Every once in a while we hear of some man suing another for a big amount of money for alienating a wife's affections.

As we read in the Oregonian last night of the expensive drinking fountain which is to be donated to the city of Portland by Hon. D. P. Thompson, it just occurred to our minds how badly The Dalles is in need of drinking places scattered throughout the city.

Were half the exciting news to be advertised regarding the Atlatidistrict that is daily being told by miners throughout Oregon, there would be a rush in which more lives would be lost in reaching that section than ever before and cause former records to pale into insignificance.

Among the graduates of the Holmes English and Business College in Portland, which commencement will take place Monday evening, we notice the names of the following pupils from The Dalles: Edward F. Jenkins, who has finished the commercial and shorthand course; James Francis Wood and Anna M. Stabbing, who graduated from the commercial course.

About fifteen students who have been attending the Portland university arrived on the boat last evening on the way to their respective homes in Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho, leaving on the night train.

The latest cable from Otis is as follows. We wonder if its O. K. this time: "MANILA, June 8.—The Oregon volunteers request to defer the time of departure until the 12th instant. They will leave for Portland on the transports Ohio and Newport. The Sixth infantry, upon its arrival, will relieve the California at Negros. The Hancock sails in a few days with the Nebraska and other troops."

General Otis has been advised that it is the wish of the president that all arrangements be made to give the returning troops a comfortable voyage, and that the best of care be taken so that no sickness may break out among them.

DELINQUENT TAX SALE FOR THE YEAR 1898.

By virtue of a warrant issued by the clerk of the county court of the county of Wasco, for the state of Oregon, dated the 17th day of May, 1899, to me directed, commanding me to levy on the goods and chattels of the delinquent tax payers for said county, for the year 1898, thereto attached, and if none be found, then upon the real property as set forth and described in the said delinquent tax roll, or so much thereof as shall satisfy the amount of taxes charged therein, together with the costs and expenses, I will, on Monday, the 10th day of July, 1899,

at the front door of the court house in said county, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, subject to redemption, to satisfy said warrant, cost and accruing costs, the hereinafter described pieces or parcels of land, having duly levied upon said piece or parcels of land and being unable to find any goods or chattels belonging to the respective delinquents therein named.

Dated at Dalles City, Oregon, May 8, 1899.

ROBERT KELLY, Sheriff Wasco County, Oregon.
