

RIOTS AND STRIKES IN COLORADO

Troops Sent Out to Repress Strikers at Henson.

SITUATION IS VERY CRITICAL

Indians are in Full Control of the Camp, Which They Threaten to Burn—Troops Cannot Reach the Scene Until Tomorrow.

DENVER, March 16.—Rioting at Henson, near Lake City, broke out last night, and the sheriff of Hinsdale county wired the governor for troops. The message came about 1:30 this morning. The sheriff had just returned from Henson and said the situation was extremely critical, and that the strikers were in control of the place and threatened to burn everything in the camp. A red glare in the sky a few minutes after the sheriff left the camp indicated that the threat was being carried out.

The message to Governor Thomas asked for at least 150 men, and the governor decided to grant the request at once. Company B, First infantry, and troops B and C of the cavalry under Captains Smith and Hill were summoned to be in readiness to leave at 5 o'clock this morning. Colonel MacArey commanded the troops.

A stop was made at Pueblo this morning for thirty men of company B, Second infantry, at that place, and it is likely the run to Lake City will be made by 5 o'clock tonight. The snows on Marshall Pass may delay the time a little, but the men will be in readiness to leave for Henson by conveyances during the early night, and be prepared to take charge of the situation at daylight.

As the roads winds through a narrow canyon for most of the distance the troops will depend upon the Lake City people to prevent ambushing, for at some places it would be possible for a few men to hold the entire attacking force at bay, especially as the snow and ice on the gorge are so that detours over the sides of the hills are impossible.

LAKE CITY, Col., March 16.—The Italian strikers did not attempt to burn the mining camp, as was feared, last night. Quiet prevails today. The troops en route from Denver and Pueblo are expected to reach Lake City tomorrow morning.

Morrow County Products. HEPPNER, Or., March 14.—Considerable wool is being shipped from this point. Two small clips sold for ten cents per pound. The aggregate amount shipped last week and this week will amount to 400,000 pounds. Sheepmen are anxious for warm weather. Sheep in the vicinity of the Columbia, in the northern part of the county are already lambing, and the per cent saved will be small if the weather does not get warmer so that grass can grow. The loss of stock in Morrow county was more than usual last winter.

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLE.

Do Not Be Alarmed, But Look For the Cause.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing, and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, or poor digestion. Real organic disease is incurable; but not one case in a hundred of heart troubles is organic. The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerve, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way, also the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas fermentation from half digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action; hence arises palpitation and short breath. Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart. The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food. This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores, and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form. It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free, Address: F. A. Stuart, Co., Marshall, Mich.

Crops Are Saved.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—There is hardly a section of California that has not been visited by rain within the past two hours, and in most places it has been raining almost constantly for forty eight hours.

This rainfall will prove the savior of the state this year, as had rain not fallen at this most opportune time there would have been the second dry season, but now crops are saved. The rivers will furnish plenty of water for the miners and business generally will be good.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of La Grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" Appointed to the Army.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Cyrus A. Dolph, of Portland, Or., was today appointed a second lieutenant in the army, under the new act. He is now in California. He was at Manila several months, and received recommendations for meritorious service from General Merritt and General Otis. He is a son of the late Senator J. N. Dolph. Lieutenant Dolph will probably be assigned to distant service.

Eczema! The Only Cure.

Eczema is more than a skin disease, and no skin remedies can cure it. The doctors are unable to effect a cure, and their mineral mixtures are damaging to the most powerful constitution. The whole trouble is in the blood, and Swift's Specific is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated blood diseases.

Eczema broke out on my daughter, and continued to spread until her head was entirely covered. She was treated by several good doctors, but grew worse, and the dreadful disease spread to her face. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many patent medicines were taken, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished, her head began to heal. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now sixteen years old, and has a magnificent growth of hair. Not a sign of the dreadful disease has ever returned.

Don't expect local applications of soaps and salves to cure Eczema. They reach only the surface, while the disease comes from within. Swift's Specific is the only cure and will reach the most obstinate case. It is far ahead of all similar remedies, because it cures cases which are beyond their reach. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, and is the only blood purifier guaranteed to contain no poisons, mercury or other mineral. Books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

ST. PATRICK. Who He Was, and What His Mission—A Paper by Mrs. S. L. Brooks.

The following paper was composed by Mrs. Brooks and read at the St. Patrick's party given by the Ladies' Aid Society, at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Hoeteler, last Wednesday afternoon:

The 17th of March has by common consent been consecrated to the memory of him who is called the Apostle of Ireland. History is very indefinite as to its account of him, France, Scotland and Wales being given as the place of his birth. In his confession he himself says he was born at Bonaven, Taberna. The last name, meaning camps, was given by the Romans to the district south of the Clyde, and also to one near the river Usk in Wales. Either of the two is better authenticated than that of Boulogne, France.

In some of the incursions of the Picts or Scots, common at the time, as the Roman power was declining to hold these people in abeyance, when about sixteen years of age he was taken captive and sold to a petty chief of Ireland, where he remained for about six years, then making his escape back to his home in Britain.

During his stay in the island he seems to have become interested in its people so as to decide to devote his life to their service, though as he says himself, it was in opposition to the wishes of his friends; but he claimed to have heard their call, "Come over and help us."

