

PERSONAL MENTION

Saturday's Daily

W. S. Chipp, of Arlington, is a visitor in the city today.

Miss Melissa Hill was among the passengers on the Regulator this morning bound for Portland.

Miss Blanche Dufur is in The Dalles today from her home in California. She will visit relatives in Dufer.

Mrs. A. McLeod, who has spent the past two weeks with her mother in this city, returned to her home in Goldendale today.

Miss Lawrence and Miss Mabel Lawrence, who have been guests at the home of J. S. Schenck, returned to Portland by boat today.

Grant E. Kellogg, editor of the Moro Republic, and C. N. McCaleb, a business man of Moro, called at the Chronicle office today.

M. B. Zumwalt arrived from Trigh yesterday to attend the circus. He, however, did not forget to call at The Chronicle office, and made a substantial call too.

Chas. Durbin arrived in the city last evening from Antelope to attend the circus. Where he managed to find all the dust which had accumulated on his face was a question with his friends. It was a circus to see him.

H. C. Rooper is apparently one of those who borrow the children for the purpose of having an excuse to attend the circus. He came in yesterday with three children of his own and three borrowed from the neighbors.

Messrs. P. J. McCully, of the Goldendale Sentinel, and W. McKenzie, a hardware merchant of that city, came over on their bicycles this morning to attend the circus, leaving there at 6 o'clock and arriving at The Chronicle office by 10.

Monday's Daily

J. E. Campbell, of White Salmon, is in the city.

E. J. Prahl and wife came over from Glennwood yesterday.

Miss Lena Liebe left this morning for a visit with relatives in Portland.

M. E. Weir, one of Arlington's prominent citizens, is registered at the Umatilla.

W. O. Hadley and wife came up from Hood River Saturday evening and returned today.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McIntosh returned Saturday evening after a ten day's visit in Portland.

Mrs. A. Keller and daughter, Josie, were passengers on the Regulator this morning bound for Portland.

Rev. J. H. Wood is in Portland to be present at the graduating exercises of the Holmes Business College.

Mrs. B. D. Johnson, who has been visiting her sister in this city, returned Saturday afternoon to her home in Astoria.

Miss Burkhardt and Miss Emily Liebe, who have been guests at the home of G. A. Liebe, returned to Portland by boat today.

Rev. and Mrs. Hoadley returned to their home in University Park today. Mr. Hoadley occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church yesterday.

Mrs. R. Kiger, who has been visiting her brother, Seth Morgan, spent the day in The Dalles on her way to her home in Corvallis. She is the guest of Mrs. M. Parkins.

E. C. Pentland, of the Independence West Side, who has been visiting in the towns of Eastern Oregon, returned to The Dalles yesterday and spent today with his sister.

Miss Minnie Lay, who has spent almost a year with her sister in St. Louis, is expected to return this afternoon. She will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Emma Carlisle.

Miss Leland, who has been visiting with the family of A. H. Curtis in Grand Dalles for some months past, left this morning for her home in Portland, much improved in health.

Miss Nellie Butler has arrived in the city from Portland, and will spend her vacation here. Her health is somewhat improved and it is thought rest will soon restore her to her usual state of health.

G. C. Blakeley left yesterday for Portland. While there he will attend the grand lodge of Masons, the Pioneer Association and the meeting of the board of examiners of the Pharmaceutical Society.

Tuesday's Daily

Mrs. G. W. Saunders arrived home last night from Portland, where she has been attending the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Meyers returned Saturday, Mrs. Crossen Sunday and Mrs. Burget will arrive tonight.

BORN

In this city, Monday, June 12th, to Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Ketchum, a daughter.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

The Lady Minstrels.

A merrier crowd than the one engaged in rehearsing for the Lady Minstrels to be given at the Vogt theater Wednesday and Thursday nights, June 21 and 22, it would be hard to find, and a genuine surprise is in store for the general public, when they see how much talent there is among their own ladies and children in this line of work.

The end ladies handle the bones and tamborlike adepts and they are also preparing a rich set of refined witticisms at the expense of the popular gentlemen of the town. It goes without saying that these jokes are devoid of malice. The pickanninies are a host in themselves. The sketch and cubs walk alone are worth the price of admission.

Glorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows that thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion and builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists. Guaranteed. 1
