifts are still being piled up. The wires generally are obstructed and local street cars are comparatively at a standstill.

Springfield, Mo., Nov. 22.—George and Edward Cotter, farmers, both married, were caught in a blizzard last night and frozen to death. The bodies were found this morning.

Kansas City, Nov. 22.—The thermometer here today is down to zero and on the plains four degrees below. Great suffering of men and herds is reported. Drifting snow is badly hampering train and telegraph services.

And then on this: Maximum temperature at The Dalles this fall, 67; minimum, 27. Precipitation for the month to date 1.27.

Concerning Forester.

The following telegram was received this afternoon in answer to a query sent yesterday by Sheriff Kelly as regards the appearance of the man purported to be Forester:

WINNEMUCCA, Nev., Nov. 23, 1898. Sheriff Robt. Kelly, The Dalles, Or.: Frank Forester height six foot one; weight 190 pounds; hair light; mustache redder. Has wife at Mitchell. Admits the killing of Brogan. Claims self defense. Has tended sheep camp for Brogan. W. McDEID, Sheriff.

Expression of Gratitude.

Mr. J. W. Condon and Little Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Condon, and Mr. and Mrs. S. French and family, desire to express their thanks to the kind friends and neighbors who so lovingly ministered to their needs, and to the many others who offered their services and tendered their sympathy in this dark hour of their bereavement. May the God of all grace bless them all.

When you ask for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of piles being cured by this than all others combined.

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties.

Wheat, Etc.

A dispatch from Portland says:

It is a difficult matter as it always has been and always will be, to ascertain just how much above the export value has been paid for wheat, but there are well-authenticated reports that 61c and over has been paid for special lots of heavy Walla Walla wheat. No exporter will quote these figures openly, though, and, with freights held as they are at the present time, it is an impossibility for an exporter to get the smallest fraction of a cent over 60c for best Walla Walla. Any figure paid above this is speculative, and worthless as a quotation, for no great amount of wheat could be sold at that price. There has been considerable Valley sold this week at 62c, and more is offering, although the movement in this section is slower in proportion than that in the upper country.

An authority on Valley wheat, who keeps pretty close run of it, states that there is as much wheat still in the hands of Valley farmers as there was altogether last season. Estimates vary as to the amount of the crop east of the mountains that has been sold, but nearly all concede that fully 75 per cent of the crop is yet to be moved.

Our local markets are as follows: Hay and grain—Wheat, $10 a ton. Timothy, $12. Oats, $24. Barley, (rolled) $24. Bran and shorts, $14. Potatoes—45 cents a sack. Cabbage—1 1/2 cent a pound. Cauliflower—75 cents a dozen. Celery—40 cents a dozen. Onions—$1.15 a sack. Carrots, beets, turnips and parsnips—1 cent a pound.

Eggs—Eastern, 25; Oregon, 30 cents. Butter—Creamery, 50; dairy, 45 cents. Chickens—$2.50 to $2.75 a dozen. Ducks—$3.50 a dozen. Turkeys—Alive, 8 cts; dressed, 10 cts.

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, it is brought comfort home to their hearts, as a coactive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs.