His name is said to have been Socius, Patrick being from the Roman indicating patrician. His father's name was Calpurnius, and evidently a Roman officer of some authority, also a convert to the Christian faith as he is called a deacon. While history, when separated from the mythical and supernatural, gives us so little of detail, the fact that his name has come down through the ages from about the fifth century, kept evergreen in the memory of the warm-hearted people whom he went to serve, proves him to have been a man of more than ordinary ability. Dealing cautiously and gently with old pagan superstitions, even preserving some of the Druidical altars and transforming many of their rites and customs to the Christian faith he was endeavoring to inculcate.

His "Confession" reveals him a devout, simple-minded, unlettered man, and a discreet, energetic missionary. Such men belong to no special age, race, or clime, but are the heritage of the world, and we, on the shores of the Pacific, can unite with the people of the Emerald Isle, washed by the Atlantic's surges, in commemorating the memory of St. Patrick, whether the 17th of March be the day of his birth or his death. The life spent in service is what we would honor.

"Wondrous and awful are thy silent halls, Oh kingdom of the past! Whatever there was of true life in thee, Leaps in our veins. For us thy martyrs die; thy prophets see; Thy poets still are singing."

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters'; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Notice to Tax Payers.

I will promptly close the tax roll and turn over the delinquent list to clerk on first Monday in April. Interest on all county warrants paid in for taxes shall cease on and after the turning over of each roll. ROBERT KELLY, Sheriff, Wasco Co. The Dalles, March 15, 1899.

The new steamboat Spokane, built by the O. R. & N. Co. to ply on the Snake river between Riparia and Lewiston, is now complete, and in service. Steamer Lewiston is also in service, and the two steamers will alternate between Riparia and Lewiston, leaving Riparia daily except Sunday on arrival of train No. 4 from Portland and reaching Lewiston next day at 1 p. m. Returning, will leave Lewiston daily except Saturday at 12 o'clock noon, arriving at Riparia at 7 p. m., connecting with train No. 3 from Spokane. The Spokane has been specially constructed for the run mentioned above, and is thoroughly equipped with all modern appliances, electric lights, etc., and for speed and comfort will excel any craft that has ever been built for the Snake river. The Lewiston is her steady old self. Mar 4 1m LAMPS HELD MAGNETS.

An Old Conjurer's Trick That is Now Put to Good Use in the Machine Shop.

To hold down to a lecture platform a light iron object by means of an electro-magnet underneath, out of sight, and thus appear to multiply its weight many times over at will—to make it impossible even to lift the object in question, providing the magnet be powerful enough—is an old conjurer's trick which has served on many occasions to mystify the public, says Cassier's Magazine.

Its principle, however, has been applied to several more useful purposes, and one of these, of recent date, is embodied in a magnetic chuck for miscellaneous work, for surface grinding, principally, but adapted also for the planer or the lathe.

The magnetic effect in this chuck is produced by an electro current circulating in a coil in the interior of the device, and, as this coil is wound, preferably, for 110 volts, the needed current can be taken from any regular electric lighting main in or about a shop. The convenience of the device, especially for small work, is obvious.

A magnetic holder for an electric incandescent lamp is another electric shop convenience. The holder is simply a lamp socket containing a small electric magnet, which will make the whole contrivance stick to any piece of iron or steel with which it may be brought in contact.

The coil through which the magnet is energized is within the base of the holder, and the lamp current supplying the energy passes through it on its way to the lamp.

THE PLATFORM WOMAN.

This Noted Author Says She Has Ever Been a Blot Upon American Womanhood.

The platform woman never has been a credit to, but ever a blot upon, American womanhood. I make this emphatic statement from a personal knowledge of the homes which these women leave behind when they go to their meetings, writes Edward Bok, in Ladies' Home Journal. I have seen the rooms of their homes left in wild disorder; I have seen their servants sitting in idleness with work on every hand to do; I have seen the children neglected and left to their own devices; I have heard husbands speak in derision of the motives of their wives. No woman in a happy American home can ever afford to listen to these parasites of her sex. Fortunately, the platform woman's influence is steadily on the wane. She was never a power. She was never even picturesque. Her worst injury was wrought upon certain weak women who for the time she deluded. But even with them she was soon regarded with wonder rather than with interest; with suspicion rather than with confidence. Less and less has she been able to get listeners, and it is significant that in places where she has spoken during the present season she has not been seen again. The disappearance of the platform woman is a case of a blot being blotted out.

TOOK HIS WIFE'S ADVICE.

But the Ingenious Woman Did Not Know Where a Man Should Carry His Money.

When the man whose haircut showed that his wife had peculiar notions as to the way a man should dress his hair quit giving advice, one of the listeners said, reports the New York Sun:

"No man has more respect for a woman than I have, but I shall never take the advice of my wife again about money matters. She insisted upon my hiding my salary, so if I should be held up the highwaymen wouldn't get it. I draw my stipend at six p. m., and it is quite dark before I get home. She is a good hider in the house, but her talent in that line stops there. Now, she had the brilliant idea that I should put the envelope containing my money under the sweat band of my hat. Highwaymen would never look there, and would never rob a man of his hat. After she had made this suggestion about 40 times I accepted it. I went home as usual on the elevated. I had a slight attack of vertigo in the ear, and the man who always knows what to do said I needed fresh air, and threw up the window. In doing so he knocked off I went home bareheaded and
