EDMUNDS WANTS TO KNOW TRUTH

As to What the Government Promised the Filipinos. During the War with SPANIARDS

Opinions of Prominent Men on the All-Absorbing Subject—Congressman Hitt and Senator John T. Morgan Defend the Policy of the Administration but ex-Senator Edmunds Does Not Agree With Them.

New York, July 6.—In today's issue of the Independent appear various articles upon the foreign relations of the United States and expansion. Congressman Hitt; chairman of the committee on foreign relations, writes: "There are some who say the just for military glory has been the cause of the downfall of all the republics of the past, but that is not true. The past had few or no true republics, certainly not any at all comparable with the United States, a republic organized on the principle of representative government by all. We are making precedents. There seems to be a great war cloud forming over China and the forces mastering there are mighty enough to produce a war of the greatest magnitude. But I see no reason that will require us to join the conflict, if conflict there is to be. The only interest we have in the matter is a trade interest, and our great epochal wars have never had their origin in anything so sordid."

Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama, writes: "Those who lament and decry the conduct of our government in dealing with the Philippines as being violative of our constitution are too late to accomplish much else than to echo the pathetic appeals of Aguinaldo that we do not destroy our government in order to save the Filipinos from the fatal power of his dictatorship."

Ex-Senator George F. Edmunds, arguing against expansion, demands that the government disclose to the people precisely what took place before the capture of Manila, and what promises were made the Filipinos. He asks if Spain had anything but a "pretended" sovereignty to cede, and demands the reason for the sudden turning of the Filipinos' friendship into hostility. He concludes: "First let us know the whole truth of what has happened and then perhaps the advocates of glory, or dominion, or trade of civilization and religion advanced by the cannon and the bayonet and supported by the blood and treasure of our people can point out to us how these are 'the ways of pleasantness and peace.'"

Deafness Cannot be Cured. by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free. F. J. CHERNEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. 6-10 Hall's Family Pills are the best.
